Nova Doctrina Vetusque:

Nova Doctrina Vetusque Douglas Kries, Catherine Brown Tkacz, 1999 At the center of contemporary interest in Late Antiquity is the dramatic spread and development of Christianity This collection of sixteen essays explores early Christianity by examining its architecture its scriptures and the writings of its eminent historians apologists monastic leaders and theologians Greek authors such as Origen Athanasius and Eusebius are studied but also Latin authors from the Western part of the empire such as Jerome and Augustine The volume includes major studies by established scholars such as W H C Frend and Robert F Taft S J as well as important new studies by younger scholars Ordained in the Society of Jesus in 1956 Fredric W Schlatter has taught classical languages and ancient history at Gonzaga University in Spokane Washington for over 40 years holding the Powers Professor of Humanities Chair from 1983 to 1997 His research which has appeared in Vigiliae Christianae The Journal of Early Christian Studies and elsewhere has focussed on early Christian texts and art Augustine and the Economy of Sacrifice Joshua Nunziato, 2020 Provides the first book length treatment of what Augustinian thought has to offer contemporary economic theory The Oxford Handbook of Wisdom and the Bible Will Kynes, 2021 A high profile and authoritative volume in which a broad range of leading scholars in the field assess the current state of the art in the study of both Wisdom Literature as a category of texts in the Hebrew Bible and as a concept more generally This particularly timely handbook captures the field at a time in which a plethora of new questions are being asked about Wisdom Literature and spans the gap between that cutting edge scholarship and standard textbook expositions The Greek Historia Monachorum in Aegypto Andrew Cain, 2016-05-13 The Greek Historia Monachorum in Aegypto was one of the most widely read and disseminated Greek hagiographic texts during Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages To this day it remains alongside Athanasius Life of Antony one of the core primary sources for fourth century Egyptian monasticism as well as one of the most fascinating yet perplexing pieces of monastic hagiography to survive from the entire patristic period However until now it has not received the intensive and sustained scholarly analysis that a monograph affords In this study Andrew Cain incorporates insights from source criticism stylistic and rhetorical analysis literary criticism and historical geographical and theological studies in an attempt to break new ground and revise current scholarly orthodoxy about a broad range of interpretive issues and problems The Fragmentary Latin Histories of Late Antiquity (AD 300-620), 2020-06-25 The first systematic collection of fragmentary Latin historians from the period AD 300 620 this volume provides an edition and translation of and commentary on the fragments It proposes new interpretations of the fragments and of the works from which they derive whilst also spelling out what the fragments add to our knowledge of Late Antiquity Integrating the fragmentary material with the texts preserved in full the volume suggests new ways to understand the development of history writing in the transition from Antiquity to the Middle Ages Biblical Exegesis and Mystical Theology in the Venerable Bede Arthur Holder, 2024-03-14 Biblical Exegesis and Mystical Theology in the Venerable Bede brings together 17 essays by Arthur Holder exploring the theology and spirituality found in Bede's biblical commentaries and homilies. The volume shows that Bede was both a masterful student of received tradition and a creative thinker concerned to address the needs and interests of his audience of Christian pastors and teachers in the eighth-century Northumbrian church. Although Bede is best known as the author of The Ecclesiastical History of the English People, the last half century of scholarship has demonstrated the sophistication and vast influence of his work in the fields of grammar, biblical interpretation, hagiography, poetry, computus, natural science, and theology. The chapters in this volume show how Bede's exegesis was integrally connected with his work in all those genres and with the monumental artistic productions of his monastery, such as the illuminated Bible manuscript known as the Codex Amiatinus. The five parts of the book deal with Bede as teacher and biblical scholar, his interpretations of the tabernacle and the temple, his commentary on the Song of Songs, his attitudes toward philosophy and heresy, and his mystical theology. This book will be of interest to students of Christian theology, mysticism, the development of biblical interpretation, and the history of early medieval England.

Byzantine Materiality Evan Freeman, Roland Betancourt, 2024-06-04. This volume explores the power of matter and materials in the Eastern Roman Empire, also known as Byzantium. Recent attention to matter as dynamic and meaningful constitutes an emerging interdisciplinary field of inquiry known as materiality, new materialism, or the material turn. Materials can be symbolic, but matter can also act on human subjects. This volume builds on these insights to consider the role of matter, materials, form, and embodied experiences in Byzantium. In many respects, Byzantine materiality represents a continuation of its Greco-Roman inheritance, which was also shared by neighboring peoples such as the Umayyads and Abbasids. But the Byzantines also developed their own unique perspectives on matter and form, as with their parsing of the sacred materialities of icons, the Eucharist, and relics. Chapters in this volume consider the cultural meanings and functions of materials such as gold and ivory, the materiality of icons and relics, experiences of objects, as well as Byzantine philosophies of matter and form. Materiality takes center stage in Byzantine constructions of power, luxury, belief, and identity, which will be of interest to scholars and students of Byzantium and the wider medieval world.

Augustine and the Mystery of the Church James K. Lee, 2017-09-01. Over the course of the past two centuries, Augustine's ecclesiology has been subject to interpretations that overdraw the distinction between the visible and invisible dimensions of the church, sometimes reducing the church to a purely spiritual, invisible reality over against the visible church celebrating the sacraments. The empirical community is incidental at best and can be discarded. By contrast, this book argues that the church is a mystery that is visible and invisible. Far from discarding the visible, Augustine places greater emphasis on the empirical church as his thought develops. This study traces Augustine's ecclesiology from early writings to later works in order to demonstrate this thesis. His early thought is heavily influenced by Platonism and tends to focus on the ascent of the individual soul. After his study of Scripture in the 390s, Augustine gives priority to participation in the visible sacramental community. In his mature thought, the church is one mystery, mysterium.

sacramentum revealed by Scripture with visible and invisible aspects This book explores Augustine's exegesis of biblical images of the church such as body of Christ bride of Christ city of God and sacrifice in order to show how the visible community is intrinsic to the mystery of the church

People of Bread Wolfgang Vondey, 2008 Wolfgang Vondey contends that the story of the church is a story of the people of bread The image of bread is one of the richest and at the same time one of the most neglected biblical images that speak to an ecumenical understanding of the church Drawing from scripture from writers of the early church and from cutting edge debates in contemporary scholarship Vondey unfolds the social moral missiological ecumenical and eschatological dimensions of the church based on the story of bread that far exceeds a eucharistic interpretation People of Bread speaks to a growing interest in an understanding of the church by addressing the widespread revival of the theological imagination

Papers Presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies Held in Oxford 2003 Frances Margaret Young, Mark J. Edwards, Paul M. Parvis, 2006 Papers presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 2003 see also Studia Patristica 39 40 41 and 42 The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers These range over the whole field both East and West from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents dates of events and such like and some unveil new texts The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject

Intimacy and Intelligibility Erika Kidd, 2025-10-15 Intimacy and Intelligibility is a paradigm shifting exploration of De magistro Augustine's overlooked and misunderstood dialogue about words and signs Erika Kidd's fresh approach to Augustine's De magistro On the Teacher fills a gap in the emerging conversation about Augustine's early dialogues while avoiding the disincarnate bias of existing interpretations of this essential work Kidd's reading situates the dialogue within a broadly Augustinian tradition of reflection on language and intimacy Drawing on the work of feminist philosopher and linguist Luce Irigaray Intimacy and Intelligibility unpacks the literary form and the relational context of De magistro including the women who lurk in the dialogue's shadows Kidd likewise reimagines the place of Christ the inner teacher in the dialogue Though the inner teacher is often cast as a mere guarantor of meaning she argues that the inner teacher summons Augustine and his son Adeodatus to an intimate space of meaning rooted in the life they share Kidd reveals that De magistro is not a text about informing but a text about intimacy It is a rich meditation on the blessed life and a worthy memorial to Augustine's beloved son      A Companion to Late Antiquity Philip Rousseau,2012-01-25 An accessible and authoritative overview capturing the vitality and diversity of scholarship that exists on the transformative time period known as late antiquity Provides an essential overview of current scholarship on late antiquity from between the accession of Diocletian in AD 284 and the end of Roman rule in the Mediterranean Comprises 39 essays from some of the world's foremost scholars of the era Presents this once neglected period as an age of powerful transformation that shaped the modern world Emphasizes the central importance of religion and its connection with economic social and political life Winner of the 2009 Single Volume Reference Humanities Social Sciences PROSE award granted by the Association of American Publishers      Ancient Angels Rangar Cline,2011-03-05 Although angels are typically associated with Judaism Christianity and Islam Ancient Angels demonstrates that angels angeloi were also a prominent feature of non Abrahamic religions in the Roman era Following an interdisciplinary approach the study uses literary inscriptional and archaeological evidence to examine Roman conceptions of angels how residents of the empire venerated angels and how Christian authorities responded to this potentially heterodox aspect of Roman religion The book brings together the evidence for popular beliefs about angels in Roman religion demonstrating the widespread nature of speculation about and veneration of angels in the Roman Empire      Missa Est! Eugene R. Schlesinger,2016-12-15 The twenty first century church cannot afford to neglect mission When church and culture no longer share a common outlook the only way forward is mission Pope Francis recognizes this in his call for a missionary conversion of the church Responding to this invitation is a constructive work in ecclesiology addressing the relationship between liturgy and mission in the church's life It advances a notion of the church grounded in both liturgy and mission where neither is subordinated to nor collapsed into the other The church's liturgical rites disclose and enact the church's identity as a missionary community Close examination of the sources at the heart of traditional communion ecclesiology Trinitarian theology the sacraments of initiation and eucharistic theology yields an ecclesiology in which the church is constituted by both liturgy and mission These are two distinct ways of participating in the triune life of God which is revealed in the paschal mystery The church's pilgrimage to God's kingdom takes it through the world in mission The church as the body of Christ is given away to God and to the world for the world's salvation The result is a contemporary restatement of traditional ecclesiology transposed into a missional key      Women's Religions in the Greco-Roman World Ross Shepard Kraemer,2004-03-04 This is a substantially expanded and completely revised edition of a book originally published in 1988 as Maenads Martyrs Matrons Monastics The book is a collection of translations of primary texts relevant to women's religion in Western antiquity from the fourth century BCE to the fifth century CE The selections are taken from the plethora of ancient religions including Judaism and Christianity and are translated from the six major languages of the Greco-Roman world Greek Latin Aramaic Hebrew

Syriac and Coptic The texts are grouped thematically in six sections Observances Rituals and Festivals Researching Real Women Documents to from and by Women Religious Office New Religious Affiliation and Conversion Holy Pious and Exemplary Women and The Feminine Divine Women s Religions in the Greco Roman World provides a unique and invaluable resource for scholars of classical antiquity early Christianity and Judaism and women s religion more generally Erasmus's Life of Origen Desiderius Erasmus,2016 Erasmus of Rotterdam 1466 1536 hailed Origen of Alexandria 185 254 as a holy priest a gifted homilist a heroic Christian and a celebrated exegete and theologian of the ancient Church In this book Thomas Scheck presents one of the fruits of Erasmus s endeavors in the field of patristic studies a particularly neglected field of scholarship within Erasmus studies by providing the first English translation annotated and thoroughly introduced of Erasmus final work the Prefaces to his Edition of Origen s writings 1536 Originally published posthumously two months after Erasmus s death the work surveys Origen of Alexandria s life writings preaching and contribution to the Catholic Church The staggering depth and breadth of Erasmus s learning are exhibited here as well as the maturity of his theological reflections which in many ways anticipate the irenicism of the Second Vatican Council with respect to Origen Erasmus presents Origen as a marvelous doctor of the ancient Church who made a tremendous contribution to the Catholic exegetical tradition and who lived a saintly life Depicting Orthodoxy in the Russian Middle Ages Ágnes Kriza,2022 This volume offers an interpretation of the image of Divine Wisdom traditionally associated with the Sophia Cathedral in Novgorod Kriza argues that the figure stands for the Orthodox Church in response to events in the fifteenth century Theodoret's People Adam M. Schor,2011-05-17 Adam Schor explores the social and doctrinal role of Theodoret in a novel and lively way making use of social theory and seeing Theodoret s activities and contacts against the rich documentation provided by the great ecclesiastical controversies of his time Fergus Millar author of A Greek Roman Empire Power and Belief under Theodosius II 408 450 Schor s proposal that modern social network theory is the key to understanding Theodoret of Cyrus s social positioning and mode of controversy makes for compelling reading His nuanced yet powerful analysis shows the continued relevance of socio scientific methods for understanding the history of late antique Christianity Richard Lim author of Public Disputation Power and Social Order in Late Antiquity Adam Schor has written a lively and incisive study of a notoriously difficult era Mining the substantial but greatly understudied letter collections of the times applying the insights of network theory and boldly taking on the entire corpus of Theodoret s writings an ambitious project in itself Schor has produced strikingly fresh material throughout With rich insight and rigorous attention to detail Schor opens new vistas on the late antique landscape Thought provoking at every turn Susan Ashbrook Harvey author of Scenting Salvation Ancient Christianity and the Olfactory Imagination Inscribing Faith in Late Antiquity Sean V. Leatherbury,2019-07-26 Inscripting Faith in Late Antiquity considers the Greek and Latin texts inscribed in churches and chapels in the late antique Mediterranean c 300 800 CE compares them to similar texts from pagan Jewish and Muslim spaces of worship and explores how they functioned both textually and visually These texts not only recorded the names and prayers of the faithful but were powerful verbal and visual statements of cultural values and religious beliefs conveying meaning through their words as well as through their appearances In fact the two were intimately connected All of these texts Christian Jewish Muslim and pagan acted visually embracing their own materiality as mosaic paint or carved stone Colourful and artfully arranged the inscriptions framed human relationships with the divine encouraged responses from readers and made prayers material In the first in depth examination of the inscriptions as words and as images the author reimagines the range of aesthetic cultural and religious experiences that were possible in spaces of worship Inscribing Faith in Late Antiquity is essential reading for those interested in Roman late antique and Byzantine material and visual culture inscriptions and other texts and religious life in the ancient Mediterranean
