Nova Scotia: Window on the Sea Ernest Buckler, Hans Weber, 1973-01-01 NOVA SCOTIA, WINDOW ON THE SEA. PHOTOS BY HANS WEBER. Ernest Buckler, 1973 Major Canadian Authors David Stouck, 1988-01-01 Canadian literature in English presents a wealth of imaginative experience that belies the colonial status sometimes accorded the world's second largest country This revised and expanded edition of Major Canadian Authors provides an entrance into that realm Stouck's carefully integrated essays introduce the life and writings of eighteen foremost Canadian authors including Robertson Davies Margaret Laurence Sinclair Ross and Alice Munro The second edition adds a new chapter on Margaret Atwood updates the text and expands the reference guide to include more than sixty Canadian authors Ernest Buckler Marta Dvořák, 2006-01-01 Margaret Atwood called Ernest Buckler one of the pathbreakers for the modern Canadian novel yet he has slipped into relative obscurity This new book by Marta Dvořák Ernest Buckler Rediscovery and Reassessment breaks new ground in Canadian literary studies by analyzing some of Buckler's works that have remained unknown or unexplored by critics and by addressing the formalistic innovations of these texts It allows a general readership to discover and an international specialized readership to reassess the wide even eclectic scope of an author best known for his first novel The Mountain and the Valley Marta Dvořák situates Buckler firmly within his cultural and intellectual environment She argues the importance of his connections with Emerson and the American transcendental milieu and demonstrates his links with Romantics such as Schopenhauer and Shelley and modernists like Joyce Faulkner and Mansfield as well as intellectuals from Aristotle to Aquinas She explores his philosophical vision and his complex adventurous relationship with language Extracts from Buckler's published and unpublished material juxtaposed with those from a wide range of writers from Henry James to Foucault offer new illuminating perspectives The progressive structure of the book will draw readers in to discussions on shared concerns the nostalgia for a vanished past the relationship between family and community the rural and the urban or the questioning of and coming to terms with ethics and the social fabric of today's rapidly changing technological horizon in which traditional values are eroding A Postmodern Cinema Mary Alemany-Galway, 2002 Alemany Galway media studies Massey University New Zealand engages with a trend in Canadian cinema that speaks for those who are marginalized by society She develops a rationale for a postmodern film theory to explore this trend and then focuses closely on four films Jesus of Montreal I've Heard the Mermaids Singing Family Viewing Life Classes Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Great Destinations Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island Nancy English, 2009-06 From games of chance at Halifax's Casino Nova Scotia to seafood of guaranteed freshness excitement and pleasure attend visitors to these ocean bound lands Includes information activities and hundreds of lodging dining shopping and recreational recommendations organized by town English also includes details on border and ferry crossings and general travel logistics Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer s Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

Indian Summer Samuel F. Pickering,2005 Indian Summer is the newest collection of personal essays by Sam Pickering In typical Pickering fashion he seeks to capture the gift of living He brings to the page again his family students and a wealth of country characters who live in places that exist only in his imagination and who wander through the stories he tells He describes how his life has been altered by his children leaving home for college and he ponders the changes aging brings and the things that never change The consummate teacher he celebrates academic life and the pleasures of the classroom Readers will roam familiar ground with Pickering as he explores the fields and small hills of eastern Connecticut and the bogs and woods on his farm in Nova Scotia Book Jacket Selected Water Resources Abstracts ,1989
