Settlement Archaeology at Quirigua, Guatemala Wendy Ashmore, 2013-01-09 This monograph reports the results of the Quirigu Project Site Periphery Program five seasons 1975 1979 of archaeological survey and excavation in the 96 km<sup>2</sup> immediately adjoining the classic Maya site of Quirigua Ashmore identifies and helps us understand where and how the people of Quirigua lived She presents detailed material evidence in two data catalogues for the floodplain settlement adjoining Quirigua and for sites in the wider periphery The work situates Quirigua settlement firmly in a regional context benefiting from the extraordinary abundance of information amassed in southeastern Mesoamerica since 1979 It sheds new light on the political economic and social dynamics of the region including the sometimes fractious interactions between Quirigua its overlords at Copan and people elsewhere in the Lower Motagua Valley and beyond Quirigua Reports IV The Ancient Maya Heather McKillop, 2004-08-19 Thanks to powerful innovations in archaeology and other types of historical research we now have a picture of everyday life in the Mayan empire that turns the long accepted conventional wisdom on its head Ranging from the end of the Ice Age to the flourishing of Mayan culture in the first millennium to the Spanish conquest in the 16th century The Ancient Maya takes a fresh look at a culture that has long held the public s imagination Originally thought to be peaceful and spiritual the Mayans are now also known to have been worldly bureaucratic and violent Debates and unanswered questions linger Mayan expert Heather McKillop shows our current understanding of the Maya explaining how interpretations of dirt archaeology hieroglyphic inscriptions and pictorial pottery are used to reconstruct the lives of royalty artisans priests and common folk She also describes the innovative focus on the interplay of the people with their environments that has helped further unravel the mystery of the Mayans rise and fall Trade and Exchange Carolyn D. Dillian, Carolyn L. White, 2009-12-05 Long before the advent of the global economy foreign goods were transported traded and exchanged through myriad means over short and long distances Archaeological tools for identifying foreign objects such as provenance studies stylistic analyses and economic documentary sources reveal non local materials in historic and prehistoric assemblages Trade and exchange represent more than mere production and consumption Exchange of goods also led to an exchange of cultural and social experiences Discoveries of the sources of alien objects surpass archaeological expectations of exchange and geographic distance revealing important technological advances With thirteen case studies from around the world this comprehensive work provides a fresh perspective on material culture studies Evidence of ongoing negotiation between individuals villages and nations provides insight into the impact of trade on the micro meso and macro level Covering a wide array of time periods and areas this work will be of interest to archaeologists anthropologists and anyone working in cultural studies volume fiercely explore non traditional research areas in archaeology The chapters bear witness to their valuable and unique contributions to reconstructing the past through innovative theoretical and methodological approaches In doing so they share the inherent difficulties of practicing archaeology not only because they too are mothers sisters and wives but also because of the context in which they are writing This volume may interest researchers in archaeology history of science gender studies and feminist theory Chapter 11 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0

Pottery and Politics J. P. Dessel, 2009-06-30 This volume is the first in a planned series of reports on the investigations of the Lahav Research Project LRP at Tell Halif located near Kibbutz Lahav in southern Israel The LRP has focused widely on stratigraphic environmental and ethnographic problems related to the history of settlement at Tell Halif and in its immediate surroundings from prehistoric through modern times It is fitting that this LRP series begins by focusing on remains from Site 101 which was the first location excavated by the team in 1973 This initial effort involved investigation of a warren of shallow caves that had been exposed by efforts to widen the road into the kibbutz In this volume J P Dessel reports on the excavation undertaken at Site 101 during Phase II and is also supplemented by his later research The excavation itself was guided throughout by Dessel s determination to require the total retrieval of all ceramic remains It was his rigorous follow through on all details involved in the analysis of materials that produced the pioneering results herein presented Readers will find the book important for the archaeology and history of the southern Levant in the 4th millennium B C E as well as for connections between the Levant and surrounding regions in that era     Quirigua Reports ,1979     The Highlands of the Lowlands
