Nature Performed Environment Culture And Performance:

Nature Performed Bronislaw Szerszynski, Wallace Heim, Claire Waterton, 2004-04-02 This book brings together contributions from scholars across the humanities A wide ranging exploration of the interface between performance and nature Examines the use and usefulness of ideas of performance for understanding human nature relationships Draws on different disciplines and intellectual traditions and on different conceptions of performance and nature Contributions are rooted in real world contexts and problems explored through detailed ethnographic work Explores domains as diverse as allotments and bioinvasion fox hunting and green politics Makes a distinctive contribution to the cultural turn in environmental research

Nature Performed: Environment, Culture and Performance Gail Davies, 2006

Performing Nature Gabriella Giannachi, Nigel Stewart, 2005 The essays in this volume explore the borderland between ecology and the arts Nature is here read by a number of contributors as cultural by others as an independent domain or even as a powerful process of exchange between the human and the other than human The four parts of the volume reflect these different understandings of nature and performance Informed by psychoanalysis and cultural materialism contributors to the first part Spectacle Landscape and Subjectivity look at ways in which particular social and scientific experiments theatre and film productions and photography either reinforce or contest our ideas about nature and human human or human animal relations and identities The second part World Hermeneutic Language and Social Ecology investigates political protest social practice art acoustic ecology dance theatre family therapy and ritual in terms of social philosophy Contributors to the third part Environment Immersiveness and Interactivity explore architecture and sculpture site specific and mediated dance and paratheatre through radical theories of urban and virtual space and time or else phenomenological philosophy The final part Void Death Life and the Sublime indicates the possibilities in dance architecture and animal behaviour of a shift to an existential ontology in which nature has the capacity to perform itself

Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, 2011-04-19 Bringing together a truly global range of scholars this volume explores heritage memory and identity through a diverse set of subjects including heritage sites practices of memorialization museums sites of contestation and human rights

Media and the Restyling of Politics John Corner, Dick Pels, 2003-08-07 Within media research and cultural studies the mediation of politicians and the play off between versions of high and low politics are attracting increasing interest Media and the Restyling of Politics brings together the work of leading academics in media and cultural studies to pursue an agenda of research analysis and debate about the changing nature of political culture and its mediation The contributors question the ways in which emerging forms of political style relate not only to new conventions of celebrity and publicity but to ideas about representation citizenship and the democratic process Topics covered include celebrity politicians the marketing of politics identity and popular culture

Tourism, Land and Landscape in Ireland K.J. James, 2014-06-20 This study exploring a broad range of evocative Irish travel writing from 1850 to 1914 much of it highly entertaining and heavily laced with irony and humour draws out interplays between tourism travel literature and commodifications of culture It focuses on the importance of informal tourist economies illicit dimensions of tourism national landscapes legend and invented tradition in modern tourism Restyling Factual TV Annette Hill,2007-06-11 Addressing the wide range of programmes and formats from news to documentary to popular factual genres Annette Hill s new book examines the ways viewers navigate their way through a busy noisy and constantly changing factual television environment Restyling Factual TV addresses the wide range of programmes that fall within the category of factuality from politics to natural history to reality entertainment Based on research with audiences of factual TV primarily in Sweden and the UK but with reference to other countries such as the US this book tackles issues such as legitimacy ethics and value in contemporary news and current affairs documentary and reality programming Drawing on the ethics of truth telling and notions of quality this wide ranging authoritative book expands the debate on popular factual entertainment and will be a welcome addition to the current literature The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Theory, Modern Power, World Politics Nevzat Soguk,Scott G Nelson,2016-04-28 Deliberately eschewing disciplinary and temporal boundaries this volume makes a major contribution to the de traditionalization of political thinking within the discourses of international relations Collecting the works of twenty five theorists this Ashgate Research Companion engages some of the most pressing aspects of political thinking in world politics today The authors explore theoretical constitutions critiques and affirmations of uniquely modern forms of power past and present Among the themes and dynamics examined are textual appropriation and representation materiality and capital formation geopolitical dimensions of ecological crises connections between representations of violence and securitization subjectivity and genderization counter globalization politics constructivism biopolitics post colonial politics and theory as well as the political prospects of emerging civic and cosmopolitan orders in a time of national religious and secular polarization Radically different in their approaches the authors critically assess the discourses of IR as interpretive frames that are indebted to the historical formation of concepts and to particular negotiations of power that inform the main methodological practices usually granted primacy in the field Students as well as seasoned scholars seeking to challenge accepted theoretical frameworks will find in these chapters fresh insights into contemporary world political problems and new resources for their critical interrogation Affective Movements, Methods and Pedagogies Anne Harris,Stacy Holman Jones,2020-12-09 Affective Movements Methods and Pedagogies invites readers to think with affect about performance pedagogies and their inherent activist embodied and collective natures It works across multiple spheres to help readers understand how to deploy affective approaches rather than to simply think with affect theory about traditional methods The book is structured and curated across three main thematic sections affective movements methods and pedagogies each of which treats the core explorations of affect and performance through a different perspective It is concerned with the ways performance and theatrical methods work with and through a theoretics of affect The sixteen chapters include work that models theoretical practices in writing and demonstrates how theorising affect and its methods is itself a performative practice The contributors offer rich examples from diverse geopolitical as well as disciplinary contexts innovative methods and finally intersectional theoretics This collection will be of interest to higher education students exploring methodologies and academic researchers and teachers in the fields of performance studies communication critical studies sociology and the arts

The Environment on Stage Julie Hudson, 2019-08-08 The Environment on Stage Scenery or Shapeshifter investigates a pertinent voice of theatrical performance within the production and reception of ecotheatre Theatre ecologies unavoidably enmeshed in the environment describe the system of sometimes perverse feedback loops running through theatrical events productions performances and installations This volume applies an ecoaware spectatorial lens to explore live theatre as a living ecosystem in a literal sense The vibrant chemistry between production and reception and the spiralling ideas and emotions this generates in some conditions are unavoidably driven by flows of matter and energy thus by the natural environment even when human perspectives seem to dominate The Environment on Stage is an intentionally eclectic mix of observation close reading and qualitative research undertaken with the aim of exploring ecocritical ideas embedded in ecotheatre from a range of perspectives Individual chapters identify productions performances and installations in which the environment is palpably present on stage as it is in natural disasters such as floods storms famine conflict and climate change These themes and others are explored in the context of site specificity subversive spectators frugal modes of narrative the shifting stuff of theatre productions and imaginative substitutions Ecotheatre is nothing less than vibrant matter that lets the environment speak for itself
