Marine Corps, 1970 The Royal Navy and Nuclear Weapons Richard Moore, 2018-12-07 This work examines British thinking about nuclear weapons in the period up to about 1970 looking at the subject through the eyes of the Royal Navy in the belief that this can offer new insights in this field The author argues that the Navy was always sceptical about nuclear weapons both on practical grounds and because of wartime and pre war experiences He suggests that this scepticism can teach us a good deal about military technological innovation in general The Soviet Navy, 1941-1978 Myron J. Smith, 1980 River Warfare in Vietnam Robin L. Rielly, 2024-02-08 America's entrance into the wars in Vietnam came as a result of several factors Among them was the necessity of bolstering French influence in the area in the face of mounting communist expansion This expansion was intensified by the outbreak of the Korean War making it necessary for the United States to revamp its Southeast Asian policy During the French era control of Vietnam's rivers streams and canals became necessary This led various factions to develop specialized military units heavily dependent on new types of river craft that could traverse the myriad waterways in Vietnam The focal point of this study is a new assessment of the conduct of river warfare Drawing on little known French Vietnamese and American sources and materials it sheds light on an important aspect of the Vietnam War Chapters also detail numerous aspects of river warfare not generally covered in other books on the subject CVAN-70 Aircraft Carrier, Joint Hearings with the House Armed Services Committee Before the Joint Senate-House Armed Services Subcommittee ... 91-2, April 7, 8, 10, 13, 15, and 16, 1970 United States.
