should be a part of a program's design process. Evaluation can be a positive experience. Evaluation contributes to conservation education and outreach program's success. The reader will build their knowledge of key evaluation terms and concepts. The relationship between evaluation and research. How evaluation processes and findings can contribute to decision making. The strengths and weaknesses of different evaluation approaches and data collection methods. The relationship among a program's goals, objective activities and expected outcomes. The readers will be able to develop and refine key evaluation questions. Review and contribute to an evaluation plan. Construct and improve data collection instruments. Collect credible and reliable data. Interpret results and draw conclusions. This book provides practical advice on conducting evaluation that is specific for conservation professionals. Case studies describe how evaluation has led to program improvements in a range of conservation settings. While there are numerous books that describe how to conduct program evaluation, none provide specific examples and tools relevant to improving environmental outcomes.

Handbook of Research on the Role of Libraries, Archives, and Museums in Achieving Civic Engagement and Social Justice in Smart Cities Taher, Mohamed, 2021-11-12. In achieving civic engagement and social justice in smart cities, literacy programs are offered in the society by three essential information service providers: libraries, archives, and museums. Although the library and museum services are documented in literature, there is little evidence of community-led library or museum services that make a full circle in understanding community library, community archive, and community museum relationships. The Handbook of Research on the Role of Libraries, Archives, and Museums in Achieving Civic Engagement and Social Justice in Smart Cities examines the application of tools and techniques in library and museum literacy in achieving civic engagement and social justice. It also introduces a new outlook in the services of libraries and museums. Covering topics such as countering fake news, human rights, literacies, and outreach activities, this book is essential for community-based organizations, librarians, museum administrations, education leaders, information professionals, smart city design planners, digital tool developers, policymakers engaged in diversity, researchers, and academicians.
