Demastes, 2000-01-01 Applause is proud to continue the series that for over 70 years has been the standard of excellence for one act plays in America As previous series editor Ramon Delgado wrote in his introduction to The Best American Short Plays of 1989 the choice of entries for each edition has been based on the same goal to include a balance among three categories of playwrights 1 established playwrights who continue to practice the art and craft of the short play 2 emerging playwrights whose record of productions indicate both initial achievement and continuing artistic productivity and 3 talented new playwrights whose work may not have had much exposure but evidences promise for the future From its inception The Best American Short Plays has identified new cutting edge playwrights who have gone on to establish award winning careers including Tennessee Williams Edward Albee Wendy Wasserstein David Mamet and Horton Foote This volume Bill Demastes first edition as series editor illustrates how well the short story play can grapple with the many dimensions of love The selected plays present unique perspectives on the wide range of love s impact on our lives each giving a thoroughly modern twist to the idea that life would be so much easier but also much less interesting if we could only avoid love s mercurial influence

Quills and Other Plays Doug Wright, 2005-11-29 Selected early works from the Pulitzer Prize winning playwright Throughout his work Doug Wright has often combined the personal the social and the political in the process unearthing fundamental truths about life and art while casting an unblinking eye on the dark and darkly funny side of human nature Gathered here are three of Wright's early plays including Interrogating the Nude a tongue in cheek reimaging of the uproar surrounding the debut of Marcel Duchamp's work in America Watbanaland a satiric dissection of yuppie desire and a haunting look at family and faith and the Obie Award winning Quills which explores the boundaries of artistic expression and the dangers of censorship as they played out in the Marquis de Sade's final days at Charenton Asylum

Play Felicia Faye McMahon, Donald E. Lytle, Brian Sutton-Smith, 2005 Play An Interdisciplinary Synthesis is co published with the Association for the Study of Play TASP an interdisciplinary international organization of play research scholars This volume the sixth in the Play and Culture TASP series synthesizes biological anthropological educational and psychological approaches to play It is a valuable book with chapters from premier researchers such as Robert Fagen and Carolyn Pope Edwards of the United States Arne Trageton of Norway Paola de Sanctis Ricciardone of Italy and Jean Paul Rossie of Morocco Also included is an interstitial book within the book by Brian Sutton Smith

Mammoth Graveyards Sierra Greenleaf, AI, 2025-02-15 Mammoth Graveyards explores the mysteries held within concentrated deposits of mammoth remains offering insights into the Late Pleistocene extinction event These graveyards found across continents are not random bone accumulations but rather snapshots of past ecological conditions The book uniquely focuses on taphonomy the study of how these fossil sites formed to accurately reconstruct past environments and the lives of mammoths The book progresses by first introducing the geographic distribution and geological context of mammoth graveyards It then evaluates major extinction theories like climate change and human hunting using paleontological data such as radiocarbon dating and fossil analysis derived from the graveyards themselves A key argument is that rigorous scientific analysis of these sites reveals the complex interplay of factors contributing to megafaunal extinctions highlighting the need to consider multiple interacting elements rather than a single cause These findings inform current discussions about biodiversity loss and potential future extinctions
