Harper's Magazine ,1891 Important American periodical dating back to 1850 To Jerusalem Natia Khaduri,2022 To Jerusalem is the most profound novel in modern literature Where material and spiritual values are sharply separated from each other The author tells the story of how socio economic factors affect human life on an academic level How people change in different social conditions But true love never changes True feeling always lives in a spiritually deep person and it is the only hope of salvation Timothy the main character of this novel regains his faith after great trials and goes to God God is one whose back I have never seen because he is always looking me in the eyes he says when someone dear to him leaves him Eva a woman writer a great intellectual and a woman writer to whom life gives everything but her private life She falls in love with Timothy but when they reassess their priorities they drift apart Eva wrote two books at the same time Timothy s life to Jerusalem and her own Tango is mine but they were intertwined because they consisted of each other Heaviest of all pains is the pain of hope he says when he is deeply disappointed Their life comes to a tragic end as if it were the end of the world for Eve and these are her last words God has begun to come It develops with an intense storyline Like the first novel the events here are about great love loyalty betrayal friendship enmity and other human feelings character manifestations between people The history of the spiritual and material physical rise and fall of several individuals is described The vicissitudes of the novel starting from Georgia unfold in several countries Such is the current state of our motherland and it inextricably includes all age and social strata of the population In addition to the dramatic relationships between the characters the thoughts of a highly educated person remaining with himself are well presented as well as a deep analysis of the events that occurred at the intersection of the paths he passed and will take The author s definition of the soul is interesting the soul is a God residing in the human body which if you believe will never betray you The views on love forgiveness return etc are also amazing Even Anita s favorite concept of hugging

Lach, 2010-01-15 This is the second volume in a series that traces century by century the role of Asia in the making of Europe The rise to world dominance of the Western nations in modern times and the rapid industrial growth of the West which outpaced the East in technical and military achievements have led to a historical eclipse of the ancient and brilliant cultures of Asia Historian Donald F Lach in his influential scholarly work Asia in the Making of Europe points out that an eclipse is never permanent that this one was never total and that there was a period in early modern times when Asia and Europe were close rivals in brilliance and mutual influence Signs of Change Nils Holger Petersen, Claus Clüver, Nicolas Bell, 2004 Signs of Change Transformations of Christian Traditions and their Representation in the Arts 1000 2000 focuses on the changing relationships between what gradually emerged as the Arts and Christianity the latter term covering both a stream of ideas and its institutions The book as a whole is addressed to a general academic audience concerned with issues of cultural history while the individual essays are also intended as scholarly contributions within their own fields A collaborative effort by twenty five European and American scholars representing disciplines ranging from aesthetics to the history of art and architecture from literature music and the theatre to classics church history and theology the volume is an interdisciplinary study of intermedial phenomena generally in larger cultural and intellectual contexts The focus of topics extends from single concrete objects to sets of abstract concepts and values and from a single moment in time to an entire millennium While Signs of Change acknowledges the importance of synthesizing efforts essential to hermeneutically informed scholarship in order to counterbalance generalized historical narratives with detailed investigations broad accounts are juxtaposed with specialized research projects The deliberately unchronological grouping of contributions underlines the effort to further discussion about methodologies for writing cultural history Parisians Graham Robb, 2011-04-11 The New York Times bestseller the secrets of the City of Light revealed in the lives of the great the near great and the forgotten by the author of the acclaimed The Discovery of France This is the Paris you never knew From the Revolution to the present Graham Robb has distilled a series of astonishing true narratives all stranger than fiction of the lives of the great the near great and the forgotten A young artillery lieutenant strolling through the Palais Royal observes disapprovingly the courtesans plying their trade A particular woman catches his eye nature takes its course Later that night Napoleon Bonaparte writes a meticulous account of his first sexual encounter A well dressed woman fleeing the Louvre takes a wrong turn and loses her way in the nameless streets of the Left Bank For want of a map there were no reliable ones at the time Marie Antoinette will go to the guillotine Baudelaire the photographer Marville Baron Haussmann the real life Mimi of La Bohème Proust Adolf Hitler touring the occupied capital in the company of his generals Charles de Gaulle who is suspected of having faked an assassination
