Screening The Novel Keith Selby,Robert Giddings,2016-07-27 The book takes as its theme the relationship between literature and the contemporary means of production and distribution collectively termed the media in particular film and television The intention of the book is to explore and evaluate the mutual opportunities and restrictions in this relationship In the grammar of our culture there seems to be an accepted opinion that print is superior in terms of cultural production to film radio or television that to read a book is somehow a higher cultural activity than seeing a play on television or seeing a film By the same token a novel is a superior work of art to film or television The longer perspective reveals that traditionally there always is a greater respect paid to the previous mode of literary production poetry

was superior to drama poetic drama was superior to the novel and film attained cult and classic status initially over television

Poe Hays,2021-06-29 Providing balance to the general scholarly trend to focus on the non narrative aspect of Hebrew poetry this book argues that the Hebrew Psalter does contain stories and their inclusion in ancient Israel s worship texts contributes to the rhetorical power of the psalms in ways distinct from other poetic devices Rebecca W Poe Hays builds on literary theory and biblical studies of narrative to establish a clear definition of story and to identify where story appears in the book of Psalms The majority of the book explores how these story portions of the Psalter divided into the three broad categories of retellings of history testimonies and paradigms function within their larger contexts Each chapter includes a discussion of a particular category s general characteristics a close reading of representative texts and an assessment of distinctive ways each type of story functions in the psalms in which they appear These poetic psalmic stories have the rhetorical power to draw readers uniquely into narrative worlds and inspire empathy to guide readers into particular understandings of history and teach inductively and to concretize the abstract and so shape the beliefs and behaviors of the communities who regard them as sacred texts
