Language Standardization and Language Variation in Multilingual Contexts Nicola McLelland, Hui Zhao, 2021-11-24 This important contribution to the sociolinguistics of Asian languages breaks new ground in the study of language standards and standardization in two key ways in its focus on Asia with particular attention paid to China and its neighbours and in the attention paid to multilingual contexts The chapters address various kinds of sometimes hidden multilingualism and examine the interactions between multilingualism and language standardization offering a corrective to earlier work on standardization which has tended to assume a monolingual nation state and monolingual individuals Taken together the chapters in this book thus add to our understanding of the ways in which multilingualism is implicated in language standardization as well as the impact of language standards on multilingualism The introduction Chapter 6 and Chapter 8 are free to download as open access publications under a CC BY NC licence You can access them here Introduction <https://zenodo.org/record/5749388> YaiwuNDP3cs Chapter 6 <https://zenodo.org/record/5749522> Yaiw 9DP3cs Chapter 8 <https://zenodo.org/record/5749586> Yai0RNDP3cs

Mufwene, Anna María Escobar, 2022-06-30 Language contact the linguistic and social outcomes of two or more languages coming into contact with each other has been pervasive in human history. However, where histories of language contact are comparable, experiences of migrant populations have been only similar, not identical. Given this, how does language contact work? With contributions from an international team of scholars, this Handbook, the first in a two-volume set, delves into this question from multiple perspectives and provides state-of-the-art research on population movement and language contact and change. It begins with an overview of how language contact as a research area has evolved since the late 19th century. The chapters then cover various processes and theoretical issues associated with population movement and language contact worldwide. It is essential reading for anybody interested in the dynamics of social interactions in diverse contact settings and how the changing ecologies influence the linguistic outcomes. Arabic as a Minority Language

Jonathan Owens, 2013-03-12. No detailed description available for Arabic as a Minority Language. International Mother Language Day: Enhancing Home Language Development from a Young Age Natalia Meir, He Sun, Vicky

Chondrogianni, 2023-10-05. Australia and Latin America Barry Carr, John Minns, 2014-08-01. This is a good time to reflect on opportunities and challenges for Australia in Latin America. Impressive economic growth and opportunities for trade and investment have made Latin America a dynamic area for Australia and the Asia Pacific region. A growing Latin American population, Australia's attractiveness to Latin American students, a fascination with the cultural vibrancy of the Americas, and an awareness of Latin America's increasingly independent stance in politics and economic diplomacy have all contributed to raising the region's profile. This collection of essays provides the first substantial introduction to Australia's evolving engagement with Latin America, identifying current trends and opportunities and making suggestions about how relationships in trade, investment, foreign aid, education, culture, and the media could be strengthened. Language and

Interaction in the Chinese Community in Cameroon Jocelyne Kenne Kenne, 2023. This book is the first in-depth treatment from a linguistic perspective of the Chinese presence in Africa. It is essentially a detailed study on communication in various domains between Chinese immigrants in Cameroon and the local community with whom they interact. In eight chapters, this well-organized book is able to give a relatively detailed sociolinguistic description of the host country, Cameroon, provide a good theoretical background of the study, outline the methodology used for the study, which involved mainly a questionnaire survey, semi-structured interviews, and field observations, before drawing conclusions to the study. This is a brilliant contribution to a growing literature on the global Chinese diaspora. Adams Bodomo, Professor of African Studies, Chair of Linguistics and Literatures at the University of Vienna, Austria. Multiculturalism and Integration Michael Clyne, James Jupp, 2011-07-01. Multiculturalism has been the official policy of all Australian governments, Commonwealth and State, since the 1970s. It has recently been criticised both in Australia and elsewhere. Integration has been suggested as a better term and policy. Critics suggest it is a reversion to assimilation. However, integration has not been rigorously defined and may simply be another form of multiculturalism, which the authors believe to have been vital in sustaining social harmony.

Media and the Chinese Diaspora Wanning Sun, 2009-03-04 The importance of the Chinese diaspora is widely recognized Wanning Sun examines the key role of the media in the Chinese diaspora She focuses especially on the media's role in communication in fostering a sense of community in defining different kinds of transnational Chineseness overseas Chinese communities are often very different from one country to another and in showing how media communication is linked to commerce which is often a key activity of the overseas Chinese Revealing a great deal about the vibrancy and dynamism of the Chinese language media the book considers the Chinese diaspora in Singapore Indonesia Thailand and Australia showing how it plays a crucial role in the changing nature of the Chinese diaspora
