Living a life of sin for many years had me in bondage I was a slave to sin I was living my life a lie wanting to find the truth I have fought the demon for many years To defeat the demon you've got to find out what demons fear See the devil and his demons like to plant fear in you and feed off it If you don't give them no fear to eat they will soon get weak and die You can't play around with Satan and his evil army because they are not playing If they are not playing well neither am I I fear nobody but God It wasn't until I gave my life to Jesus Christ that I began to feel free You see at the shout of the name Jesus we know the demons tremble I am no longer a friend of this evil world I am a friend of God's I am protected guided and comforted I feel like a bird that has been let out of the cage I've been in for years And these wings that God gave me were meant to fly I will now soar all the way to my destiny feeling like a free bird thanks to my Lord and Savior Jesus the Christ Amen Jesus is the Truth and the Life and no one comes to the Father except through the Son And Jesus is the Son of God He rose from the dead after three days with all power in his hands God is in control So if you want true freedom try Jesus He's all right

Many managers have to deal with several generations on the same team. It requires a deeper understanding of management and better understanding of people skills to handle a diverse staff. In order to get the best from the entire team it is important to satisfy their needs while retaining individual talent. Surveys indicate that fully 60% of employers report tensions between employees of different generations. Join Alex Steele as he uncovers the challenging differences between these generations and develops a game plan to lead a better team. Along the way he discovers not only the skill to lead but the skill to live. The journey is deep, rooted in pain and darkness at times. In the end he emerges not only with a better understanding of people but a better understanding of life.
