Plunging Through The Clouds Constructive Living Currents:

Plunging Through the Clouds David K. Reynolds, 1993-01-26 Constructive Living brings together two psychotherapies Morita and Naikan and their associated lifeways Both therapies were developed in this century but their roots extend back hundreds of years in East Asian history Morita was a professor of psychiatry at Jikei University School of Medicine in Tokyo Yoshimoto was a successful businessman who retired to become a lay priest in Nara Morita's method has its origins in Zen Buddhist psychology and Yoshimoto's Naikan has its origins in Jodo Shinshu Buddhist psychology Neither of these systems requires that one believe in Buddhism or have faith in anything other than one's experience They work as well for Christians and Moslems and Jews as for Buddhists Both are built on the naturalistic observations of humans and careful introspection of their founders Constructive Living isn't mystical or oriental but practical and human Naikan Gregg Krech, 2010-09 Rooted in Japanese tradition Naikan nye Kahn is a structured method for intensely meditating on our lives our interconnections our missteps Through Naikan we develop a natural and profound sense of gratitude for blessings bestowed on us by others blessings that were always there but went unnoticed This collection of introductory essays parables and inspirations explains what Naikan is and how it can be applied to life and celebrations throughout the year A Study of the Thematic Apperception Test (TAT) with Japanese Subjects Jennifer L. Gray, 1999 The purpose of the study was to identify common themes on the Thematic Apperception Test TAT for Japanese subjects In addition Japanese TAT themes were compared with American TAT themes Stein 1981 for any significant differences It was hypothesized that significant differences in narrative themes would exist between Japanese and American subjects The subjects included sixty male and female college students attending courses in Tokyo Japan Subjects were enrolled in college courses during the administration of the test and ranged in age from 18 to 27 years of age All the participants were fluent in English allowing them to make responses in that language therefore eliminating the errors inherent in translation Japanese subjects were then compared with Morris I Stein's original study of eighty American males conducted in 1981 Ten of the original Murray TAT cards were used 1 2 3BM 4 6BM 7GF 8BM 10 11 and 14 Japanese narratives were then scored using five variables for each of the ten cards hero gender the incidence of death need for achievement dominant emotional tone and the outcome of the story In conclusion common TAT themes for Japanese subjects were identified for all ten of the cards that were administered Cards 1 2 4 8BM 10 11 and 14 shared many of the same themes for Japanese and American subjects On the other hand cards 3BM 6BM and 7GF varied in theme content for Japanese and American subjects These findings will help determine the validity and reliability of the TAT as an assessment tool for Japanese subjects and open the door for future studies of Asian populations in the United States as this population is underrepresented in much of the research and literature of today New World Mindfulness Donald McCown, Marc S. Micozzi, 2011-12-22 Techniques to fit mindfulness into the demands and pace of real life Reveals the medical benefits of mindfulness for stress anxiety and depression as well as for coping with serious illness and major life changes Offers a wide range of techniques including a high speed form of contemplation from the authors extensive experience working with this practice as a healing modality We are all busy and we all long for quiet and connection Yet despite the growing body of evidence supporting the benefits of mindfulness the hectic pace of modern life leaves little time to devote to meditation relaxation and contemplation In New World Mindfulness mindfulness teacher and therapist Donald McCown and physician Marc Micozzi provide techniques to successfully integrate mindfulness into real life so we can rise above the stress of work family and community that can easily pull us out of the moment and into states of tension anxiety or depression Dispelling the two big myths of mindfulness that it is an exotic activity and that it requires you to slow down and find more time the authors present a history of mindfulness in the West from the American Founding Fathers Thoreau and Emerson up to present day leaders in the field such as Jon Kabat Zinn and reveal a high speed form of contemplation ideal for even the busiest of lives Exploring the physiological impact of mindfulness practices for stress anxiety depression and coping with serious illness and major life changes the authors show that mindfulness is not about being silent and alone it can even be practiced as a family or community Not prescribing change but rather working from within this book connects Western no nonsense get it done pragmatism with the yearning for beauty and balance that makes a full life truly fulfilled

Japanese Understanding of Salvation Martin Heißwolf, 2018-02-14 It is no secret that Christianity has been widely rejected in Japan with less than two percent of the population identifying as Christian The dominant worldview in Japan is deeply animistic with beliefs such as the Japanese mana concept ki the Japanese soul concept and the concept of God gods kami being deeply rooted in the culture and fundamentally influencing society Dr Martin Heißwolf with his years of experience in Japan critically examines Japanese animism in light of core Christian beliefs such as the concepts of peace and salvation Central to Japanese people's rejection of Christian truth is the diametric opposition of its supernatural message to the natural focus of Japanese animistic folk religion Hei wolf s meticulous study is framed squarely within missiological thought and praxis so Christians serving in Japanese contexts are better able to communicate the message of the gospel by more fully understanding Japanese people people by whom God wants to be known Theories of Psychotherapy and Counseling Richard S. Sharf,1996 Case examples and therapist client dialogues show how each of 12 major theories can be applied to common psychological disorders such as depression anxiety and borderline disorders or to modes of treatment such as individual couples families and groups Each theory chapter follows a similar organizational scheme covering goals assessment the therapeutic relationship techniques research current trends time limited approaches and multicultural and gender issues Comparison critique and theoretical integration are provided in the final chapter Theories of

Psychotherapy & Counseling Richard S. Sharf,2004 Comprehensive in scope yet succinct in its description and explanation of individual theories Sharf s book introduces students to the systematic theories For each major theory presented in the text basic information about background personality theory and theory of psychotherapy provides a way for students to understand the application of the theory Using case summaries and client therapist dialogues Sharf demonstrates how twelve theories can be applied to individual therapy and to common psychological disorders such as depression anxiety and borderline disorders Sharf shows how each theory can be applied to work with groups Sharf also describes how each theory can be applied to families as well as providing a description of family systems theories in Chapter 13 Family Therapy
