Plummets And Other Partialities:

Plummets and Other Partialities Ralph Gustafson, 1987      The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry      Poetics of Place Dermot McCarthy, 1991 Ralph Gustafson's personal growth as a poet during a career which spans more than half a century in many ways reflects the development of modern Canadian poetry as a whole A Poetics of Place provides the only available examination of the career of this pre eminent Canadian poet as well as insightful new readings of almost all his poems      Reclaiming the Fire Clifford Mayes, Mark Grandstaff, Alexandra Fidyk, 2019-02-08 This book examines six psychological and spiritual giants that were working a half century ago whose insights are as powerful today as they were then perhaps even more so given the current corporate agenda to standardize education and thereby take the soul out of it Indeed it is precisely because we are so aware of the impossible demands placed upon teachers these days which overtax already valiantly devoted and terribly overworked teachers and which also continue to ignore the fact that the problems children face are not a product of our schools but of our society at large that the authors have written this book This book will help you renew your noble sense of mission so that even in these trying times for teachers you will feel more fulfilled in all that you accomplish will discover ways to renew your vision of yourself as a teacher despite all the grossly and unjustly negative things that are said about teachers and will find new ways of continue in your extremely important work      Once upon a Time in the West Jan Zwicky, 2023-05-15 Western civilization is over So begins Jan Zwicky's trenchant exploration of the root of global cultural and ecological collapse a way of thinking that is also linked to some of the West's most noted achievements The Renaissance merged imperial enterprise with Islamic algebra and recently recovered Greek mathematics to precipitate mechanized industry and resource extraction these in turn made possible the growth of capitalism the military industrial complex and Big Technology Despite its self image as objective Zwicky argues the West's style of thought is not politically neutral but intensely anthropocentric It has led those who adopt it to regard the more than human world as nothing more than timber licences and drilling sites where value is not recognized unless it is monetized Oblivious to context and blind to big picture thinking it analyzes mechanizes digitizes and systematizes while rejecting empathy and compassion as distorting influences Lyric comprehension in Zwicky's view offers an alternative to this way of thinking and she provides a wide range of examples Once upon a Time in the West documents how a narrow epistemological style has left Western thought blind to critical features of reality and how the terrifying consequences of that blinkered vision are now beginning to unfold      Profiles in Canadian Literature 7 Jeffrey M. Heath, 1991-09-01 Profiles in Canadian Literature is a wide ranging series of essays on Canadian authors Each profile acquaints the reader with the writer's work providing insight into themes techniques and special characteristics as well as a chronology of the author's life. Finally, there is a bibliography of primary works and criticism that suggests avenues for further study. I know of no better introduction to these writers and the studies in question are full of basic information not readily obtainable elsewhere. U of T Quarterly Poetic Inquiry Pauline Sameshima, Alexandra Fidyk, Kedrick James, Carl Leggo, 2017-06-15. In the tradition of a decade of bi-annual gatherings of the International Symposium on Poetic Inquiry, this volume serves as the fifth refereed symposium anthology. Enchantment of Place celebrates poetry and poetic voices theorizing and exploring poetic inquiry as an approach, methodology, and/or method for use in contemporary research practices. Poetic inquiry has increased in prominence as a legitimate means by which to collect, assimilate, analyze, and share the results of research across many disciplines. With this collection, we hope to continue to lay the groundwork internationally for researchers, scholars, graduate students, and the larger community to take up poetic inquiry as a way to approach knowledge generation, learning, and sharing. This volume specifically works to draw attention to the ancient connection between poetry and the natural world, with attention to broadening the ecological scope and impact of the work of poetic inquirers. Merriam-Webster's Encyclopedia of Literature Merriam-Webster, Inc, 1995. Describes authors' works and literary terms from all eras and all parts of the world. Reference Guide to English Literature D. L. Kirkpatrick, 1991. Concise discussions of the lives and principal works of writers from Britain, Ireland, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, and English-speaking Africa, Asia, and the Caribbean. Written by subject experts. Winter Prophecies Ralph Gustafson, 1987. Equality and Partiality Thomas Nagel, 1995-05-11. Derived from Thomas Nagel's Locke Lectures. Equality and Partiality proposes a nonutopian account of political legitimacy based on the need to accommodate both personal and impersonal motives in any credible moral theory, and therefore in any political theory with a moral foundation. Within each individual, Nagel believes there is a division between two standpoints: the personal and the impersonal. Without the impersonal standpoint, there would be no morality; only the clash, compromise, and occasional convergence of individual perspectives. It is because a human being does not occupy only his own point of view that each of us is susceptible to the claims of others through private and public morality. Political systems, to be legitimate, must achieve an integration of these two standpoints within the individual. These ideas are applied to specific problems such as social and economic inequality, toleration, international justice, and the public support of culture. Nagel points to the problem of balancing equality and partiality as the most important issue with which political theorists are now faced. Contemporary Poets Thomas Riggs, 1995. This reference work combines bibliographical, biographical, and critical information on 900 living poets writing in the English language. Entries are arranged alphabetically, and this edition includes 120 new entrants, including Wendy Cope, Benjamin Zephaniah, and Rachel McAlpine. The Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 1988. Quill & Quire, 1990. Contemporary Poets Tracy Chevalier, 1991. Contains biographical entries, a list of separately published books, and an essay on each poet. The Canadian Who's who, 1995.
