Indian Doctoral Dissertations in English Studies K.

Naseem, 2000 Indian Research In English Studies Has A Long And Rich Tradition But Unfortunately It Has Failed To Make Any Notable Impact On The Academic World This Is Largely Due To The Fact That Most Of The Indian Doctoral Dissertations In English Studies Lie Buried In University Libraries And Are Inaccessible To Aspiring Researchers No Attempt Has Been Made So Far To Establish Any Link Or Co Ordination Between Research Activities Of Different Universities Institutes This Has Resulted In A Total Neglect Of Earlier Research And Unnecessary Duplication The Present Volume Is Designed To End This Unhappy Situation By Providing A Complete And Authentic Account Of Research Carried Out In Indian Universities Not Only In British American Commonwealth And Indian English Literature But Also In Comparative Studies Translation Studies Language Linguistics And Elt Entries On The Above Mentioned Are Arranged Subject Wise In Chronological Sequence And Are Followed By A Separate Section On Individual Authors In Alphabetical Order Thus It Provides A Consolidated View Of Indian Research In English And Serves As An Invaluable Reference Manual It Is A Step Towards Orientation And Systematisation Of Indian Research In English Studies And Will Help To Make Research A Well Informed Well Planned And Meaningful Exercise

Virginia Woolf and the Poetry of Fiction Stella McNichol, 2018-02-21

Originally published in 1990 Virginia Woolf and the Poetry of Fiction provides a stylistic study of the fiction of Virginia Woolf The book examines what is generally described as a traditional novel examining such works as Jacob s Room and the way in which meaning is nonetheless conveyed poetically The book argues that her early novels are shown to contain writing of considerable sophistication and maturity and how her major works of fiction are approached in a more specific way Mrs Dalloway through its poetic rhythms To the Lighthouse as a multi perspectival exploration of a reality embodied in a single image and The Waves as a play poem approach itself Theory of the Novel Michael McKeon, 2000-12 McKeon and others delve into the significance of the novel as a genre form issues in novel techniques such as displacement the grand theory narrative modes such as subjectivity character and development critical interpretation of the structure of the novel and the novel in historical context Woolf and the City Elizabeth F. Evans, Sarah E. Cornish, 2010 Edited collection from acclaimed contemporary Woolf scholars focusing on urban issues These include addressing the ethical and political implications of Virginia Woolf's work a move that suggests new insights into Woolf as a real world social critic The Impact of Virginia Woolf on Anita Desai Dr. Varsha P. Zanwar, 2014-01-07 Virginia Woolf was a talented and indefatigable writer She was a very serious and conscious artist interested more in the life of the mind in sensation thoughts feelings intuitions than in the life of external action Being an artist of great insight and penetration she painted a picture of real life as she saw it In her desire to paint reality she broke with the traditions and conventions of the 19th century novel Anita Desai is also an indisputably one of the most powerful and distinguished contemporary Indian novelists in English A novelist of considerable merit Anita Desai has enriched the tradition of the Indian novel in English She is a conscious artist of a high order and her concern for human has imparted profound appeal to her novels Anita Desai in contrast with other women novelists is more interested in the interior landscape of the mind the thought than in political and social realities Thus Virginia Woolf and Anita Desai are two great artists in the realm of English fiction Both are rooted in two totally different milieus yet the works of two share not only in structure and themes but also in imagery style and technique The study of the impact of Virginia Woolf on Anita Desai provides a very fascinating and rewarding experience Anita Desai and Virginia Woolf have taken deep interest in depicting the family structure These two writers have their thematic nexus on the familial relationship It is the depiction of the familial relationships which binds the two novelists with each other in a strong bond Though these two great writers Woolf and Desai are from two different centuries and countries the works of two shares in the structure themes like loneliness isolation death etc and imagery Also in the novels of both there is a major role of time and memory This book makes a modest attempt to focus attention upon the impact of Woolf on Desai In both Woolf and Desai we find an almost obsessive involvement with the characters past as a key to their consciousness their lives A pre occupation with nostalgia and memory thus becomes an integral part of their craft But these are not used as things in themselves They are used artistically both for thematic as well as formal purposes A careful study of the novels makes us understand how they are made to function as artistic tools This book particularly highlights the impact of Virginia Woolf on Anita Desai with respect to three novels of each These are I Mrs Dalloway and Cry the Peacock II To the Lighthouse and Clear Light of Day III The Waves and Fire on the Mountain I record my gratefulness to the principal of J E S College Jalna Dr R S Agrawal Head of the Department of English M A Sami Siddiqui for support and encouragement at every stage of my work I also offer my sincere thanks to the senior teachers of my Department for their valuable suggestions I feel deeply to put into words my sense of thankfulness to my parents and family I am thankful to Rut Printer and Publisher and Dr U P Mogle for the valuable work help to design and print Dr Varsha P Zanwar

Techniques of Detachment in the Novels of E.M. Forster Edgar Allen Austin, 1959

Criticism of Society in the English Novel Between the Wars Hena Maes-Jelinek, 2013-05-22 The main concern of this study is the artist s vision of society its major theme is the relation between the individual and society resulting from the impact of social and political upheavals on individual life By criticism of society I mean the novelist s awareness of the social reality and of the individual s response to it the writers I deal with all proved alive to the changes that were taking place in English society between the two World Wars Though the social attitudes of the inter war years as well as the writers response to them were shaped by lasting and complex influences such as trends in philosophy and science the two Wars stand out as determining factors in the development of the novel the consequences of the First were explored by most writers in the Twenties whereas in the following decade the novelists felt compelled to voice the anxiety aroused by the threat of another conflict and to warn against its possible effects After the First World War many writers felt keenly the social disruption the old standards which were thought to have made this suicidal

War possible were distrusted the code of behaviour and the moral values of the older generation were openly criticized for having led to bankruptcy Disparagement of authority increased the individual's sense of isolation his insecurity his disgust or fear Even the search for pleasure so widely satirized in the Twenties was the expression of a cynicism born of despair The ensuing disengagement of the individual from his environment became a major theme in the novel his isolation was at once a cause for resentment and the source of his fierce individualism
