Playing With Gender The Comedies Of Goldoni:

Playing with Gender Maggie Gunsberg, 2017-12-02 This work takes gender as its point of entry into the comedies of Carlo Goldoni 1707-93 The dramatization of femininity and masculinity is explored in conjunction with that of other social categories class the family and age The plays reinforce the patriarchal association of femininity with the body with spectacle and with theatricality while the dramatic backdrop of Venice and carnival provides a context for the staging of issues relating to identity disguise and fashion In the plays pretence and theatricality vie with bourgeois Enlightenment values of morality honesty and respectability to produce dramatic tension with distinct gender implications

Playing with Gender Maggie Günsberg, 2017 Italy's Eighteenth Century Paula Findlen, Wendy Wassyng Roworth, Catherine M. Sama, 2009 In the age of the Grand Tour foreigners flocked to Italy to gawk at its ruins and paintings enjoy its salons and caf s attend the opera and revel in their own discovery of its past But they also marveled at the people they saw both male and female In an era in which castrati were rock stars men served women as cicisbei and dandified Englishmen became macaroni Italy was perceived to be a place where men became women The great publicity surrounding female poets journalists artists anatomists and scientists and the visible roles for such women in salons academies and universities in many Italian cities also made visitors wonder whether women had become men Such images of course were stereotypes but they were nonetheless grounded in a reality that was unique to the Italian peninsula This volume illuminates the social and cultural landscape of eighteenth century Italy by exploring how questions of gender in music art literature science and medicine shaped perceptions of Italy in the age of the Grand Tour

Giorgio Strehler Directs Carlo Goldoni Scott Malia, 2013-12-11 Giorgio Strehler Directs Carlo Goldoni uses Giorgio Strehler's Goldoni productions and Arlecchino servitore di due padroni in particular as a means to defining his directorial aesthetic The book provides a framework for examining the director's career that is expansive rather than restrictive using Goldoni and Arlecchino servitore di due padroni as a through line for Strehler's fifty year career at the Piccolo Teatro di Milano This research defines Strehler's multifaceted style and brings to light interrelationships among his various works creating a base from which a variety of subsequent critical inquiries can be made. It also establishes Strehler's identity within the larger scope of the Italian theatre as a whole. Finally it creates the critical challenge of finding more expansive notions of directorial style and concept that unite diverse ideologies without delimiting our understanding of the director. Crucial to understanding Strehler's work with Arlecchino servitore di due padroni is his consistent reinterpretation of the play which received no less than five distinct productions during Strehler's lengthy career. His repeated reworking of existing productions provides a baseline for examining what elements were maintained and what elements changed or evolved. The four key influences that defined Strehler's aesthetic in his work with Arlecchino were commedia dell'Arte, Bertolt Brecht, refractive theatricality and Jacques Copeau. Through these productions Strehler created a dialogue with his audience and helped change the reputation of Carlo Goldoni both in his own country and abroad.

Pagodas in Play Adrienne Ward, 2010 Pagodas in Play analyzes the treatment of China in the imaginative and spectacular world of eighteenth century Italian opera. It shows how Italians used perceptions of Chinese culture to address local and transnational developments particularly Enlightenment and secular reform initiatives. Its focus on the texts and performance practices of opera, an entertainment form accessible to a wide public, reveals cultural operations and identities harder to detect in non-fictional reformist writings the texts traditionally privileged to explain Italian mediations of Enlightenment ideas In its close reading of nine libretti of the most salient Settecento operas treating China opere serie and opere buffe by authors including Metastasio Zeno Goldoni and Lorenzi Pagodas in Play differentiates Italian iterations of Chinese culture from French and English counterparts It further challenges certain tenets of orientalism showing how it operates when nationalist and or colonialist projects are absent and how orientalist practices in eighteenth century Italy exhibit early on the complexity some scholars locate only in the twentieth century Adrienne Ward teaches Italian literature and culture at the University of Virginia
