Nature and Culture Barbara Novak, 2007-01 In this illustrated volume including a number of stunning color prints the author explains that for fifty extraordinary years American society bestowed in the idea of Nature its most cherished ideals Between 1825 and 1875 all kinds of Americans artists writers scientists as well as everyday citizens believed that God in Nature could resolve human contradictions and that nature itself confirmed the American destiny During these years Nature God and Man converged to become a trinity and it was through the landscape painters the leaders of this intellectual movement that the nation was reminded of divine benevolence by keeping before their eyes the mountains trees forests and lakes Using diaries and letters of the artists as well as quotes from literary texts journals and periodicals the author illuminates the range of ideas projected on to the American landscape by painters such as Thomas Cole Albert Bierstadt Frederic Edwin Church Asher B Durand Fitz Hugh Lane and Martin J Heade and writers such as Ralph Waldo Emerson Henry David Thoreau William Wordsworth Theodore Rousseau and Frederich Wilhelm Schelling Adding a new dimension to the discussion of nature s influence on the American mind she explains how religion philosophy science and literature served as the support system for the idea of God in Nature She shows that the idea of nature as a national vested interest was invaluable to a young expanding nation but ultimately this essentially monolithic view collapsed from within undermined by the Civil War Darwinism and a burgeoning technological landscape Taking American landscape painting in its golden era as a product of society she examines the cultural background of paintings as an index to their intrinsic meaning She explains for example how new discoveries in science were made consonant with Deity how religion itself permeated nature with the idea of Creation and how the landscape artists were given the task of providing the images of nature that became the national iconography She goes on to demonstrate how American landscapists handling rocks clouds plants and other natural elements paralleled and diverged from scientific developments and also how the landscapists who accompanied explorers on their westward expeditions related to their scientific colleagues With a new introduction this volume encompasses a vast cultural panorama It demonstrates how the influence of the nature served not only as a vehicle for artistic creation but as its ideal form American Nature and Culture Barbara Novak,2023

In this second volume of her trilogy on American art and culture Novak explains that for 50 extraordinary years American society bestowed in the idea of Nature its most cherished ideals Landscape and Film Martin Lefebvre,2007-05-07

O'Toole,2005 Hudson River School artists shared an awe of the magnificence of nature as well as a belief that the untamed American scenery reflected the national character In this new work color reproductions of more than 115 paintings capture the beauty and illuminate the aesthetic and philosophical principles of the Hudson River School painters The pieces included in this volume reflect a period 1825 1875 when American landscape painting was most thoroughly explored and formalized with personal artistic cultural and national identifications Judith Hansen O Toole reveals the subtleties and quiet majesty of the works and discusses their shared iconography the ways in which artists responded to one another s paintings and how the paintings reflected nineteenth century American cultural intellectual and social milieus Different Views is also the first major study to examine closely the Hudson River School artists practice of creating thematically related pairs and series of paintings O Toole considers painters use of this method to express different moods and philosophical concepts She observes artists representations of landscape and their nuanced depictions of weather light and season By comparing and contrasting Hudson River School paintings O Toole reveals differences in meaning emotion and cultural connotation Different Views in Hudson River School Painting contains reproductions of works from a range of prominent and lesser known artists including Jasper Francis Cropsey Sanford Robinson Gifford Asher B Durand Frederic Edwin Church Albert Bierstadt John Frederic Kensett and John William Casilear The works come from a leading private collection and were recently exhibited at the Westmoreland Museum of American Art Frederic Church Jennifer Raab, 2015-10-29 Frederic Church 1826 1900 the most celebrated painter in the United States during the mid 19th century created monumental landscapes of North and South America the Arctic and the Middle East These paintings were unsurpassed in their attention to detail yet the significance of this pictorial approach has remained largely unexplored In this important reconsideration of Church s works Jennifer Raab offers the first sustained examination of the aesthetics of detail that fundamentally shaped 19th century American landscape painting Moving between historical context and close readings of famous canvases including Niagara The Heart of the Andes and The Icebergs Raab argues that Church s art challenged an earlier model of painting based on symbolic unity revealing a representation of nature with surprising connections to scientific discourses of the time The book traces Church s movement away from working in oil on canvas to shaping the physical landscape of Olana his self designed estate on the Hudson River a move that allowed the artist to rethink scale and process while also engaging with pressing ecological questions Beautifully illustrated with dramatic spreads and striking details of Church s works Frederic Church The Art and Science of Detail offers a profoundly new understanding of this canonical artist Description in Literature and Other Media Werner Wolf, Walter Bernhart, 2007 A third section on description in music provides a perspective on yet another medium The volume which is the second one in the series Studies in Intermediality is of relevance to students and scholars from various fields intermedial studies literary and film studies history of art and musicology Contents Preface Introduction Werner WOLF Description as a Transmedial Mode of Representation General Features and Possibilities of Realization in Painting Fiction and Music Description in Literature and Related Partly Verbal Media Ansgar NUNNING Towards a Typology Landscape and Western Art Malcolm Andrews, 1999 This book explores many issues raised by the range of ideas and images of the natural world in Western art since the Renaissance The whole concept of landscape is examined as a representation of the relationship between the human and natural worlds Featured artists include Claude Freidrich Turner Cole and Ruisdael and many different forms of landscape art are addressed such as land art painting photography garden design panorama and cartography Cultural Link Canada, Deutschland David Gethin John, 2003 Das Buch ist der erfolgreichen Geschichte eines akademischen Austauschs gewidmet Es dokumentiert die Magister und Doktorarbeiten mit denen mehr als 100 Studierende einen doppelten Studienabschluss erlangten einen deutschen und einen nordamerikanischen Titel Die Beitr ge reflektieren pers
