The new Penguin series of Ibsen's major plays offer the best available editions in English under the general editorship of Tore Rem. All the plays have been freshly translated by leading translators and are based on the definitive Norwegian edition of Ibsen's works. This volume includes an introduction by Toril Moi on the themes of death and human limitation in the plays and additional editorial apparatus by Tore Rem.

Henrik Ibsen 1828-1906 is often called the Father of Modern Drama. Born in the small Norwegian town of Skien, he left Norway in 1864 for a twenty-one year long voluntary exile in Italy and Germany. After successes with the verse dramas Brand and Peer Gynt, he turned to prose writing his great twelve play cycle of society dramas between 1877 and 1899. This included The Pillars of Society, A Doll's House, Ghosts, An Enemy of the People, The Wild Duck, Rosmersholm, The Lady from the Sea, Hedda Gabler, The Master Builder, Little Eyolf, John Gabriel Borkman, and finally When We Dead Awaken. Ibsen returned to Norway in 1891 and died there at the age of seventy-eight.

Barbara J. Haveland and Anne Marie Stanton are both freelance literary translators. Toril Moi is Professor of English Theater Studies and Philosophy at Duke University. Her books include Henrik Ibsen and the Birth of Modernism (2006). Tore Rem is Professor of British literature at the University of Oslo and author of Henry Gibson (2006).

Ibsen's Selected Plays (Norton Critical Editions) Henrik Ibsen, 2004. Collects five plays spanning Ibsen's career with general introductions, explanatory annotations, criticism, and selections from his correspondence and other writings.

Ibsen's Plays Henrik Ibsen, 2000-01-01. Six Plays by Henrik Ibsen Henrik Ibsen, 2003. Six Plays by Henrik Ibsen is part of the Barnes and Noble Classics series. Some include illustrations of historical interest. Barnes and Noble Classics pulls together a constellation of influences—biographical, historical, and literary—to enrich each reader's understanding of these enduring works.

The father of modern drama, Henrik Ibsen shook off the stale conventions of nineteenth-century theater and made the stage play an instrument for brilliantly illuminating the dark recesses of human nature. After writing historical plays and imaginative epic dramas in verse such as Peer Gynt, Ibsen turned away from history and romanticism to focus instead on the problems of the individual and modern society. The plays of his middle period—A Doll's House, Ghosts, The Wild Duck, and his most popular play Hedda Gabler—are masterpieces of stark psychological realism. In his final plays, including The Master Builder, Ibsen mixed realism and symbolism to enrich his examination of our subconscious drives and urges.

Ibsen was criticized and denounced during his lifetime for expanding the boundaries of what is acceptable fare for the stage. Audiences were shocked when he wrote of feminist yearnings, venereal disease, and the deep emotions that underlie the sadness involved in being human. James Joyce put the criticism in perspective: Henrik Ibsen is one of the world's great men before whom criticism can make but feeble show. When the art of a dramatist is perfect, the critic is superfluous. Ibsen has since come to be considered one of our greatest playwrights.

Martin Puchner is Assistant Professor of English and comparative literature at Columbia University. He is the author of Stage Fright: Modernism, Anti-Theatricality, and Drama (Johns Hopkins University Press, 2002).

A Doll's House Henrik Ibsen, 2016-12-04. A Doll's House (Bokmål: Et dukkehjem) also translated as A Doll House is a three act play in prose by Henrik Ibsen. It premiered at the Royal Theatre in Copenhagen, Denmark, on 21 December 1879, having been published earlier that month. The play is significant for its critical attitude toward 19th-century marriage norms. It aroused great controversy at the time as it concludes with the protagonist Nora leaving her husband and children because she wants to discover herself. Ibsen was inspired by the belief that a woman cannot be herself in modern society since it is an exclusively male society with laws made by men and with prosecutors and judges who assess feminine conduct from a masculine standpoint. Its ideas can also be seen as having a wider application. Michael Meyer argued that the play's theme is not women's rights but rather the need of every individual to find out the kind of person he or she really is and to strive to become that person. In a speech given to the Norwegian Association for Women's Rights in 1898, Ibsen insisted that he must disclaim the honor of having consciously worked for the women's rights movement since he wrote without any conscious thought of making propaganda; his task having been the description of humanity.
