Pluralism Minorities National Integration Problems And Prospects:

Pluralism, Minorities, National Integration Abdulrahim P. Vijapur, Ajay Kumar Singh, Kumar Suresh, 1997 With reference to India Pluralism, Minorities, National Integrations Abdulrahim P. Vijapur, Ajay Kumar Singh, Suresh Kumar, 2001 The Muslim Reality in India Ishtiaque Danish, 2016-06-08 The Muslim Reality in India is a collection of articles dealing with several aspects of Muslim presence in post independence India This edited volume highlights not only the problems the Muslim community is confronted with but also shows the way ahead The most obvious and visible reality in India is its pluralistic and composite culture Every multicultural society is a unique experience it creates and solves problems The book in your hand has discussed it very well Indian Muslims feel marginalized politically economically and socially Their educational status is pathetic to say the least But what has been frightening the Muslims the most is the frequent outbreak of communal violence There is also the lurking danger of uniform civil code which has the potential to violently polarize the country along communal lines Similarly wide spread discrimination and in some cases social exclusion are also important problems There are internal as well as external reasons behind the problems mentioned above The Muslim Reality in India is an attempt to analyse the problems objectively and find out viable solutions to them Like the causes of the problems the solutions too are both internal and external The Muslim Reality in India is thus an objective analysis as well as approach to solve the problems of the largest minority in the country

country such as Nigeria Education of Minorities and Peace Education in Pluralistic Societies Yaacov Iram, 2003-05-30 The existence of minorities will grow in most countries of the world because of sociopolitical upheaval and economic crisis both of which result in waves of migration Contributors to this volume discuss the task of education to alleviate the problems arising from the mix of peoples of various ethnic cultural linguistic and religious backgrounds No education system alone can create a just and equal society and education by itself is not enough to achieve peace Nevertheless educational efforts assisted by other institutional commitments and actions are essential in order to create an atmosphere of justice mutual recognition and acceptance as preconditions for peaceful coexistence within groups and between people As a result of worldwide migration in reaction to wars and other geopolitical conflicts as well as economic crisis many modern nation states consist of a mix of people of various ethnic cultural linguistic and religious backgrounds Indeed there are very few countries that are monocultural Here contributors discuss how it is imperative that multicultural education be promoted to achieve awareness then tolerance and finally acceptance of ethnic and other diversity within societies Language, Religion and Politics in North India Paul R. Brass, 2005 This book is recognized as a classic study both of the politics of language and religion in India and of ethnic and nationalist movements in general It received overwhelmingly favorable reviews across disciplinary and international boundaries at first publication characterized as a masterly conceptual analysis of language religion ethnic groups and nationhood a monumental work of interest to all political scientists one that should be required reading for any politically concerned person in the United Kingdom from a TLS review a work whose value and importance can scarcely be overstated with no competitor in the same class Federal Studies Orientation Series: Working of the Indian federal system, 2005 Situating Federalism Rekha Saxena, 2006 This study explores and analyses patterns and trends in the relationship between the central and regional governments known as the federal and provincial governments in Canada and the union and state governments in India two Commonwealth countries This problem has acquired special significance in recent decades as both these political systems have undergone an eventful process of transition from a predominantly parliamentary regime to more federalized governance
