Short Story Index, 1994 The Desert Remembers My Name Kathleen Alcalá, 2022-03-15 My parents always told me I was Mexican I was Mexican because they were Mexican This was sometimes modified to Mexican American since I was born in California and thus automatically a U S citizen But my parents said this too was once part of Mexico My father would say this with a sweeping gesture taking in the smog the beautiful mountains the cars and houses and fast food franchises When he made that gesture all was cleared away in my mind's eye to leave the hazy impression of a better place We were here when the white people came the Spaniards then the Americans And we will be here when they go away he would say and it will be part of Mexico again Thus begins a lyrical and entirely absorbing collection of personal essays by esteemed Chicana writer and gifted storyteller Kathleen Alcalá Loosely linked by an exploration of the many meanings of family these essays move in a broad arc from the stories and experiences of those close to her to those whom she wonders about like Andrea Yates a mother who drowned her children In the process of digging and sifting she is frequently surprised by what she unearths Her family she discovers were Jewish refugees from the Spanish Inquisition who took on the trappings of Catholicism in order to survive Although the essays are in many ways personal they are also universal When she examines her family history she is encouraging us to inspect our own families too When she investigates a family secret she is supporting our own search for meaning And when she writes that being separated from our indigenous culture is a form of illiteracy we know exactly what she means After reading these essays we find that we have discovered not only why Kathleen Alcal is a writer but also why we appreciate her so much She helps us to find ourselves A Line of Cutting Women Beverly McFarland, 1998 Fiction and essay anthology Women's Studies In this anthology culled from twenty two years of award winning CALYX A Journal of Art and Literature By Women a long line of writers share their visions of the world's women create What an extraordinary collection of worthwhile writing brave in many cases beautiful in almost all A book to sit down with I was able to remember my first reading of some of these stories many of them first publications and relive the excitement Grace Paley Anyone who still doubts the existence of a multicultural women's culture will be forever changed by this book and will have enjoyed a fine read in the bargain Robin Morgan Thirty seven stories drawn from two decades worth of issues of CALYX A Journal of Art and Literature By Women demonstrate both how important a role the journal has played in providing a venue for both unknown and well established writers and how sharp its editorial eyes have been There are superb tales here by such familiar figures as Julia Alvarez the affecting Now World Linda Hogan Crow and Alicia Ostriker Esther or The World Turned Upside Down as well as stunning work by less well known writers including M Evelina Galang's Her Wild American Self and Hollis Seamon's Gypsies in the Place of Pain The volume takes its title from a fierce sad tale by Rita Marie Nibasa about the ways in which love and violence often mingle Because the stories are by women from a number of cultures and because the tales embrace so many kinds of narrative views from the grimly documentary to magic realism the collection provides a useful overview of the large diverse often angry and usually vital work being produced by a new and markedly varied generation of women writers First rate short fiction Kirkus

Bibliographic Guide to Chicana and Latina Narrative Kathy Leonard, 2003-08-30 There has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years Nonetheless there has been little attempt to catalog this material This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002 In doing so it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature The volume cites more than 2 750 short stories novels novel excerpts and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American Puerto Rican Cuban American Dominican American and Nuyorican women authors These citations are grouped in five indexes an author title index title author index anthology index novel index and autobiography index Short annotations are provided for the anthologies novels and autobiographies Thus the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author the other works the author has written and the anthologies in which the author's shorter pieces have been reprinted along with information about particular works
