Eternity Now Wojciech Tworek, 2019-07-15 The Habad movement formed in eighteenth century Belarus has developed into one of the most influential streams of Hasidic Judaism Drawing on both mystical sermons and legal writings of its founder Rabbi Shneur Zalman of Liady 1745 1812 Eternity Now provides the first account of the historiosophical dimensions of early Habad doctrine Challenging the commonly held view that Shneur Zalman was primarily concerned with supratemporal transcendence Wojciech Tworek reveals the importance of time and history in his teachings Tworek argues that the worldly dimensions of Shneur Zalman's thought were largely responsible for the rapid growth of Habad at the turn of the nineteenth century and fostered its transformation from an elitist circle into a mass movement Tworek's readings of Hebrew and Yiddish sources demonstrate the implications of these ideas not only for male scholars but also for non scholars Jewish women and even non Jews Philosophical and kabbalistic thought joined together to form a model of religious experience attractive to a broad audience laying an ideological foundation for the missionary messianism that was to become a hallmark of Habad in the twentieth century

AIŌN-AIŌNIOS: the Greek word translated Everlasting, Eternal, in the ... Bible, shown to denote limited duration ... Second edition John Wesley HANSON, 1875 You Have the Words of Eternal Life Martin Hogan, 2020-07-31 Many people feel drawn to basing their prayer on the Scriptures in particular the gospels These short reflections attempt to listen to the gospel text on its own terms while showing how it can continue to speak to our church and our world today The book will appeal to priests in parishes who may wish to prepare a short homily for the weekday Mass as well as to parishioners who wish to prayerfully reflect on the weekday gospel readings as well as Lectio Divina groups in parishes The calendar of the book helps the busy presider as the reflections are linked to the readings by calendar date rather than the church calendar

The American Catholic Quarterly Review James Andrew Corcoran, Patrick John Ryan, Edmond Francis Prendergast, 1887 The Unspoken Word Bruce Milem, 2002 Eckhart's sermons have long attracted readers with their daring ideas and brilliant use of language This text examines four sermons to show that Eckhart's way of speaking reflects his theological views especially his commitment as a negative theologian to the absolute ineffability of God A Christian directory, guiding men to their eternal salvation. Now set forth with many corrections Robert Persons, 1820 Now and Forever John E. Thiel, 2023-04-01 Building on the insights of the ressourcement theology of grace this sophisticated theological aesthetics offers a fresh vision of the doctrine of creation through a consideration of the beauty of time Conventional eschatological accounts of life after death tend to emphasize the discontinuity between earthly life and the hereafter whereas this life is subject to the contingencies of time life after death is characterized by a stolid eternity In contrast to this standard view John E Thiel's Now and Forever articulates a Catholic eschatology in which earthly life and heavenly life are seen as gracefully continuous This account offers a reconceptualization of time which Thiel argues is best understood as the sacramental medium of God's grace to creation Thiel's project thus attempts to rescue time from its Platonically negative resonance in the doctrine of creation Rather than viewing time as the ambiance of sinful dissolution Thiel argues for a Christian vision of time's beauty and so explicitly develops an aesthetics that views time as a creaturely reflection of God's own Trinitarian life This thesis proceeds from the assumption that all time is eschatological time and is thus guided by attention to the temporality implicit in the virtue of hope with its orientation toward a fulfilled future that culminates in resurrected life This interpretation of the beauty of eschatological time in its widest expanse presses further the insight of ressourcement theology that grace is everywhere while appreciating how time's graceful beauty manifests itself in the diversity of temporal moments human communities and most fully in the heavenly communion of the saints

Mensch, 1996-07-03 This book provides an important new answer to the much discussed question of the nature and possibility of philosophy following the collapse of the modern foundationalist paradigm Mensch offers an alternative based in phenomenology Using Husserl's analysis of temporality to reinvigorate Aristotle's account of time he shows how the passing of modernity is actually an opening for doing metaphysics in a new nonfoundationalist manner Positioning Husserl within a wider context Mensch views him both as a culmination of the modern foundationalist paradigm and as providing a way to overcome it through his descriptive analyses
