Notes Toward A Family Tree:

Notes Toward a Family Tree John Barton,1993-01-01 Notes Toward a Family Tree wrestles with the question of what constitutes a family in our age of shifting values Writing with lyrical and political intensity John Barton explores the difficulty of forming a family nuclear extended or chosen and a society to which we all can belong in which we can experience love for one another     The Genealogy of the Steiner Family Lewis Henry Steiner,Bernard Christian Steiner,1896     Astralabe

Brenda M. Cook,2023-09-30 Two of the most notable figures from the Middle Ages the volatile brilliant Abelard and the equally brilliant Heloise became the parents of their son Astralabe before Abelard s infamous brutal castration The couple spent the rest of their lives as monastics in each other s orbits if not in shared presence as they became movers in the glittering monastic world of the early twelfth century France What happened to their strangely named Astralabe Astralabe The Life and Times of the Son of Heloise and Abelard rescues the lost son from footnotes and fiction and attempts to tell instead the story of a real man living in Europe in the twelfth century This book assembles the references to Astralabe provides background in the history of France and Switzerland uncovers Abelard s relationships with his family with the ruling house of Brittany and more and most importantly draws together all that is known of Astralabe     XSLT 2.0 and XPath 2.0

Programmer's Reference Michael Kay,2011-01-06 Combining coverage of both XSLT 2 0 and XPath 2 0 this book is the definitive reference to the final recommendation status versions of both specifications The authors start by covering the concepts in XSLT and XPath and then delve into elements operators expressions with syntax usage and examples Some of the specific topics covered include XSLT processing model stylesheet structure serialization extensibility and many others In addition to online content that includes error codes the book also has case studies you ll find applicable to your own challenges     We All Begin in a Little Magazine Arc,1998-07-15 When Arc began publishing in 1978 it had one aim to publish the best work by Canada s new and established poets Celebrating Arc s first two decades We All Begin in a Little Magazine testifies to how fully the editors realized their aspirations It provides a rich cross section of Canada s poetry of the time the most vital years thus far in the history of Canadian Literature Read the work of your favourite poets just as they first made names for themselves Rediscover the excitement you felt when you came across their poems in Arc Canada s best little magazine     Heloise Mandy Hager,2017-05-15 What happens when the 12th century s most famous French lovers are caught in the crossfire of factions religious reform and blind ambition Heloise is a determined young woman with an exceptional mind longing to pursue learning rather than marriage or life as a cloistered nun Her path inevitably crosses with Peter Abelard the celebrity philosopher theologian and master at Paris famed Cathedral School When two such brilliant minds meet and engage sparks are likely to ignite But theirs is an impossible love This is a time when the Gregorian Reforms are starting to bite and celibacy among the clergy and church officials is being rigorously imposed Based on meticulous up to date research and the pair s own writings this novel offers a plausible interpretation of the known facts and a vivid imagining of the gaps in this legendary story It shines a light on a changing world whose attitudes and politics are not so very different from our own      West of Darkness John Barton,1999-09-16 Here is a portrait of Emily Carr a fine literary work that is impressionistic rather than exact betraying the artist intact in spirit fortitude and legacy      Line by Line Heather Spears,2002 Line by Line offers a glimpse of poetry in action through the expressive drawings of Heather Spears Fifty of Canada's most revered poets contemplate the subject line lines of poetry landscape or art each poem accompanied by a portrait capturing the poet in performance      We All Begin in a Little Magazine Arc Poetry Society,1998 When Arc began publishing in 1978 it had one aim to publish the best work by Canada's new and established poets Celebrating Arc's first two decades We All Begin in a Little Magazine testifies to how fully the editors realized their aspirations It provides a rich cross section of Canada's poetry of the time the most vital years thus far in the history of Canadian Literature Read the work of your favourite poets just as they first made names for themselves Rediscover the excitement you felt when you came across their poems in Arc Canada's best little magazine      Genetic Geographies Catherine Nash,2015-04-01 What might be wrong with genetic accounts of personal or shared ancestry and origins Genetic studies are often presented as valuable ways of understanding where we come from and how people are related In Genetic Geographies Catherine Nash pursues their troubling implications for our perception of sexual and national as well as racial difference Bringing an incisive geographical focus to bear on new genetic histories and genetic genealogy Nash explores the making of ideas of genetic ancestry indigeneity and origins the global human family and national genetic heritage In particular she engages with the science culture and commerce of ancestry in the United States and the United Kingdom including National Geographic's Genographic Project and the People of the British Isles project Tracing the tensions and contradictions between the emphasis on human genetic similarity and shared ancestry and the attention given to distinctive patterns of relatedness and different ancestral origins Nash challenges the assumption that the concepts of shared ancestry are necessarily progressive She extends this scrutiny to claims about the natural differences between the sexes and the nature of reproduction in studies of the geography of human genetic variation Through its focus on sex nation and race and its novel spatial lens Genetic Geographies provides a timely critical guide to what happens when genetic science maps relatedness      Writing Academic Texts Differently Nina Lykke,2014-06-27 This edited volume combines cutting edge research on feminist and intersectional writing methodologies with explorations of links between academic and creative writing practices Contributors discuss what it means for academic writing processes to explore intersectional in between spaces between monolithic identity markers and power differentials such as gender race ethnicity class sexuality and nationality How does such a frame change academic writing How does it make it pertinent to explore new synergies between academic and creative writing In answer to these questions the book offers theories methodologies political and ethical considerations as well as reflections on writing strategies Suggestions for writing exercises developed against the background of the contributors individual and joint teaching practices will inspire readers to engage in alternative writing practices themselves      The Genealogy of the Francis and Elizabeth Ewart Family Carol King Heckman, 1969      Modernity in Islamic Tradition Florian

Zemmin, 2018-07-23 What does it mean to be modern This study regards the concept of society as foundational to modern self understanding Identifying Arabic conceptualizations of society in the journal al Manar the mouthpiece of Islamic reformism the author shows how modernity was articulated from within an Islamic discursive tradition The fact that the classical term umma was a principal term used to conceptualize modern society suggests the convergence of discursive traditions in modernity rather than a mere diffusion of European concepts      The Unfinished Manner Elizabeth Wanning Harries, 1994

The Unfinished Manner examines the fragments produced by European writers and artists in the eighteenth century and earlier fragments that were not the result of an inability to finish either texts or buildings but rather deliberate refusals to make the traditional gestures of conclusion Most books published in the past few years on the fragment and the unfinished see it as a peculiarly Romantic early nineteenth century exclusively poetic form Elizabeth Wanning Harries argues instead that the fragment not only had a long history beginning with Petrarch but also played an important part in the history of the novel and other kinds of prose Conceptualizing the fragment as a genre Harries sheds a new light on the practice of reading fiction and reading ruins in the eighteenth century complex practices that often require oscillation between two perspectives or ways of reading She also explores the gendering of forms in eighteenth century aesthetics the perception of fragments as feminine beautiful rather than masculine sublime and speculates on the fragment's meaning within the context of eighteenth century social mythologies as well as those of later eras Finally she rereads Coleridge's Kubla Khan to show its roots in eighteenth century fragmentary textual practices The Unfinished Manner takes up the questions that arise when writers and artists treat apparently unfinished forms fragments ruins torsos sketches as finished both in the eighteenth century and implicitly today Harries's treatments of Petrarch as the initiator of the fragment tradition of Sterne in relation to biblical criticism of Coleridge's Kubla Khan in relation to Sterne's Tristram Shandy and of fragments in their relation to the feminine are original and revisionary contributions that seriously challenge some critical assumptions about Romanticism and its relationship to eighteenth century texts BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      Planting Your Family Tree Online Cyndi Howells, 2004-01-12 A beginner's guide to building a website
