Power Of A Third Kind The Western Attempt To Colonize The Global Village:

Power of a Third Kind Hisham Nazer, 1999-08-30 This thought provoking book points out that the most significant change in international relations in the 20th century was not the defeat of communism nor the end of the Cold War but the huge advances in communications technologies Hisham Nazer a leading Saudi Arabian intellectual and petroleum industry leader argues that the West has used its control over these capabilities to superimpose its cultural and political values on the rest of the world CNN films and television and the Internet have become the means of promoting Western products including soft drinks detergents and even the ideals of democracy and human rights in relatively powerless non Western nations This process of creating a global culture through the propagation of Western political and philosophical constructs as world brands poses grave dangers for the entire international community As countries become aware of their exploitation the possibilities for frustration and violence become increasingly real Power of a Third Kind is directed toward Western and non Western leaders alike For the former it provides a new perspective from outside the mirror of our Western culture pointing out that current practices are actually endangering the security of our hemisphere The author calls on Western leaders to work on a dialogue with other societies as an alternative to exporting to them a monologue designed for passive absorption And for the latter this book will inspire them to steer out of their current course in time to protect their histories and the integrity of their cultures Through meaningful dialogue well meaning nations will find a way for the most beneficial aspects of Western culture self rule and basic human rights to evolve within the context of local cultures resulting in a world both more stable and more humane

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes

At the Speed of Light There is Only Illumination John Moss, Linda M. Morra, 2004-06-01 At the Speed of Light There is Only Illumination collects a dozen re evaluative essays on Marshall McLuhan and his critical and theoretical legacy from intellectual adventurer creating a complex architecture of ideas to cultural icon standing in line in Woody Allen s Annie Hall Given McLuhan s prominent status in many academic disciplines the contributors reflect a multi disciplinary background John Moss and Linda Morra chose the essays from a gathering of McLuhan s academic devotees The contribution from McLuhan as Medium and McLuhan in Space to What McLuhan Got Wrong and Trouble in the Global Village to provide a kaleidoscope of new views As Moss writes of the collected essays Some are big and some are small some exegetic and some confessional some stand as major statements and others are sidelong glances some resonate with the concerns of public discourse and others are private or privileged or impious and provocative Each consists of many parts each a design on its own They speak to each other they may have come together as one version of what happened Published in English

Gorgias and the New Sophistic Rhetoric Bruce McComiskey, 2002-01-31 In Gorgias and the New Sophistic Rhetoric Bruce McComiskey achieves three rhetorical goals he treats a single sophist's rhetorical techné in the context of the intellectual upheavals of fifth century BCE Greece thus avoiding the problem of generalizing about a disparate group of individuals he argues that we must abandon Platonic assumptions regarding the sophists in general and Gorgias in particular opting instead for a holistic reading of the Gorgianic fragments and he reexamines the practice of appropriating sophistic doctrines particularly those of Gorgias in light of the new interpretation of Gorgianic rhetoric offered in this book In the first two chapters McComiskey deals with a misconception based on selective and Platonic readings of the extant fragments that Gorgias's rhetorical techné involves the deceptive practice of manipulating public opinion This popular and ultimately misleading interpretation of Gorgianic doctrines has been the basis for many neosophistic appropriations The final three chapters deal with the nature and scope of neosophistic rhetoric in light of the non Platonic and holistic interpretation of Gorgianic rhetoric McComiskey postulates in his opening chapters He concludes by examining the future of communication studies to discover what roles neosophistic doctrines might play in the twenty first century McComiskey also provides a selective bibliography of scholarship on sophistic rhetoric and philosophy in English since 1900

Western Imaginings Rohan Davis, 2018-03-21 Wahhabism is often understood as a radical version of Islam responsible for inspiring and motivating Islamic terrorism Western Imaginings The Intellectual Contest to Define Wahhabism is an inquiry into how Wahhabism has been understood and represented by Western intellectuals particularly those belonging to the neo conservative and liberal traditions In contrast to the existing literature that treats Wahhabism as a historical phenomenon or a monolithic theological ideology a literature often written by authors keen to promote geopolitical interests or with ideological axes to grind Davis's work considers Wahhabism as a discursive construct crafted and popularized by a Western intellectual elite This comprehensive study speaks to how and why Western intellectuals have chosen to represent Wahhabism in specific ways ranging from an analysis of the particular rhetorical techniques employed by these intellectuals to a consideration of the religious and political beliefs that inspire and motivate their decisions Western Imaginings is aimed at students of political philosophy intellectual traditions and sociology media and policy professionals and anyone interested in how Islamic doctrines like Wahhabism have been represented in an international context framed by a heightened anxiety about radical Islam

Kautilya and Non-Western IR Theory Deepshikha Shahi, 2018-09-29 The ancient Indian text of Kautilya's Artha śāstra comes forth as a valuable non Western resource for understanding contemporary International Relations IR However Kautilya's Artha śāstra largely suffers from the problem of presentism whereby present day assumptions of the dominant theoretical models of Classical Realism and

Neorealism are read back into it thereby disrupting open reflections on Kautilya's Artha shastra which could retrieve its alternative assumptions and unconventional traits This book attempts to enable Kautilya's Artha shastra to break free from the problem of presentism it does so by juxtaposing the elements of continuity and change that showed up at different junctures of the life history of both Kautilya's Artha shastra and Eurocentric IR The overall exploratory venture leads to a Kautilyan non Western eclectic theory of IR a theory which moderately assimilates miscellaneous research traditions of Eurocentric IR and in addition delivers a few innovative features that could potentially uplift not only Indian IR but also Global IR
