Now And Then Reading And Writing About The American Immigrant Experience:

Now and Then Neil Reich,1995-07-01 Now and Then provides theme based reading and writing featuring stories about the American immigrant experience Now and Then Instructor's Manual Neil Reich,1998-07 This collection of stories about the American immigrant experience addresses issues common to ESL students while helping them develop reading and analytical skills encouraging and inspiring them to write Politics and the Intellectual Irving Howe,2010 A compilation of Irving Howe s interviews during the last fifteen years of his life this book represents what could be viewed as the sequel to Howe s intellectual autobiography A Margin of Hope which took the story of his life only up to the late 1970s Many of these interviews were never published and have existed only as personal tapes in the hands of such scholars and activists as Todd Gitlin and Maurice Isserman Others were originally published in such venues as The New York Times The Jerusalem Post and the PBS documentary Arguing the World Howe never organized his thoughts about the last fifteen years of his life during which he gained renown for World of Our Fathers received a MacArthur Fellowship and became widely regarded as the leading left liberal intellectual in the U S and arguably the leading literary critic in America following the deaths of Lionel Trilling and Edmund Wilson During this time Howe also struggled to redefine the American Left in an environment that discounted and marginalized it Indeed these interviews may have particular significance today a period of new opportunities for the liberal Left yet one in which it struggles to construct some coherent identity and compelling program The editors worked with the full cooperation of Howe s family His daughter Nina contributed an afterword and provided a number of illustrations and photos that have never before appeared in print Book Jacket Anthropological Approaches to Reading Migrant Writing Deborah Reed-Danahay,Helena Wulff,2023-10-24 This book brings fresh perspectives to the anthropology of migration It focuses on what migrants write and how anthropologists may incorporate insights gained from engagement with this writing into research methods and writing practices The volume includes a range of contributions from leading scholars in the field all organized around a striking set of questions about the conditions in which migrant narratives are written and translated the audiences for which they are intended the genres and media through which they are disseminated and what such stories include or leave out The contributors to this volume demonstrate an innovative shift in anthropological methods by showing how fiction and nonfiction graphic memoir and autoethnography song lyrics as well as social media posts and images unsettle the power dynamics in the study of migration narrative This book will serve as important supplemental reading for courses on migration literary anthropology ethnographic methods and sociocultural anthropology in general Its interdisciplinary perspective will appeal to a broad range of scholars and students with interests in migration narrative and anthropological writing genres Empathy and Reading Suzanne Keen,2022-06-23 This pioneering collection brings together Suzanne Keen s extensive body of work on empathy and reading charting the development of narrative empathy as an area of inquiry in its own right and extending cross disciplinary conversations about empathy evoked by reading The volume offers a brief overview of the trajectory of research following the 2007 publication of Empathy and the Novel with empathy understood as a suite of related phenomena as stimulated by representations in narratives The book is organized around three thematic sections theories empathetic readers and interdisciplinary applications each preceded by a short framing essay The volume features excerpts from the author's seminal works on narrative empathy and makes available her harder to access contributions The book brings different strands of the author's research into conversation with existing debates with the aim of inspiring future interdisciplinary research on narrative empathy This book will be of interest to students and scholars in such fields as literary studies cognitive science emotion studies affect studies and applied contexts where empathetic practitioners work
