Navajo Textiles provides a nuanced account the Navajo weavings in the Crane Collection at the Denver Museum of Nature Science one of the largest collections of Navajo textiles in the world Bringing together the work of anthropologists and indigenous artists the book explores the Navajo rug trade in the mid nineteenth century and changes in the Navajo textile market while highlighting the museum s important though still relatively unknown collection of Navajo textiles In this unique collaboration among anthropologists museums and Navajo weavers the authors provide a narrative of the acquisition of the Crane Collection and a history of Navajo weaving Personal reflections and insights from foremost Navajo weavers D Y Begay and Lynda Teller Pete are also featured and more than one hundred stunning full color photographs of the textiles in the collection are accompanied by technical information about the materials and techniques used in their creation An introduction by Ann Lane Hedlund documents the growing collaboration between Navajo weavers and museums in Navajo textile research The legacy of Navajo weaving is complex and intertwined with the history of the Din themselves Navajo Textiles makes the history and practice of Navajo weaving accessible to an audience of scholars and laypeople both within and outside the Din community Navajo Textiles Nancy J. Blomberg,1994-07-01 William Randolph Hearst s collection of Navajo textiles is one of the most complete gatherings of nineteenth century Navajo weaving in the world Comprising dozens of Classic Period serapes chief blankets Germantown eyedazzlers and turn of the century rugs the 185 piece collection was donated to the Los Angeles County Museum of Natural History in 1942 but for the next forty years was known only to a handful of scholars Hearst began acquiring textiles from the Fred Harvey Company after viewing an exhibit of Indian artifacts Over four decades he amassed a collection spanning more than a century of Navajo weaving and including nearly every major type produced from 1800 to 1920 Hearst s passion for American Indian artifacts was so strong that he had originally visualized his now famous castle in San Simeon as a showplace for his Navajo textile collection At a time when the Harvey Company was itself influencing the development of Indian handcrafts by opening up the tourist market Hearst contributed to this influence by expressing his own artistic preference for rare and unusual pieces This catalogue raisonné featuring nearly 200 illustrations provides the general public with the first look at this important collection Nancy Blomberg s narrative introduces the reader to the history of Navajo weaving and documents Hearst s role in its development The heart of the book provides a detailed analysis of each textile fibers yarn types dyes and designs Navajo Textiles thus constitutes an invaluable reference for scholars and collectors and will be enjoyed by anyone who appreciates these beautiful creations from the Navajo loom Navajo Weavers of the American Southwest Peter Hiller,Ann Lane Hedlund,Ramona Sakiestewa,2018-10-08 From the mid 17th century to the present day herding sheep carding wool spinning yarn dyeing with native plants and weaving on iconic upright looms have all been steps in the intricate process of Navajo blanket and rug making in the American Southwest Beginning in the late 1800s amateur and professional photographers documented the Din Navajo weavers and their artwork and the images they captured tell the stories of the artists their homes and the materials techniques and designs they used Many postcards illustrate popular interest surrounding weaving as an indigenous art form even as economic social and political realities influenced the craft These historical pictures illuminate perceived traditional weaving practices The authors accompanying narratives deepen the perspective and relate imagery to modern life
