Muslim Womens Choices Religious Belief And Social Reality:

Muslim Women's Choices Camillia Fawzi El-Solh, Judy Mabro, 2020-08-21 This volume counters the prevailing Western views and stereotypes of Muslim women usually projected through male interpretations by presenting a cross cultural perspective of their experiences and choices in contemporary Muslim communities The main theme running through these papers is the manner in which Muslim women consciously as well as unconsciously manipulate religious belief to negotiate their gender roles within the context of their lives

Muslims and New Media in West Africa Dorothea E. Schulz, 2012 Although Islam is not new to West Africa new patterns of domestic economies the promise of political liberalization and the proliferation of new media have led to increased scrutiny of Islam in the public sphere Dorothea E Schulz shows how new media have created religious communities that are far more publicly engaged than they were in the past Muslims and New Media in West Africa expands ideas about religious life in West Africa women s roles in religion religion and popular culture the meaning of religious experience in a charged environment and how those who consume both religion and new media view their public and private selves

Women from Traditional Islamic Educational Institutions in Indonesia Eka Srimulyani, 2012 Dit is de eerste Engelstalige publicatie over vrouwen in traditionele islamitische onderwijsinstellingen in Indonesi de zogenaamde pesantren Deze vrouwen spelen een belangrijke rol de genderproblematiek in de Indonesische moslimgemeenschap Deze informatieve en inzichtelijke studie dient twee groeiende onderzoeksgebieden in de studies over Indonesi de studie naar de islam en de studie naar moslimvrouwen Tevens voegt het een nieuw perspectief toe aan de bestaande Engelstalige literatuur over moslima s buiten de huidige dominante context van het Midden Oosten of Sub Indische continent

Feminism and Islamic Fundamentalism Haideh Moghissi, 1999-07 A highly controversial intervention into the debate on postmodernism and feminism this book looks at what happens when these modes of analysis are jointly employed to illuminate the sexual politics of Islam As a religion Islam has been demonized for its gender practices like no other This book analyzes that Orientalism with particular reference to representations of Muslim women and describes the real sexual politics of Islam The author goes on to describe the rise of Islamic fundamentalism and the West s response to it She argues that regardless of the sophisticated argument of postmodernists and their suspicion of power as an intellectual and political movement postmodernism has put itself in the service of power and the status quo Moghissi brilliantly demonstrates how this trend has given rise to a neo conservative feminism A major feminist critique of Islamic fundamentalism this book asks some hard questions of those who in denouncing the racism of Western feminism have taken up an uncritical embrace of the Islamic identity of Muslim women It is urgent reading for all those concerned about human rights as well as for students and academics of women s studies political science social theory and religious studies

Everyday Islam in Post-Soviet Central Asia Maria Elisabeth Louw, 2007-05-09 Providing a wealth of empirical research on the everyday practise of Islam in post Soviet Central Asia this book gives a detailed account of how Islam is understood and practised among ordinary Muslims in the region focusing in particular on Uzbekistan It shows how individuals negotiate understandings of Islam as an important marker for identity grounding for morality and as a tool for everyday problem solving in the economically harsh socially insecure and politically tense atmosphere of present day Uzbekistan Presenting a detailed case study of the city of Bukhara that focuses upon the local forms of Sufism and saint veneration the book shows how Islam facilitates the pursuit of more modest goals of agency and belonging as opposed to the utopian illusions of fundamentalist Muslim doctrines

Encountering the Transnational Meena Sharify-Funk, 2016-04-29 When Muslim women from diverse national and cultural contexts meet one another through transnational dialogue and networking what happens to their sense of identity and social agency Addressing this question Meena Sharify Funk encountered women activists and intellectuals in North America the Middle East South Asia and Southeast Asia women whose lives and visions have become linked by the transnational despite their differing circumstances and intellectual backgrounds The resultant work provides a rich and clich bursting account of women s reflections on a wide range of topics including the status of women in Islam the role of women as interpreters of religious norms the relationship between secular and religious forms of self identification perceptions of Islamic Western relations experiences of marginalization and opportunities for empowerment Giving careful attention both to common threads in Muslim women s experiences and to the unique voices of remarkable women this is a compelling account of conversations that are bringing new energy and dynamism into women s activism in a world of collapsing distances

Secularism, Gender and the State in the Middle East Nadjie Al-Ali, 2000-07-27 A considerable literature has been devoted to the study of Islamic activism By contrast Nadjie Al Ali s book explores the anthropological and political significance of secular oriented activism by focusing on the women s movement in Egypt In so doing it challenges stereotypical images of Arab women as passive victims and demonstrates how they fight for their rights and confront conservative forces Al Ali s book also takes issue with prevailing constructions of the West and its perceived dichotomous relation to the East The argument is constructed around interviews which afford fascinating insights into the history of the women s movement in Egypt notions about secularism and how Islamist constituencies have impacted on women s activism generally The balance between the empirical and conceptual material is adeptly handled The author frames her work in the context of current theoretical debates in Middle Eastern and post colonial scholarship while some of the ideas are complex her lucid style means they are always comprehensible the book will therefore appeal to students as well as to scholars in the field

Believing Women in Islam Asma Barlas, 2019-01-16 Does Islam call for the oppression of women Non Muslims point to the subjugation of women that occurs in many Muslim countries especially those that claim to be Islamic while many Muslims read the Qur'an in ways that seem to justify sexual oppression inequality and patriarchy Taking a wholly different view Asma Barlas develops a believer's reading of the Qur'an that demonstrates the radically egalitarian and antipatriarchal nature of its teachings Beginning with a historical analysis of religious authority and knowledge Barlas shows how Muslims came to read inequality and patriarchy into the Qur'an to justify existing religious and social structures and demonstrates that the patriarchal meanings ascribed to the Qur'an are a function of who has read it how and in what contexts She goes on to reread the Qur'an's position on a variety of issues in order to argue that its teachings do not support patriarchy To the contrary Barlas convincingly asserts that the Qur'an affirms the complete equality of the sexes thereby offering an opportunity to theorize radical sexual equality from within the framework of its teachings This new view takes readers into the heart of Islamic teachings on women gender and patriarchy allowing them to understand Islam through its most sacred scripture rather than through Muslim cultural practices or Western media stereotypes For this revised edition of Believing Women in Islam Asma Barlas has written two new chapters Abraham's Sacrifice in the Qur'an and Secular Feminism and the Qur'an as well as a new preface an extended discussion of the Qur'an's wife beating verse and of men's presumed role as women's guardians and other updates throughout the book

Coerced Liberation Zamira Abman,2024-05-01 In 1924 the Bolshevik regime began an unprecedented campaign to forcibly emancipate the Muslim women of Tajikistan The emancipatory reforms included unveiling women passing progressive family code laws and educating women By the 1950s the Soviet regime largely succeeded in putting an end to veiling child marriage polygamy and bride payments Yet today there is a resurgence in these practices the Bolsheviks claimed to have eliminated Coerced Liberation reveals that the Soviet regime transformed the lives of urban women within a single generation but without lasting effect Drawing on unique primary sources the book examines why this occurred It addresses questions that are pertinent to ongoing debates in the international arena What happens when an outside force attempts to modernize a society deeply rooted in centuries of patriarchal norms and values In what ways can a devout religious rural community respond to survive and adapt to such interventions And how does a state centred top down approach towards women s emancipation work Coerced Liberation presents critical insights for readers interested in gender dynamics within Muslim communities the roles of women in Islam the resurgence of Islam in former colonial territories the effectiveness of a top down approach towards women s movements and more Velvet Jihad Faegheh Shirazi,2009-09-27 There are numerous conflicts ensuing in the Middle East but not all are being fought with rockets and rifles While the Internet has proven invaluable to those who wish to uphold a patriarchal society and spread the message of Islamic fundamentalism Muslim women have used the Web to build a transnational community intent on growing women s rights in the Middle East There is a large disparity between a Muslim woman s role according to the Qur an and her role as some corners of Muslim society have interpreted it In Velvet Jihad Faegheh Shirazi reveals the creative strategies Muslim women have adopted to quietly fight against those who would limit their growing rights Shirazi examines issues that are important to all women from routine matters such as daily hygiene and clothing to controversial subjects like abortion birth control and virginity As a woman with linguistic expertise and extensive life experience in both Western and Middle Eastern cultures she is uniquely positioned as an objective observer and reporter of changes and challenges facing Muslim women globally

Women's Rights in Authoritarian Egypt Hiam Elgousi,2016-04-20 During the uprisings of late 2010 and 2011 which took place across the Middle East and North Africa women made up an important part of the crowds protesting Women s rights were central to the demands made However despite this in the ensuing social and political struggles these rights have not progressed much beyond the situation under previous governments Hiam El Gousi s book offers an examination of the status of women under Egypt s various authoritarian regimes In exploring the role played by religious scholars in helping to define women s status in society she focuses on personal status laws and health rights In examining the issue of women s rights El Gousi begins with an account of feminism in Egypt the centre of feminist thought in the Middle East at the end of the nineteenth and beginning of the twentieth century Based on extensive research in the country especially at grassroots level El Gousi goes on to analyse the constitutional and legislative rulings which have affected the lives and rights of Egyptian women This book will become a vital primary resource for those studying feminism in the wider Middle East and North Africa Women in Muslim Societies Herbert L. Bodman (Jr.), Nayyirah Tawhīdī, 1998 Authors from a variety of disciplines assess the issues facing women in Muslim societies not only in the Middle East but also in Africa and Asia They stress the importance of historical context local customs and policies in defining the status of Muslim women and examine how women are coping with challenges such as modernity and conservative reaction Gender, Religion and Spirituality Caroline Sweetman, 1998 This collection explores the complex links between social and economic development and religious and spiritual belief Writers explore the scope for promoting women's rights and needs offered by religious belief and practice and analyse feminist responses to fundamentalist regimes which use religious doctrine to justify women's oppression

Muslims and Modernity Clinton Bennett, 2005-01-01 Can democracy flourish in Muslim society What does the Qur'an say about women minorities human rights Are Islam and the West on a collision course After 9/11 much has been written about the inevitability of a clash between Islam and the West as their worldviews compete for global supremacy Recent developments have done little to challenge this thesis or the West's negative image of Islam The author compares and contrasts contributions from traditional and progressive Muslims Voicing at least two Muslim opinions in each area of debate this book challenges the idea that all Muslims think identically While Muslims and Modernity is designed primarily for use as an undergraduate textbook reference to accessible Internet material to literature and to popular as well as scholarly sources will broaden its appeal to a general readership This book's discussion draws on post colonial theory feminist analyses anthropology cultural and religious studies politics and philosophy In Search of the Sacred Clinton Bennett, 1996-01-01 This text traces the growth and development of two related disciplines anthropology and the study of religions Locating these disciplines within the intellectual climate of the 19th century the study considers the contributions of scholars such as James George Frazer F Max Muller Emile Durkheim Mary Douglas and Clifford Geertz within an historical framework The author argues that both anthropologists and students of religion have abandoned an objective approach in favour of personal engagement with their subjects replacing observation with conversation monologue with dialogue a text based with people based approach He reveals how each discipline has influenced the other both in terms of methodology and by the provision of data The book also explores the criticism levelled at both disciplines that they have aided colonial domination of the developing world

Women, Religion, and Space in China Maria Jaschok, Jingjun Shui, 2012-10-02 What enables women to hold firm in their beliefs in the face of long years of hostile persecution by the Communist party state How do women withstand daily discrimination and prolonged hardship under a Communist regime which held rejection of religious beliefs and practices as a patriotic duty Through the use of archival and ethnographic sources and of rich life testimonies this book provides a rare glimpse into how women came to find solace and happiness in the flourishing female dominated traditions of local Islamic women's mosques Daoist nunneries and Catholic convents in China These women passionately often against unimaginable odds defended sites of prayer education and congregation as their spiritual home and their promise of heaven but also as their rightful claim to equal entitlements with men
