Nothing To Do But Stay My Pioneer Mother:

Nothing to Do But Stay Carrie Young,1991 This daughter s loving tribute to her pioneer mother tells of a real heroine who traveled by herself to North Dakota in 1904 to stake a lonely claim and start a farm on 160 empty acres before she married and began her family Photos Nothing to Do But Stay: My Pioneer Mother , Nothing to Do But Stay Carrie Young,1991 This daughter s loving tribute to her pioneer mother tells of a real heroine who traveled by herself to North Dakota in 1904 to stake a lonely claim and start a farm on 160 empty acres before she married and began her family Photos Prairie Cooks Carrie Young,Felicia Young,2000 In her warm and often deliciously funny memoir Prairie Cooks Carrie Young celebrates the Norwegian American foods of her childhood in an artful blend of reminiscences and recipes Book jacket Linoleum, Better Babies, and the Modern Farm Woman, 1890-1930 Marilyn Irvin Holt,2005-11-30 The Progressive Era falling between the conspicuous materialism of the Gay Nineties and the excesses of the Roaring Twenties promoted a vision of America united by an emphasis on science and progressive reform The zeal to modernize business government and social relations extended to farm families and the ways women defined their roles In this study of the expert advice offered by the domestic economy movement Marilyn Irvin Holt argues that women were not passive receptors of these views Seeing their place in agriculture as multifaceted and important they eagerly accepted improved education and many modern appliances but often rejected suggestions that conflicted with their own views of the rewards and values of farm life Drawing on a wide range of sources government surveys expert testimony and contemporary farm journals many presenting accounts in farm women s own words Holt carefully contrasts the goals of reformers with those of farm families Anyone seeking a better understanding of the role of women in agriculture will find this a rewarding book Heartland Judith Fertig,2011-04-12 Presents more than one hundred recipes that focus on using fresh locally grown produce and meats with traditional farmhouse style dishes from the Midwest A Dictionary of Iowa Place-Names Tom Savage,2007-08 Lourdes and Churchtown Woden and Clio Emerson and Sigourney Tripoli and Waterloo Prairie City and Prairieburg Tama and Swedesburg What Cheer and Coin Iowa s place names reflect the religions myths cultures families heroes whimsies and misspellings of the Hawkeye State s inhabitants Tom Savage spent four years corresponding with librarians city and county officials and local historians reading newspaper archives and exploring local websites in an effort to find out why these communities received their particular names when they were established and when they were incorporated Savage includes information on the place names of all 1 188 incorporated and unincorporated communities in Iowa that meet at least two of the following qualifications twenty five or more residents a retail business an annual celebration or festival a school church or cemetery a building on the National Register of Historic Places a zip coded post office or an association with a public recreation site If a town s name has changed over the years he provides information about each name if a name s provenance is unclear he provides possible explanations He also includes information about the state s name and about each of its ninety

nine counties as well as a list of ghost towns The entries range from the counties of Adair to Wright and from the towns of Abingdon to Zwingle from Iowa's oldest town Dubuque starting as a mining camp in the 1780s and incorporated in 1841 to its newest Maharishi Vedic City incorporated in 2001 The imaginations and experiences of its citizens played a role in the naming of Iowa's communities as did the hopes of the huge influx of immigrants who settled the state in the 1800s Tom Savage's dictionary of place names provides an appealing genealogical and historical background to today's map of Iowa It is one of the beauties of Iowa that travel across the state brings a person into contact with so many wonderful names some of which a traveler may understand immediately but others may require a bit of investigation Like the poet Stephen Vincent Benét we have fallen in love with American names They are part of our soul be they family names town names or artifact names We identify with them and are identified with them and we cannot live without them This book will help us learn more about them and integrate them into our beings from the foreword by Loren N Horton Primghar O'Brien County Primghar was established by W C Green and James Roberts on November 8 1872 The name of the town comes from the initials of the eight men who were instrumental in developing it A short poem memorializes the men and their names Pumphrey the treasurer drives the first nail Roberts the donor is quick on his trail Inman dips slyly his first letter in McCormack adds M which makes the full Prim Green thinking of groceries gives them the G Hayes drops them an H without asking a fee Albright the joker with his jokes all at par Rerick brings up the rear and crowns all Primghar Primghar was incorporated on February 15 1888

Encounter on the Great Plains Karen Hansen, 2013-11 When Scandinavian immigrants and Dakota Indians lived side by side on a turn of the century reservation each struggled independently to preserve their language and culture Despite this shared struggle European settlers expanded their land ownership throughout the period while Native Americans were marginalized on the reservations intended for them Karen Hansen captures this moment through distinctive uniquely American voices

A Century of Immigration Christopher Collier, James Lincoln Collier, 2012-12-01 History is dramatic and the renowned award winning authors Christopher Collier and James Lincoln Collier demonstrate this in a compelling series aimed at young readers Covering American history from the founding of Jamestown through present day these volumes explore far beyond the dates and events of a historical chronicle to present a moving illumination of the ideas opinions attitudes and tribulations that led to the birth of this great nation A Century of Immigration reviews the century of 1820 through 1920 in which there were two waves of immigration to the United States This book discusses the varied motivations and nationalities of these new Americans as well as the effects of mass immigration on the country as a whole and the rise of antiforeign sentiments among more recent immigrants

A Home in the West M. Emilia Rockwell, 2005-04 This is the first novel published in Iowa Printed in Dubuque in 1858 it was written to recruit emigrants to Iowa what makes it unique among emigration literature is the fact that it was directed at women using the form of a domestic novel loaded with gentle mothers and stalwart fathers flower gemmed prairies and vine draped cottages and lots of tender words and humble weddings to encourage women to settle in the new state Mary Emilia Rockwell tells the story of Walter and Annie Judson who one desperate March night decide to move to the West in search of a better life Walter is an exploited debt ridden carpenter who knows that if we could go to the West to one of those new States where work is plenty wages high and land cheap we could make a more comfortable living and besides soon have a home of our own Annie has all a woman's devotion and self denial loving and supportive she takes the path of duty and moves her little family to a pleasant little village in Iowa In Newburg everyone is newly arrived hard working and self sacrificing facing difficulties with the certainty of prosperity and independence to come In spite of dramatic setbacks Walter prospers and he and Annie build a beautiful and commodious house in the growing community of Hastings The book ends with a return visit to Connecticut where the Judsons and a series of surprising events persuade Annie's parents to move to Iowa too and everyone is reunited in their home in the West Teacher administrator and writer Emilia Rockwell born about 1835 died about 1915 writes a conventionally sentimental story However she actually divorced her first husband became the administrator of a juvenile reformatory in Milwaukee and married a second time she lived in Lansing Iowa for only a few years Her writing is romantic but she accurately portrays the economic challenges and transformations of this pioneer period and historically touches upon the Panic of 1857 the Mormon Handcart Expedition and Native Americans in Iowa Sharon Wood's illuminating introduction presents Rockwell's biography and places the novel in its historical and literary contexts including such events as the Spirit Lake massacre and the Dred Scott decision A Home in the West is a satisfying read and an intriguing combination of boosterism and literature

Growing Up with the Town Dorothy Schwieder, 2005-05 In this unusual blend of chronological and personal history Dorothy Hubbard Schwieder combines scholarly sources with family memories to create a loving and informed history of Presho South Dakota and her family's life there from the time of settlement in 1905 to the mid 1950s Schwieder tells the story of this small town in the West River country with its harsh and unpredictable physical environment through the activities of her father Walter Hubbard and his family of ten children Walter Hubbard's experiences as a business owner and town builder and his attitudes toward work education and family both reflected and shaped the lives of Presho's inhabitants and the town itself While most histories of the Plains focus on farm life Schwieder writes entirely about small town society She uses newspaper accounts state and county histories census data interviews with residents and the childhood memories of herself and her nine siblings to create an entwined first hand social and economic portrait of life on main street from the perspective of its citizens

Up a Country Lane Cookbook Evelyn Birkby, 1993 What can Evelyn Birkby possibly do to follow up the success of a Neighboring on the Air Cooking with the KMA Radio Homemakers She can do what she has done in writing a Up a Country Lane Cookbook a For forty three years she has written a column entitled Up a Country Lane for the a Shenandoah Evening Sentinel a Now she has chosen the best recipes from her column and interspersed them with a wealth of stories of rural life in the 1940s and 1950s supplemented by a generous offering of vintage photographs She has created a book that encompasses lost time With chapters on The Garden Grocery Stores and Lockers Planting and Saturday Night in Town to name a few a Up a Country Lane Cookbook a recalls the noble simplicity of a life that has all but vanished This is not to say that farm life in the forties and fifties was idyllic As Birkby writes Underneath the pastoral exterior were threats of storms droughts ruined crops low prices sickness and accidents Following the Second World War many soldiers returned to mid America and a life of farming From her vantage point as a farm wife living in Mill Creek Valley in southwestern Iowa Birkby observed the changes that accompanied improved roads telephone service and the easy availability of electricity Her observations have been carefully recorded in her newspaper column read by thousands of rural Iowans Up a Country Lane Cookbook a is then much more than a cookbook It is an evocation of a time in all its wonder and complexity which should be read by everyone from Evelyn Birkby s nearest neighbor in Mill Creek Valley to the city slicker seeking an education Cook a meal of Plum Glazed Baked Chicken Elegant Peas Creamed Cabbage and Seven Grain Bread then finish it off with Frosted Ginger Creams with Fluffy Frosting While the chicken is baking read Evelyn s stories and think about the world the way it was

North Dakota History, 1992 Journal of the Northern Plains

So Much to be Done Ruth Barnes Moynihan, Susan Hodge Armitage, Christiane Fischer Dichamp, 1998-01-01 In this new and enlarged edition the editors have built on an already strong collection with four new accounts Colorado pioneer Augusta Tabor gives a sense of the heady days as Leadville became a major mining center Abigail Duniway describes the challenges of life for women in the Pacific Northwest Effie Wiltbank s short selection is a reminiscence of her grandmother s receipt for washing clothes a chore that epitomizes the practical skill determination and common sense required of so many Western women Apolinaria Lorenzana offers a rare glimpse of the operations of the mission system while illuminating the perils of living with the acquisitive Americans
