Wombs and Alien Spirits Janice Boddy, 1989-12-01 Based on nearly two years of ethnographic fieldwork in a Muslim village in northern Sudan Wombs and Alien Spirits explores the z r cult the most widely practiced traditional healing cult in Africa Adherents of the cult are usually women with marital or fertility problems who are possessed by spirits very different from their own proscribed roles as mothers Through the woman the spirit makes demands upon her husband and family and makes provocative comments on village issues such as the increasing influence of formal Islam or encroaching Western economic domination In accommodating the spirits the women are able metaphorically to reformulate everyday discourse to portray consciousness of their own subordination Janice Boddy examines the moral universe of the village discussing female circumcision personhood kinship and bodily integrity then describes the workings of the cult and the effect of possession on the lives of men as well as women She suggests that spirit possession is a feminist discourse though a veiled and allegorical one on women s objectification and subordination Additionally the spirit world acts as a foil for village life in the context of rapid historical change and as such provides a focus for cultural resistance that is particularly though not exclusively relevant to women

Handbook of Ancient Nubia Dietrich Raue, 2019-06-04 Numerous research projects have studied the Nubian cultures of Sudan and Egypt over the last thirty years leading to significant new insights The contributions to this handbook illuminate our current understanding of the cultural history of this fascinating region including its interconnections to the natural world

Sick Societies Robert B. Edgerton, 2010-06-15 Author and scholar Robert Edgerton challenges the notion that primitive societies were happy and healthy before they were corrupted and oppressed by colonialism He surveys a range of ethnographic writings and shows that many of these so called innocent societies were cruel confused and misled

Ethnic Groups of Africa and the Middle East John A. Shoup,2011-10-17 This encyclopedia is an essential guide to the different ethno linguistic groups in Africa and today s complicated Middle East region Ethnic Groups of Africa and the Middle East contains encyclopedic entries arranged alphabetically within ethno linguistic classifications Each entry has four main sections an introduction identifying the language group where they are found and their numbers a brief discussion of their origins and early history a section on cultural life that includes religion literature social organization and art and a final section on political organization and recent history The contents are appropriate for high school and undergraduate students as well as for experts who need a refresher on groups in Africa and the Middle East While certain ethnic groups have been combined into a single entry some such as the Tuareg who are a Berber people are described within their own entries because of their importance in history or cultural domination

The Nile John A. Shoup,2017-05-12 This book provides an avenue for students to explore the Nile the world s longest river and better understand its larger role in society in the past present and future The Nile River has been the most important natural resource for Egyptians and other Africans who live along its shores for thousands of years bringing life to an otherwise arid and bleak desert region Without the Nile civilizations in Egypt could not have achieved such success The physical cultural religious and political impacts of this mighty riverway are enormous This one volume encyclopedia explores a breadth of topics related to the Nile River from ancient irrigation techniques to 19th century exploration and from current environmental controversies to concerns regarding man made Lake Nasser Readers will be able to explore beyond the physical aspects of the world s longest river to achieve an understanding of the Nile River s larger role in society After a preface and introduction that provides general background information on the source tributaries and mouth of the Nile the encyclopedia presents thematic essays that cover topics such as the Nile s physical geography history environmental issues and controversies culture religion and legend and politics More than 100 entries cover key individuals specific locations geology and structure significant expeditions gods and deities and folklore related to the Nile In addition the work provides an appendix of primary document excerpts from explorers journals and more recent legislation on damming as well as an appendix of place names interesting sidebars and a helpful chronology of key events

Postcolonial Literatures of Climate Change ,2022-07-04 Postcolonial Literatures of Climate Change investigates the evolving nature of postcolonial literary criticism in response to global regional and local environmental transformations brought about by climate change It builds upon and extends previous studies in postcolonial ecocriticism to demonstrate how the growing awareness of human caused global warming has begun to permeate literary consciousness praxis and analysis The breadth of the volume s coverage the diversity of its focal locations cultures genres and texts serves as a salient reminder that while climate change is global its impacts vary affecting peoples from place to place unequally and often in accordance with their particular historical experience of colonialism and neo colonialism as well as their ongoing marginalisations Demonstrating the urgency of invoking novel epistemological approaches combining the scientific and the imaginative this book is a must read for those concerned about the present and potential impacts of climate change on formerly colonised areas of the world The comprehensive and illuminating Introduction offers a crucial history and current state of postcolonial ecocriticism as it has been and is addressing climate crises Helen Tiffin University of Wollongong The broad focus on the polar regions the Pacific and the Caribbean with added essays on environmental justice activism in India and Egypt opens up rich terrain for examination under the rubric of postcolonial and ecocritical analysis not only expanding recent studies in this field but also enabling new comparisons and conceptual linkages Helen Gilbert Royal Holloway University of London The subject is topical and vital and will become even more so as the problem of how to reconcile the demands of climate change with the effects on regions and individual nations already damaged by the economic effects of colonisation and the subsequent inequalities resulting from neo colonialism continues to grow Gareth Griffiths Em Prof University of Western Australia

Aswan High Dam Resettlement of Egyptian Nubians Thayer Scudder, 2016-08-05 This book highlights the long term resettlement process of the Egyptian Nubian people along the Aswan High Dam Assessing the resettlement of 48 000 Egyptian Nubians in connection with the High Dam is especially important for three main reasons firstly this resettlement process is one of the rare cases in which research begun before the dam was built has continued for over forty years Secondly the resettlement of the Egyptian Nubian people is one of the few cases in which the living standards of the large majority improved because of the initial political will of the government combined with Nubian initiatives Thirdly given the complexity of the resettlement process weaknesses in government planning implementation and in the weakening of government political provide valuable lessons for future dam induced resettlement efforts

Peaceful Peoples Bruce D. Bonta, 1993-12-01 Peaceful peoples are societies that have developed harmonious social structures which allow them to get along with each other and with outsiders without violence Most of these peoples foster a spirit of cooperation rather than competition promote sharing rather than glorifying greed and live in harmony with the earth as well as with other people Perhaps most importantly they believe that peacefulness is the defining characteristic of their humanity Some of the peoples included in the book are from the Western tradition such as the Amish Hutterites Mennonites Quakers and Tristan Islanders from South America the Piaroa from Africa the Fipa from South Asia the Paliyan Malapandaram and Nayaka from Southeast Asia the Semai Chewong and Buid and from Micronesia the Ifaluk This selected bibliography includes annotated references to books articles and other English language publications that provide significant information about a peaceful society The author has combed the literature of fields such as anthropology psychology sociology history and religious studies for appropriate works with a cutoff date of 1992 Scholars and peace activists who are interested in societies that foster peacefulness have difficulty finding references to the literature

Numerous indexes and abstracts do not include subject headings such as peaceful peoples Furthermore indexing services often do not cover chapters in edited volumes an important part of this literature The book includes a very detailed name and subject index that provides access to the intriguing social psychological and cultural similarities and difference existing among the peoples Building Knowledge, Constructing Histories Ine Wouters,Stephanie van de Voorde,Inge Bertels,Bernard Espion,Krista de Jonge,Denis Zastavni,2018-09-05 Building Knowledge Constructing Histories brings together the papers presented at the Sixth International Congress on Construction History 6ICCH Brussels Belgium 9 13 July 2018 The contributions present the latest research in the field of construction history covering themes such as Building actors Building materials The process of building Structural theory and analysis Building services and techniques Socio cultural aspects Knowledge transfer The discipline of Construction History The papers cover various types of buildings and structures from ancient times to the 21st century from all over the world In addition thematic papers address specific themes and highlight new directions in construction history research fostering transnational and interdisciplinary collaboration Building Knowledge Constructing Histories is a must have for academics scientists building conservators architects historians engineers designers contractors and other professionals involved or interested in the field of construction history

Nubian Ceremonial Life Introduction

In the digital age, access to information has become easier than ever before. The ability to download Nubian Ceremonial Life has revolutionized the way we consume written content. Whether you are a student looking for course material, an avid reader searching for your next favorite book, or a professional seeking research papers, the option to download Nubian Ceremonial Life has opened up a world of possibilities. Downloading Nubian Ceremonial Life provides numerous advantages over physical copies of books and documents. Firstly, it is incredibly convenient. Gone are the days of carrying around heavy textbooks or bulky folders filled with papers. With the click of a button, you can gain immediate access to valuable resources on any device. This convenience allows for efficient studying, researching, and reading on the go. Moreover, the cost-effective nature of downloading Nubian Ceremonial Life has democratized knowledge. Traditional books and academic journals can be expensive, making it difficult for individuals with limited financial resources to access information. By offering free PDF downloads, publishers and authors are enabling a wider audience to benefit from their work. This inclusivity promotes equal opportunities for learning and personal growth. There are numerous websites and platforms where individuals can download Nubian Ceremonial Life. These websites range from academic databases offering research papers and journals to online libraries with an expansive collection of books from various genres. Many authors and publishers also upload their work to specific websites, granting readers access to their content without any charge. These platforms not only provide access to existing literature but also serve as an excellent platform for undiscovered authors to share their work with the world. However, it is essential to be cautious while downloading Nubian Ceremonial Life. Some websites may offer pirated or illegally obtained copies of copyrighted material. Engaging in such activities not only violates copyright laws but also undermines the efforts of authors, publishers, and researchers. To ensure ethical downloading, it is advisable to utilize reputable websites that prioritize the legal distribution of content. When downloading Nubian Ceremonial Life, users should also consider the potential security risks associated with online platforms. Malicious actors may exploit vulnerabilities in unprotected websites to distribute malware or steal personal information. To protect themselves, individuals should ensure their devices have reliable antivirus software installed and validate the legitimacy of the websites they are downloading from. In conclusion, the ability to download Nubian Ceremonial Life has transformed the way we access information. With the convenience, cost-effectiveness, and accessibility it offers, free PDF downloads have become a popular choice for students, researchers, and book lovers worldwide. However, it is crucial to engage in ethical downloading practices and prioritize personal security when utilizing online platforms. By doing so, individuals can make the most of the vast array of free PDF resources available and embark on a journey of continuous learning and intellectual growth.
