Nature And Culture In The Andes:

Nature and Culture in the Andes Daniel W. Gade,1999 Essays describe how the Andean Indians respond to environmental conditions and the plants and animals with which they live The Protected Landscape Approach Jessica Brown,Nora J. Mitchell,Michael Beresford,2005 The traditional patterns of land use that have created many of the world s cultural landscapes contribute to biodiversity support ecological processes provide important environmental services and have proven sustainable over the centuries Protected landscapes can serve as living models of sustainable use of land and resources and offer important lessons for sustainable development Examples of these landscapes and the diverse strategies needed to maintain this essential relationship between people and the land are provided Encyclopaedia of the History of Science, Technology, and Medicine in Non-Western Cultures Helaine Selin,2008-03-12 Here at last is the massively updated and augmented second edition of this landmark encyclopedia It contains approximately 1000 entries dealing in depth with the history of the scientific technological and medical accomplishments of cultures outside of the United States and Europe The entries consist of fully updated articles together with hundreds of entirely new topics This unique reference work includes intercultural articles on broad topics such as mathematics and astronomy as well as thoughtful philosophical articles on concepts and ideas related to the study of non Western Science such as rationality objectivity and method You ll also find material on religion and science East and West and magic and science Culture and Environment ,2019-07-01 The inspiration for this book arose out of a large international conference the ninth World Environmental Education Congress WEEC organized under the theme of Culture Environment Similarly the theme for this book focuses on the Culture Environment nexus The book is divided into two parts Part 1 consists of a series of research studies from an eclectic selection of researchers from all corners of the globe Part 2 consists of a series of case studies of practice selected from a wide diversity of K Postsecondary educators The intent behind these selections is to augment and highlight the diversity of both cultural method and cultural voice in our descriptions of environmental education practice The chapters focus on a multi disciplinary view of Environmental Education with a developing view that Culture and Environment may be inseparable and arise from and within each other Cultural change is also a necessary condition and a requirement to rebuild and reinvent our relationship with nature and to live more sustainably The chapters address the spirit of supporting our praxis and are therefore directed towards both an educator and researcher audience Each chapter describes original research or curriculum development work Protected Landscapes and Cultural and Spiritual Values Josep-Maria Mallarach,Josep Maria Mallarach i Carrera,2008 Documents using case studies the non material values that are to be found in protected landscapes Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Dr Alan Barnard,2002-09-11 This Encyclopedia provides description and analysis of the terms concepts and issues of social and cultural anthropology International in authorship and coverage this accessible work is fully indexed and cross referenced Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology

Alan Barnard, Jonathan Spencer, 2009-12-04 Written by leading scholars in the field this comprehensive and readable resource gives anthropology students a unique guide to the ideas arguments and history of the discipline The fully revised and expanded second edition reflects major changes in anthropology in the past decade The Governance of Nature and the Nature of Governance Krystyna Swiderska, 2008 Biodiversity and ecosystem services are being degraded faster than at any other time in human history Cultural Heritage Rights Anthony J. Connolly, 2017-05-15 This collection brings together selected articles on key areas in the field of cultural heritage rights discourse Contributed by an international group of scholars the papers address conceptual and political issues and explore themes in contemporary literature on cultural heritage such as repatriation looting and illicit trade the effects of armed conflict and the relationship between tourism economic development and cultural heritage The legal regulation of cultural heritage is also discussed with articles on regulatory challenges current practices around the world and issues and challenges in common Topics which are likely to become increasingly important in the future such as climate change cultural globalisation human genomic science and the shift to a post liberal post rights politics and law of cultural heritage are also explored This volume which presents the most up to date scholarship in an area of increasing interest and relevance is an indispensable reference resource for libraries lecturers and students The Andean World Linda J. Seligmann, Kathleen S. Fine-Dare, 2018-11-08 This comprehensive reference offers an authoritative overview of Andean lifeways It provides valuable historical context and demonstrates the relevance of learning about the Andes in light of contemporary events and debates The volume covers the ecology and pre Columbian history of the region and addresses key themes such as cosmology aesthetics gender and household relations modes of economic production exchange and consumption postcolonial legacies identities political organization and movements and transnational interconnections With over 40 essays by expert contributors that highlight the breadth and depth of Andean worlds this is an essential resource for students and scholars alike
