Nothingness In The Theology Of Paul Tillich And Karl Barth:

Nothingness in the Theology of Paul Tillich and Karl Barth Sung Min Jeong, 2003 In this book both Tillich's nothingness and that of Barth are investigated especially in their doctrines of God Christologies anthropologies and understandings of the problem of evil which will lead to a better understanding of their existential analyses of being and non being and their implications with their Trinitarian God Paul Tillich and Sino-Christian Theology Keith Ka-fu Chan, 2023-06-23 With contributors from different generations of the Chinese speaking world the book addresses the relevance of Paul Tillich's thought in the Chinese cultural political contexts Appropriating and transforming different themes of Tillich's thought in the Chinese context the contributors reframe the dialogue with Buddhism and Confucianism religion and science and religion and politics under the interpretation of Tillich's ideas The thought provoking essays examine the intellectual potentiality or further contribution of Paul Tillich's ideas in Sino Christian Theology The book will be of interest to scholars and postgraduate students studying Paul Tillich's thought Chinese theology and East West religious dialogues Understanding Spiritual Warfare James K. Beilby, Paul Rhodes Eddy, 2012-12-01 The topic of spiritual warfare is an issue of ongoing interest in a number of sectors of the contemporary church This four view work brings together leading theologians and ministry leaders to present major views on spiritual warfare in dialogical fashion all authors present their views and then respond to each of the other views Contributors include Walter Wink with Gareth Higgins and Michael Hardin David Powlison Gregory Boyd C Peter Wagner and Rebecca Greenwood This volume provides a balanced irenic approach to a much discussed and often controversial topic Offering a model of critical thinking and respectful dialogue it highlights the differences between contributors discusses a full range of important topics on the subject and deploys biblical as well as theological arguments

The Spirit of God and the Christian Life JinHyok Kim, 2014 Revision of author's thesis Ph D University of Oxford 2012 under title The spirit of God and the Christian life a constructive study of Karl Barth's pneumatology with special reference to his incomplete doctrine of redemption Evil, Spirits, and Possession David L Bradnick, 2017-08-28 In Evil Spirits and Possession An Emergentist Theology of the Demonic David Bradnick develops a multidisciplinary view of the demonic using biblical theological social scientific and philosophical scientific perspectives Building upon the work of Pentecostal theologian

Amos Yong this book argues for a theology informed by emergence theory whereby the demonic arises from evolutionary processes and exerts downward causal influence upon its constituent substrates Consequently evil does not result from conscious diabolic beings rather it manifests as non personal emergent forces that influence humans to initiate and execute nefarious activities Emergentism provides an alternative to contemporary views which tend to minimize or reject the reality of the demonic and it retains the demonic as a viable theological category in the twenty first century Election, Atonement, and the Holy Spirit Matthias Grebe, 2015-04-30 Election Atonement and the Holy Spirit is an examination of the doctrines of election and atonement in Karl Barth's Church Dogmatics taking up Barth's own challenge to his reader to surpass his argument and offer a better typological interpretation of the cultic texts Barth's radical reworking of Calvin's doctrine of election is one of the most important developments in twentieth century theology Christ synthesizes for Barth a particular dialectic the binary structure of God's Yes of election and God's No of rejection The book's central question how can Jesus simultaneously be both the elected and the rejected CD II 2 acting as both the judge and the judged CD IV 1 is followed by an exploration of the roles of the Holy Spirit and human freedom in God's electing and saving action Although commentators acknowledge Barth's innovation in this area but also identify problems with his approach few have offered what David Ford has called a correction from within Barth using Barth's own method Using the concept of Existenzstellvertretung this critique of Barth's exegetical justification for the doctrines offers an alternative exegesis that not only provides this much needed correction but also immerses the reader in a fresh engagement with Scripture itself

Natural Theology Versus Theology of Nature?/ Natürliche Theologie versus Theologie der Natur? Gert Hummel, 2015-07-01 No detailed description available for Natural Theology Versus Theology of Nature Natürliche Theologie versus Theologie der Natur The Spirit of Creation Amos Yong, 2011-05-17 Is a pentecostal charismatic worldview defensible in light of contemporary science In The Spirit of Creation Amos Yong demonstrates that pentecostal thought does indeed have merit in scientific contexts What's more he argues that pentecostal charismatic views regarding the dynamic presence and activity of the Spirit of God and the pluralistic cosmology of many spirits have something important to add to the broad discussion now taking place at the crossroads of science and religion Interacting with many scientific fields of study including psychology sociology evolutionary science cosmology and more Yong's Spirit of Creation demonstrates the significance of pentecostal ideas to the ongoing dialogue between theology and science Letters of the Divine Word Robert B. Price, 2011-07-28 Method and Context as Problems for Contemporary Theology Hans Schwarz, 1991 A proposal for the need to concentrate on the basic and simple art of doing theology in the context of a world which needs a word that is distinct from its own a world alienated from God and still yearning to overcome its primordial alienation Theology must be able to convey the ultimate message which is without equal to overcome being a minority voice in an overcrowded market TST 58 89 95 248pp 1991 History and Hermeneutics Carl E. Braaten, 2016-10-31 This volume interprets the lost decade of theological research and reflection on the relation of Christian faith to history The theological development of this period is depicted as a struggle to go beyond Barth and Bultmann in stressing the centrality of history for revelation and faith Dr Braaten deals with new hermeneutical approaches to achieve a theological synthesis of revelation and history He describes the theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg which calls for a more radical interpretation of revelation along historical lines as a pivotal point in the present situation He goes on to outline current thinking on revelation the historical critical method the historical Jesus resurrection salvation redemption and eschatology The Cambridge Companion to Paul Tillich Russell Re Manning, 2009-02-12 The complex philosophical theology of Paul Tillich 1886 1965 increasingly studied today was influenced by thinkers as diverse as the Romantics and Existentialists Hegel and Heidegger A Lutheran pastor who served as a military chaplain in World War I he was dismissed from his university post at Frankfurt when the Nazis came to power in 1933 and emigrated to the United States where he continued his distinguished career This authoritative Companion provides accessible accounts of the major themes of Tillich s diverse theological writings and draws upon the very best of contemporary Tillich scholarship Each chapter introduces and evaluates its topic and includes suggestions for further reading The authors assess Tillich s place in the history of twentieth century Christian thought as well as his significance for current constructive theology Of interest to both students and researchers this Companion reaffirms Tillich as a major figure in today s theological landscape

Paul Tillich's Theological Legacy Frederick J. Parrella,1995 Theology at the End of Culture Russell Re Manning,2005

This book is a reconsideration of Paul Tillich s 1886 1965 project of a theology of culture and art Concentrating on Tillich s widely neglected pre emigration writings 1910 1933 Re Manning reconstructs and defends Tillich s proposals for theology of culture as a philosophically sophisticated programme of theological engagement with culture and art On the boundary between the extremes of liberal Christian humanism and neo orthodox isolationism Tillich s project is shown to be a powerful continuation of the mediatory intentions of the Schleiermacher Troeltsch line of modern Protestant theology to overcome the intolerable gap between religion and culture Drawing heavily on Tillich s incorporation of Schelling s positive philosophy into the deep structure of this theology Re Manning argues that Tillich s Idealistic Romantic theology of mediation provides a way through the entrenched oppositions of the divided mind of twentieth century theology to a constructive theology of cultural engagement Further this book offers an assessment of the continued relevance of Tillich s project in the situation of contemporary philosophical theology Beyond the dominant antithetical types of postmodern theology Mark C Taylor s a theology and the radical orthodoxy of John Milbank Re Manning argues for the possibility of a Tillichian postmodern theology of culture able to engage with the spiritual situation at the end of culture

Is God Silent When We Hurt? H. Stuart Atkins,2021-02-25 The problem of evil and human suffering is the chief reason for atheism and doubt H Stuart Atkins challenges skeptics and encourages believers in this book tackling big questions from a secular and biblical perspective The goal is to answer this If God exists and is all loving why do the innocent suffer and why does evil exist On the theological and philosophical side attempts to reconcile the existence of God with the reality of evil often fall prey to logical fallacies of the nature of God Such attempts not only fail to solve the problem of pain and suffering but they turn a difficult problem into an impossible problem By confronting the truth we can serve the best interests of scholarship theology and philosophy If one is to use logic as a tool for exposing the alleged inconsistencies of the Christian faith the game must be played by logical rules Join the author as he overcomes ambiguity circular reasoning and fallacies to answer questions surrounding God good and evil Selfless Love and Human Flourishing in Paul Tillich and Iris Murdoch Julia T. Meszaros,2016-03-03 In an age of self affirmation and self assertion selfless love can appear as a threat to the lover's personal well being. This perception jars with the Biblical promise that we gain our life through losing it and therefore calls for a theological response. In conversation with the Protestant theologian Paul Tillich and the atheistic moral philosopher and novelist Iris Murdoch, Selfless Love and Human Flourishing in Paul Tillich and Iris Murdoch enquires into the anthropological grounds on which selfless love can be said to build up rather than undermine the lover's self. It proposes that while the implausibility of selfless love was furthered by the modern deconstruction of the self, both Tillich and Murdoch utilize this very deconstruction towards explicating and restoring the link between selfless love and human flourishing. Julia T. Meszaros shows that they use the modern diagnosis of the human being's lack of a stable and independent self as manifest in Sartre's existentialism in support of an understanding of the self as relational and fallen. This leads them to view a loving orientation away from self and a surrender to the other as critical to the full flourishing of human selfhood. In arguing that Tillich and Murdoch defend the link between selfless love and human flourishing through reference to the human being's ontological selflessness, Meszaros closely engages Søren Kierkegaard's earlier attempt to keep selfless love and human flourishing in a productive dialectical tension. She also examines the breakdown of this tension in the later figures of Anders Nygren, Simone Weil, and Jean Paul Sartre and addresses the pitfalls of this breakdown. Her examination concludes by arguing that the link between selfless love and human flourishing would be strengthened by a more resolute endorsement of a personal God and of the reciprocal nature of selfless love.

The Wisdom of the Psyche Ann Belford Ulanov, 2019-01-31

This book promotes a strong argument for a feminine approach to religious discovery to struggle in the ambiguous gap between the wisdom of the psyche and the wisdom of Scripture between our interior experience of God and the exterior reality of God. The Wisdom of the Psyche urges clergy to help parishioners bring forth their unconscious feelings and images to join their conscious thoughts. In this way, the church allows its members the space to present themselves fully to God and to be fully present to the human need around them.

Negative Theology as Jewish Modernity Michael Fagenblat, 2017-02-27. Negative theology is the attempt to describe God by speaking in terms of what God is not. Historical affinities between Jewish modernity and negative theology indicate new directions for thematizing the modern Jewish experience. Questions such as: What are the limits of Jewish modernity in terms of negativity? Has this creative tradition exhausted itself? and How might Jewish thought go forward? anchor these original essays. Taken together, they explore the roots and legacies of negative theology in Jewish thought, examine the viability and limits of theorizing the modern Jewish experience as negative theology, and offer a fresh perspective from which to approach Jewish intellectual history.

Democracy to Come Fred Dallmayr, 2017-04-19. In this book, Fred Dallmayr lays the groundwork for a new understanding of democracy. He argues that democracy is not a stable system anchored in a manifest authority like monarchy, but is sustained by the recessed and purely potential rule of the people. Hence, democracy has to constantly reinvent itself, resembling theologically a creatio continua. Like one of Calder's mobiles, democracy for him involves three basic elements:

that must be balanced constantly the people political leaders and policy goals Where this balance is disrupted democracy derails into populism Bonapartism or messianism Given this need for balance democratic politics is basically a relational praxis In our globalizing age democracy cannot be confined domestically Dallmayr rejects the idea that it can be autocratically imposed abroad through forced regime change or that the dominant Western model can simply be transferred elsewhere In this respect he challenges the equation of democracy with the pursuit of individual or collective self interest insisting that other more ethical conceptions are possible and that different societies should nurture democracy with their own cultural resources Providing examples he discusses efforts to build democracy in the Middle East China and India respectively with Islamic Confucian and Hindu resources In the end Dallmayr s hope is for a democracy to come that is a cosmopolitan community governed not by hegemonic force but by the spirit of equality and mutual respect Swing Low, volume 1 Walter R. Strickland,2024-10-29 The dynamic witness of the Black church is an essential part of Christian history In this groundbreaking two volume work Walter R Strickland II presents a theological intellectual history of African American Christianity Volume 1 a narrative history explores five theological anchors of Black Christianity from the 1600s to the present
