Nestor Almendros Un Homme A La Camera:

Transnational Cinematography Studies Roberto Schaefer, Lindsay Coleman, Daisuke Miyao, 2016-12-27 Transnational Cinematography Studies introduces new perspectives to the discipline of film and media studies First this volume focuses on a crucial yet largely unexplored area in film and media studies the substantial communication between critical studies of cinema and film production practices This book integrates theories and practices of cinematographic technology Secondly Transnational Cinematography Studies expands the scope of film and media studies into the arena of transnationalism Cinema is now discussed in terms of globalization of audio visual cultures with regard to such issues as Hollywood film studios so called runaway productions and multi national co productions Hollywood remakes of Asian horror films or Hong Kong martial arts films and the growing significance of international film festivals However this volume proposes that globalization is not in itself new in the history of cinema and that cinema has always been at the forefront of transnational culture from the beginning of its history A Man with a Camera Nestor Almendros, 1984 A Companion to François Truffaut Dudley Andrew, Anne Gillain, 2013-02-11 A Companion to François Truffaut An unprecedented critical tribute to the director who in France wound up becoming the most controversial figure of the New Wave he helped found Raymond Bellour Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique This exciting collection breaks through the widely held critical view that Truffaut abandoned the iconoclasm of his early work for an academicism he had consistently railed against in his own film criticism Indeed if fever and fire were Truffaut's most consistent motifs the essays in this collection live up to his lifelong burning passion for the cinema Written by world famous scholars the essays exhaustively explore the themes and styles of the films as well as Truffaut's relationships to André Bazin Alfred Hitchcock and the directors of the New Wave his groundbreaking and controversial film criticism and his position in the complex politics of French cultural life from the Popular Front to 1968 and after Angelo Restivo Georgia State University Although the New Wave one of the most influential aesthetic revolutions in the history of cinema might not have existed without him François Truffaut has largely been ignored by film scholars since his death almost thirty years ago As an innovative theoretician an influential critic and a celebrated filmmaker Truffaut formulated disseminated and illustrated the ideals of the New Wave with exceptional energy and distinction Yet no book in recent years has focused on Truffaut's value and his overall contribution to cinema deserves to be redefined not only to reinstate him in his proper place but to let us rethink how cinema developed during his lifetime In this new Companion thirty four original essays by leading film scholars offer new readings of individual films and original perspectives on the filmmaker's background influences and consequence Hugely influential around the globe Truffaut is assessed by international contributors who delve into the unique quality of his narratives and establish the depth of his distinctively styled work An extended interview with French filmmaker Arnaud Desplechin tracks Truffaut's controversial stature within French cinema and vividly identifies how he thinks and works as a director adding an irreplaceable perspective to this

François Truffaut Annette Insdorf, 2020-08-31 Truffaut's films beautifully demonstrate the idea that a film can express its director as personally as a novel can reveal its author Moreover his development of a gently self-conscious visual style made him more than the entertainer he believed he was there is genuine artistry in his motion pictures He affected the course of French cinema indeed world cinema by blending auteurist art with accessible cinematic storytelling Unlike other New Wave directors such as Jean Luc Godard Truffaut preferred idiosyncratic characters like the semi-autobiographical Antoine Doinel and universal emotions especially desire and fear to political tracts or didactic essays Instead of the elitism or self-indulgence that characterize much of European cinema Truffaut's movies were meant to touch people from different countries times and classes And they keep succeeding in this aim Truffaut's cinema remains a model of intimate reasonably budgeted sophisticated filmmaking that can still speak delightfully and profoundly to an international audience Long considered the definitive study of Truffaut's genius this revised and updated edition of François Truffaut includes fresh insights and an extensive section on the director's last five films Love on the Run The Green Room The Last Metro The Woman Next Door and Confidentially Yours While not a biography of the director Insdorf captures in this study the essence and totality of Truffaut's work She discusses his contributions to the French New Wave his relations with his mentors Hitchcock and Renoir and the dominant themes of his cinema women love children language She explores his life in relation to his films from The 400 Blows to The Man Who Loved Women The most sensitive and intelligent book in the English language about my work François Truffaut Everyone who loves Truffaut will be delighted to welcome this book to
