Nothing To Declare A Memoir:

Nothing to Declare Taki, Taki Theodoracopulos, 1994-01-26 World class athlete playboy war correspondent and heir to a Greek shipping fortune Taki has over the last three decades moved among the rich the powerful the titled and the celebrated in London New York Gstaad the Riviera wherever fun or stimulation was to be had But in 1984 while passing through Heathrow Airport Taki was arrested for possession of cocaine and summarily sent to jail Nothing to Declare is the hilarious and surprisingly wise account of the three months Taki spent in prison a story filled with perilous day to day events as well as reflections on the glamorous life he has led Find Your Story, Write Your Memoir Lynn C. Miller, Lisa

Lenard-Cook, 2013-05-31 Every person has a story to tell but few beginners know how to uncover their story's narrative potential And despite a growing interest among students and creative writers few guides to the genre of memoirs and creative nonfiction highlight compelling storytelling strategies Addressing this gap the authors provide a guide to memoir writing that shows how an aspiring writer can use storytelling tools and tactics borrowed from fiction to weave personal experiences into the shape of a story Falling into Place Thomas Swick, 2023-11-15 From Booklist's Starred Review Swick keenly and empathically observes the world bringing both a relatable human approach and learned appreciation for the art of travel and of life Working as a feature writer in 1976 Thomas Swick falls in love with a visiting Polish student named Hania and soon moves with her to Warsaw The next decade sees Thomas living in Poland Greece and Philadelphia He declines an invitation to be a Polish informer sees John Paul II embolden the masses on his first trip back to his homeland since becoming pope witnesses the rise of Solidarity and the imposition of martial law in Poland and walks with thousands of Poles on the pilgrimage to Czestochowa an annual religious rite that blossoms into a nine day protest march In 1989 he watches Hania vote in her country's first free elections since pre war independence One month later he lands his dream job as a travel writer Falling into Place is the personal story of a young man's discovery of the world and his development as a travel writer It is also a love story as he and Hania overcome cultural differences communist bureaucracy and unhealthy separations Intertwined with both is the story of the revolution that altered history With the world's attention once again turned to Eastern Europe and a Cold War reality this memoir can help Americans better understand both Selves at Risk Ihab Hassan, 1990 In this era of supersonic jets ubiquitous McDonalds and pervasive Panasonics in our coddled jacuzzi culture our cybernetic society of acronyms and first names does the spirit of quest endure Indeed from rain forests across oceans steppes savannahs and saharas to the peaks of the Andes or Himalayas American writers still test the limits of human existence They test spirit flesh marrow and imagination in a timeless quest for meaning beyond civilization at the razor edge of mortality And they return with sun cracked skin and gazes honed on horizons to tell us the tale Ihab Hassan's new book on quests turns out to be a quest of his own He takes us through an invigorating range of today's American writers as they test themselves against the far corners of our tattered planet Hassan shows us how their quests and incidentally his own entwine risks commitments and desperate exercises in belief how their aspirations are human but uniquely American This is a book everyone interested in American culture can learn from and enjoy Hassan s voice is one of graceful wisdom and passionate elegance a refreshing landfall in today s turgid sea of criticism Norman N Holland University of Florida Maiden Voyages Mary Morris,2012-01-18 This is a collection of women s travel writings including work by Joan Didion Edith Wharton Mildred Cable Willa Cather Isak Dinesen and others In wry lyrical and sometimes wistful voices they write of disguising themselves as men for safety of longing for family left behind or falling in love with people met along the way and of places as diverse as icy Himalayan passes and dusty American pioneer towns the darkly wooded Siberian landscape and the lavender covered hills of Provence Yet even as their voices experiences and paths vary they share with one another and with us as readers reflections upon their gender as it is illuminated by unfamiliar surroundings Edited and with an Introduction by Mary Morris in collaboration with Larry O Connor Contributors and writings include Mary Wollstonecraft Letters Written During a Short Residence in Sweden Norway and Denmark Flora Tristan Peregrinations of a Pariah Frances Trollope from Domestic Manners of the Americans Eliza Farnham from Life in Prairie Land Isabella Bird from A Lady s Life in the Rocky Mountains Margaret Fountaine from Love Among the Butterflies Gertrude Bell from The Desert and the Sown Edith Wharton from In Morocco Willa Cather from Willa Cather in Europe Isak Dinesen from Out of Africa Kate O Brien from Farewell Spain Rebecca West from Black Lamb and Grey Falcon Ella Maillart from The Cruel Way Emily Hahn from Times and Places M F K Fisher from Long Ago in France Joan Didion from The White Album Christina Dodwell from Travels with Fortune An African Adventure Annie Dillard from Teaching a Stone to Talk Gwendolyn MacEwen from Noman s Land Going Places Robert Burgin,2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader s Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing Autobiographical Writings on Mexico Richard D. Woods,2024-10-14 This is the definitive bibliography of autobiographical writings on Mexico The book incorporates works by Mexicans and foreigners with authors ranging from disinherited peasants women servants and revolutionaries to more famous painters writers singers journalists and politicians Primary sources of historic and artistic value the writings listed provide multiple perspectives on Mexico s past and give clues to a national Mexican identity This work presents 1 850 entries including autobiographies memoirs collections of letters diaries oral autobiographies interviews and autobiographical novels and essays Over 1 500 entries list works from native born Mexicans written between 1691 and 2003 Entries include basic bibliographical data genre author s life dates narrative dates available translations into English and annotation The bibliography is indexed by author title and subject and appendices provide a chronological listing of works and a list of selected outstanding autobiographies All the Way to the Tigers Mary Morris,2021-05-11 One of NPR s Best Books of the Year From the author of Nothing to Declare a moving travel narrative examining healing redemption and what it means to be a solo woman on the road In February 2008 a casual afternoon of ice skating derailed the trip of a lifetime Mary Morris was on the verge of a well earned sabbatical but instead she endured three months in a wheelchair two surgeries and extensive rehabilitation One morning when she was supposed to be in Morocco Morris was lying on the sofa reading Death in Venice casting her eyes over these words again and again He would go on a journey Not far Not all the way to the tigers Disaster shifted to possibility and Morris made a decision When she was well enough to walk again she would go all the way to the tigers So begins a three year odyssey that takes Morris to India on a tiger safari in search of the world s most elusive apex predator Written in over a hundred short chapters accompanied by the author s photographs this travel memoir offers an elegiac wry and wise look at a woman on the road and the glorious elusive creature she seeks Handling the Truth Beth Kephart,2013-08-06 In the tradition of Anne Lamott s Bird by Bird a critically acclaimed National Book Award finalist shares inspiration and practical advice for writing a memoir Writing memoir is a deeply personal and consequential undertaking As the acclaimed author of five memoirs spanning significant turning points in her life Beth Kephart has been both blessed and bruised by the genre In Handling the Truth she thinks out loud about the form on how it gets made on what it means to make it on the searing language of truth on the thin line between remembering and imagining and finally on the rights of memoirists Drawing on proven writing lessons and classic examples on the work of her students and on her own memories of weather landscape color and love Kephart probes the wrenching and essential questions that lie at the heart of memoir A beautifully written work in its own right Handling the Truth is Kephart s memoir writing guide for those who read or seek to write the truth The Jazz Palace Mary Morris,2016-03-08 Winner of the Anisfield Wolf Book Award Boomtown Chicago 1920s a world of gangsters musicians and clubs Young Benny Lehrman born into a Jewish hat making family is expected to take over his father s business but his true passion is piano especially jazz After dark he sneaks down to the South Side to hear the bands play One night he is asked to sit in with a group His playing is first rate The trumpeter a black man named Napoleon becomes Benny s friend and musical collaborator They are asked to play at a saloon Napoleon has christened The Jazz Palace But Napoleon s main gig is at a mob establishment which doesn t take kindly to their musicians freelancing As Benny and Napoleon navigate the highs and the lows of the Jazz Age a bond is forged between them that is as memorable as it is lasting Morris brilliantly captures the dynamic atmosphere and dazzling music of an exceptional era The River Queen Mary Morris,2013-05-03 This story of a middle aged woman s odyssey down the Mississippi River is a funny beautifully written and poignant tale of a journey that transforms a life In fall 2005 acclaimed travel writer Mary Morris set off down the Mississippi in a battered old houseboat called the River Queen with two river rats named Tom and Jerry and a rat terrier named Samantha Jean who hated her It was a time of emotional turmoil for Morris Her father had just died her daughter was leaving home life was changing all around her It was then she decided to return to the Midwest where she was from to the river she remembered where her father had played jazz piano in tiny towns Morris describes living like a pirate and surviving a tornado Because of Katrina oil prices and drought the river was often empty a ghost river and Morris experienced it as Joliet and Marquette had four hundred years earlier As she learned to pilot her beloved River Queen without running aground and made peace with Samantha Jean Morris got her groove back reconnecting to her past More important she came away with her best book a bittersweet travel tale told in the very real voice of a smart sad funny gutsy and absolutely appealing woman Lord Gnome's Literary Companion

Francis Wheen,1994 His review has got to be in by mid day tomorrow at about 9 pm his mind will grow relatively clear and until the small hours he will sit skipping expertly through one book after another and laying each one down with the comment God what tripe Then suddenly he will snap into it All the stale old phrases a book that no one should miss something memorable on every page jump into their places like iron filings obeying the magnet Thus did George Orwell writing forty years ago in Confessions of a Book Reviewer describe the labours of a typical literary hack Precious little has changed over the intervening decades the servility of the satirical magazine Private Eye Lord Gnome s Literary Companion assembles in thematic order the best of these columns to present an astringent rude and funny survey of publishers and the published Nothing to Declare Mary Morris,1999 Traveling from the highland desert of northern Mexico to the steaming jungles of Honduras to the seashore of the Caribbean Mary Morris confronts the realities of place of poverty of machismo and of self One gutsy woman and one fantastic writer Cosmopolitan Nothing to Declare Taki,1991 Travel,

Discovery, Transformation Gabriel R. Ricci,2017-09-29 This latest volume in the Culture Civilization series gathers interdisciplinary voices to present a collection of essays on travel and travel narratives The essays span a range of topics from iconic ancient travel stories to modern tourism They discuss travel in the ancient world modern heroic travels the literary culture of missionary travel the intersection of fiction and travel narratives modern literary traditions and visions of Greece personal identity and expatriation Essays also address travel memoirs the re imagining of worlds through travel transformed landscapes and animals in travel narratives diplomacy English women travel writers and pilgrimage and health in the medieval world The history of travel writing takes in multiple pursuits exploration and conquest religious pilgrimage and missionary work educational tourism and diplomacy scientific and personal discovery and natural history and oral history As a literary genre it has enhanced a wide range of disciplines including geography ethnography anthropology and linguistics

Moreover twenty first century interests in travel and travel writing have produced a global framework that promises to expand travel s theoretical reach into the depths of the Internet thus challenging our conventional concept of what it means to travel The fact that travel and travel writing have a prehistory that is embedded in foundational religious texts and ancient narratives of journey like the Odyssey and the Epic of Gilgamesh makes both travel and travel writing fundamental and essential expressions of humanity Travel encourages writing particularly as epistolary and poetic chronicling This is clearly a history and tradition that began with human communication and which has kept pace with our collective development

Gateway to the Moon Mary Morris,2019-03-12 In 1492 two history altering events occurred the Jews and Muslims of Spain were expelled and Columbus set sail for the New World Many Spanish Jews chose not to flee and instead became Christian in name only maintaining their religious traditions in secret Among them was Luis de Torres who accompanied Columbus as an interpreter Over the centuries de Torres descendants traveled across North America finally settling in the hills of New Mexico Now some five hundred years later it is in these same hills that Miguel Torres a young amateur astronomer finds himself trying to understand the mystery that surrounds him and the town he grew up in Entrada de la Luna or Gateway to the Moon Poor health and poverty are the norm in Entrada and luck is rare So when Miguel sees an ad for a babysitting job in Santa Fe he jumps at the opportunity The family for whom he works the Rothsteins are Jewish and Miguel is surprised to find many of their customs similar to those his own family kept but never understood Braided throughout the present day narrative are the powerful stories of the ancestors of Entrada s residents portraying both the horrors of the Inquisition and the resilience of families Moving and unforgettable Gateway to the Moon beautifully weaves the journeys of the converso Jews into the larger American story

Love, Language, Place, and Identity in Popular

Culture María Ramos-García,Laura Vivanco,2020-01-31 Love Language Place and Identity in Popular Culture Romancing the Other explores the varied representations of Otherness in romance novels and other fiction with strong romantic plots Contributors approaches range from sociolinguistics to cultural studies and the texts analyzed are set on four continents with particular emphasis on Caribbean and Atlantic islands What all the essays have in common is the exploration of representations of the Other be it in an inter racial or inter cultural relationship Chapters are divided into two parts the first examines place travel history and language in 20th century texts while the second explores tensions and transformations in the depiction of Otherness mainly in texts published in the early 21st century This book reveals that even at the end of the 20th century these texts display neocolonialist attitudes towards the Other While more recent texts show noticeable changes in attitudes these changes can often fall short as stereotypes and prejudices are often still present just below the surface in popular novels The understudied field of popular romance in which the Other is frequently present as a love interest proves to be a fruitful area in which to explore the potential and the realities of the treatment of Otherness in popular culture Scholars of literature communication romance and rhetoric will find this book particularly useful

Crisis ,1992 A journal of lay Catholic opinion Travel Writing and Environmental Awareness Françoise Besson, 2023-08-24 Travel writing presents stories of human journeys and can guide us towards a better perception of our connections with the nonhuman world This book is a collection of essays by writers and scholars from China England France India Tunisia and the United States of America It discusses sustainable travels and travel writing and explores the sense of connection with nature From travels around one's home to mountain hikes and bicycle rides it also reminds us that planes can be used in a responsible way It discusses conscious travelling and shows the important role texts play in educating us on this issue This multidimensional book encompasses several literary genres essays autobiographies mountain reports novels poetry journals graphic novels and scientific reports It is aimed at all those who have some interest in travel ecology and the philosophy of place Nothing to Declare Taki Theodoracopulos, 1991 Offers an account of the three months the author an aristocratic journalist spent in jail and his musings on his experiences living among the jet set
