Nothing Happens Until It Happens to You T. M. Shine, 2011-04-05 Jeffrey Reiner is a middle manager's dream Predictable almost invisible and lacking ambition he's held the same tedious job for eighteen years typing up the calendar listings for a South Florida weekly As the economy and the newspaper industry crashed around him Jeffrey kept his head comfortably in the sand until he was terminated in the middle of his lunch hour Suddenly Jeffrey is staring at a deadline of twenty one weeks before his severance pay and unemployment benefits dry up and he has to figure out what to do next Plunged into the bizarre world of unemployment Jeffrey's attempts at networking lead him to his slacker neighbors an unorthodox state facilitator and a 1 800 mental health counselor What's even worse is now that he has no job to fill the daytime hours he can't ignore the fact that his family life is unraveling his wife communicates almost solely through detailed daily honey do lists his mother seems determined to get herself kicked out of her assisted living facility his teenage daughter has no use for him and seems wiser to the ways of the world than he'll ever be and his son has taken up a disturbing form of pest control to help make ends meet Even his dog finds a way to let him down With his job search going nowhere amid the wreckage of the American economy Jeffrey has no choice but to push beyond his comfort zone He takes on a string of ridiculous odd jobs for a guy known as enterprising dude that include dressing up as the Statue of Liberty and breeding fish in a tub of mud But as Jeffrey stumbles from one comic catastrophe to another he realizes that in opening up to the world he no longer wants to go back to his safe sheltered corner Full of whimsy wry humor and surprising insight Nothing Happens Until It Happens to You is a weird wonderful journey of self discovery that proves there's life after the pink slip after all

Inside Lance Steele, 2013-05-26 Dating Advice for Women from Men was written for women by a man. It might sound a bit ironic, but it is filled with great tips that ladies venturing into the world of dating can use. Based on what the author advises, the best dating tips for women come from the male perspective. Author Lance Steele believes that women who have a difficult time dating do not take the time to look at things from a male's point of view. What a male looks for in a woman and not the opposite way around is the key for a woman to find her special someone. Not understanding this angle often leads to ladies choosing the wrong man to pursue a relationship with or to end up ruining the one that they are with. This book is a great addition to any female's book collection as it zeroes in on the main points that a woman should focus on if she is seeking male companionship. The author has ensured that the text is laid out in a fashion that is easy to read and understand. In the dating game, all good advice is a necessary vice.

An Unbroken Educational Apartheid Legacy David E. Morgan Ph.D., 2015-03-17 This is a thought-provoking book on the black-white academic achievement gap in Chicago's predominantly black communities of color and what highly effective school boards can do to change it. In this book, the reader will be powerfully enlightened by a civil and human rights debate that calls for effective leadership in our schools, beginning with effective school boards. The primary agenda of effective school boards is raising student achievement performance levels and engaging the school district community to attain that goal. These instructive analyses of effective school board leadership builds on the research and wisdom of great leaders. Simultaneously, it develops a breath of fresh air for school reformers who seek to implement a new model and escape the insanity and pathology inherent in school board dysfunctions and violations of our civil and human rights which prevents progress in Chicago's south suburban communities of color. In both highs and lows of awesome moments as educational reform leaders and school board members, we are in a strategic leadership position to help school boards carry out their essential responsibilities for creating equity and excellence in public education. In doing so, highly effective school leaders can team with our school board leaders to lead our school district communities in preparing all students to succeed in a rapidly changing global society. School board members doing the same things over and over again and then expecting different results in academic outcomes is the definition for insanity. Education is freedom. In an era of mass educational apartheid with its consequent mass incarceration of blacks that has surpassed the enforced chattel bondage of slavery's peak numbers in 1860, this book addresses a subject that is critically essential, timely, and in need of immediate attention for the security, success, and ultimate survival of black America. As the problems of the academic underachievement gap are addressed in this book, it is also essential that school boards, educators, and community and national leaders accept reality to view the problem in its true perspective, to contemplate it as it is, in providing essential solutions toward removing limiting and limited school boards dysfunctions, obstructions, and other barriers to academic achievement in effective school board leadership. Supporting educational excellence will thereby produce more African American scholars in mathematics, science, and in many other disciplines. This book will provide information and focus on some key action areas.
