Nothing So Strange:

Nothing So Strange James Hilton, 1947 This is the story of two modern people a young American who both as a scientist and as a man faced some of the biggest problems of our times and the girl who gave him all her heart and brain When Jane met Dr Mark Bradley in London she was only eighteen She and her mother were both attracted by Brad and the situation thus engendered proved fateful since it led to Brad s association with a great Viennese physicist and to his involvement in a tragic drama But there was another drama larger and less personal that drew him into its widening orbit a drama that became a secret and later an obsession Probing yet protective Jane s love makes the strong thread in a pattern of deeply moving and significant events strange events too and yet to quote Daniel Webster there is often nothing so strange as the truth Provided by publisher LIFE ,1947-11-10 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use LIFE ,1948-02-02 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Zapruder Øyvind Vågnes,2012-08-24 Winner Peter C Rollins Book Award 2012 As the fiftieth anniversary of the Kennedy assassination approaches the traumatic aspects of the tragedy continue to haunt our perceptions of the 1960s One reason for this lies in the home movie of the incident filmed by Abraham Zapruder a bystander who became one of the twentieth century s most important accidental documentarians The first book devoted exclusively to the topic Zapruder traces the journey of the film and its effect on the world s collective imagination Providing insightful perspective as an observer of American culture Norwegian media studies scholar yvind V gnes begins by analyzing three narratives that are projections of Zapruder s images performance group Ant Farm s video The Eternal Frame Don DeLillo s novel Underworld and an episode from Seinfeld Subsequent topics he investigates include Dealey Plaza s Sixth Floor Museum Zoran Naskovski s installation Death in Dallas assassin video games and other artifacts of the ways in which the footage has made a lasting impact on popular culture and the historical imagination V gnes also explores the role of other accidental documentarians such as those who captured scenes of 9 11 Zapruder s footage has never yielded a conclusive account of what happened in Dealey Plaza Zapruder thoroughly examines both this historical enigma and its indelible afterimages in our collective imagination Midwestern Strange B.J. Hollars,2019-09-01 Midwestern Strange chronicles B J Hollars s exploration of the mythic lesser known oddities of flyover country The mysteries ranging from bipedal wolf sightings to run ins with pancake flipping space aliens to a lumberjack inspired Hodag hoax make this book a little bit X Files a little bit Ghostbusters and a whole lot of Sherlock Holmes Hollars s quest is not to confirm or debunk these mysteries but rather to seek out these unexplained phenomena to understand how they complicate our worldview and to discover what truths might be gleaned by reexamining the facts in our post truth era Part memoir and part journalism Midwestern Strange offers a fascinating funny and quirky account of flyover folklore that also contends with the ways such oddities retain cultural footholds Hollars shows how grappling with such subjects might fortify us against the glut of misinformation now inundating our lives By confronting monsters Martians and a cabinet of curiosities we challenge ourselves to look beyond our presumptions and acknowledge that just because something is weird doesn't mean it is wrong

Horizons      Crash Cinema Will Godfrey, Jill Good, Mark Goodall, 2009-10-02 Crash Cinema Representation in Film is a collection of essays that emerged from Crash Cinema an annual symposium that is an integral part of the Bradford Film Festival at the National Media Museum UK The symposium was created by academics and curators who share the common aim of promoting the importance of film both as an academic study and for critical public appreciation Films can be enjoyed as entertainment they can educate and inform and they can excite and disturb Films are powerful pieces of culture The films that we now consume do more than simply amuse or horrify Cinema not only thrills us but also communicates to us about ourselves and in the twentieth and twenty first century moving images have become the dominant form of this communication Bombarded by images we inhabit a media intensive world in which every aspect of life is pervaded by visual signs In these circumstances it becomes increasingly significant to engage with the politics of representation Through this vital process we can acknowledge that all cultural forms whether in high art or the mass media are in the broadest sense political We can also appreciate that it is a complex agenda of interests that shapes specific ideological meanings Fulsomely equipped we can apply this essential tool to the exciting task of decoding the political social and cultural meanings articulated through the making promotion and consumption of film This book aims to offer an arena for the analysis of these representations Representations cannot depict the truth and the essays in this book do not claim to search for the truth We ask whose truth is being represented how is it represented and why is it represented like that We also ask how do representations tell us something about the culture within which they are created Yet the essays in this volume are not stuck in the representational concerns of the past and try instead to uncover the power of cinema to shock and surprise whether that be through visceral impact subversive content experiments with identity or the exploration of the taboo Representation as defined by the eleven essays in this book is a fluid and dynamic approach to the study of film The study of film to which this book contributes some unique case studies is as popular as ever and has withstood growing challenge from the new media such as CG Animations the internet and computer console and online gaming This is because the pleasure of film is still the most humanistic and because the sophistication of the representations offered by cinematic expression remain ever more complex and pleasurable to decipher This book can therefore be read by any student academic writer or filmmaker hooked on these delights      John Archibald Campbell Henry Groves Connor, 1844 Judge Campbell's career was in many respects unique and illustrated his capacity to render important service under unprecedented conditions Preface
