Modern Intertextuality Sarah Carter, 2021-04-20 This book is an exploration of the viability of applying the post structuralist theory of intertextuality to early modern texts It suggests that a return to a more theorised understanding of intertextuality as that outlined by Julia Kristeva and Roland Barthes is more productive than an interpretation which merely identifies source texts The book analyses several key early modern texts through this lens arguing that the period's conscious focus on and prioritisation of the creative imitation of classical and contemporary European texts makes it a particularly fertile era for intertextual reading This analysis includes discussion of early modern creative writers utilisation of classical mythology allegory folklore parody and satire in works by William Shakespeare Sir Francis Bacon John Milton George Peele Thomas Lodge Christopher Marlowe Francis Beaumont and Ben Jonson and foregrounds how meaning is created and conveyed by the interplay of texts and the movement between narrative systems This book will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students of early modern literature as well as early modern scholars Plays for Amateurs
