Housing and Planning References ,1971 Libraries and Archives Susan G. Swartzburg,Holly Bussey,1998-07-23 New in paperback This book fills a need for a selective bibliography focusing on design that will not only house collections appropriately but also be comfortable for readers and staff The books and articles cited here provoke thought about new technologies and materials and will enable information professionals to feel comfortable when they communicate with the various other professionals involved in the actual work of construction or renovation Contents Part One The Design of Libraries and the Preservation of Books A Summary History Part Two A Guide to the Literature with chapters on planning design the interior the environment safety and preservation Appendixes include case studies bibliographies of bibliographies and of journals and a directory of organizations With index Cloth version previously published in 1991 Tokyo, 1955-1970 Doryun Chong,Michio Hayashi,Mika Yoshitake,Miryam Sas,2012 Catalog of an exhibition held at the Museum of Modern Art New York Nov 18 2012 Feb 25 2013 Archigram Simon Sadler,2005-06-24 The first book length critical and historical account of an ultramodern architectural movement of the 1960s that advocated living equipment instead of buildings In the 1960s the architects of Britain s Archigram group and Archigram magazine turned away from conventional architecture to propose cities that move and houses worn like suits of clothes In drawings inspired by pop art and psychedelia architecture floated away tethered by wires gantries tubes and trucks In Archigram Architecture without Architecture Simon Sadler argues that Archigram s sense of fun takes its place beside the other cultural agitants of the 1960s originating attitudes and techniques that became standard for architects rethinking social space and building technology The Archigram style was assembled from the Apollo missions constructivism biology manufacturing electronics and popular culture inspiring an architectural movement High Tech and influencing the postmodern and deconstructivist trends of the late twentieth century Although most Archigram projects were at the limits of possibility and remained unbuilt the six architects at the center of the movement Warren Chalk Peter Cook Dennis Crompton David Greene Ron Herron and Michael Webb became a focal point for the architectural avant garde because they redefined the purpose of architecture Countering the habitual building practice of setting walls and spaces in place Archigram architects wanted to provide the equipment for amplified living and they welcomed any cultural rearrangements that would ensue Archigram Architecture without Architecture the first full length critical and historical account of the Archigram phenomenon traces Archigram from its rediscovery of early modernist verve through its courting of students to its ascent to international notoriety for advocating the disappearance of architecture Raimund Abraham [UN]BUILT Brigitte Groihofer,2016-12-05 No detailed description available for Raimund Abraham UN BUILT The Efficacy of Architecture Tahl Kaminer,2016-12-08 A significant ideological transition has taken place in the discipline of architecture in the last few years Originating in a displeasure with the starchitecture system and the focus on aesthetic innovation a growing number of architects emboldened by the 2007 8

economic crisis have staged a rebellion against the dominant mode of architectural production Against a disinterested position emulating high art they have advocated political engagement citizen participation and the right to the city Against the fascination with the rarefied architectural object they have promoted an interest in everyday life play self build and personalization At the centre of this rebellion is the call for architecture to re assume its social and political role in society The Efficacy of Architecture supports the return of architecture to politics by interrogating theories practices and instances that claim or evidence architectural agency It studies the political theories animating the architects revisits the emergence of reformist architecture in the late nineteenth century and brings to the fore the relation of spatial organization to social forms In the process a clearer picture emerges of the agency of architecture of the threats to as well as potentials for meaningful societal transformation through architectural design

Contemporary Japanese Architecture James Steele, 2017-03-16 Contemporary Japanese Architecture presents a clear and comprehensive overview of the historical and cultural framework that informs the work of all Japanese architects as an introduction to an in depth investigation of the challenges now occupying the contemporary designers who will be the leaders of the next generation It separates out the young generation of Japanese architects from the crowded distinguished multi generational field they seek to join and investigates the topics that absorb them and the critical issues they face within the new economic reality of Japan and a shifting global order Salient points in the text are illustrated by beautiful descriptive images provided by the architects and from the extensive collection of the author By combining illustrations with timelines and graphics to explain complex ideas the book is accessible to any student seeking to understand contemporary Japanese architecture

Constructing a Place of Critical Architecture in China Guanghui Ding, 2016-03-09 For the past 30 years The Chinese journal Time Architecture Shidai Jianzhu has focused on publishing innovative and exploratory work by emerging architects based in private design firms who were committed to new material theoretical and pedagogical practices In doing so this book argues that the journal has engaged in the presentation and production of a particular form of critical architecture described as an intermediate criticality as a response to the particular constraints of the Chinese cultural and political context The journal's publications displayed a dual critique a resistant attitude to the dominant modes of commercial building practice characterised by rapid and large scale urban expansion and an alternative publishing practice focusing on emerging independent architectural practitioners through the active integration of theoretical debates architectural projects and criticisms This dual critique is illustrated through a careful review and analysis of the history and programme of the journal By showing how the work of emerging architects including Yung Ho Chang Wang Shu Liu Jiakun and Urbanus are situated within the context of the journal's special thematic editions on experimental architecture exhibition group design new urban space and professional system the book assesses the contribution the journal has made to the emergence of a critical architecture in China in the context of how it was articulated debated presented and perhaps even produced within the pages of the publication itself The protagonists of critical architecture have endeavoured to construct an alternative mode of form and space with strong aesthetic and socio political implications to the predominant production of architecture under the current Chinese socialist market economy To rebel against certain forms of domination and suppression by capital and power is by no means to completely reject them rather it is to use them

Paradise Valley, Nevada Howard W. Marshall,1995

Stonemasons from the Alpine valleys of northwestern Italy shaped the architectural face of Paradise Valley in northern Nevada in the 1860s and 1870s Drawing on their own distinctive skills they constructed the constellation of granite and sandstone buildings that are the region's most visible landmarks Marshall's analysis of this architectural legacy illustrated with 229 photographs and 70 line drawings is not only a valuable resource for scholars in vernacular architecture folklore and cultural geography but also a verbal and visual treat for all who love the American West

Utopias and Architecture Nathaniel Coleman,2005 A detailed and innovative reassessment of the work of three architects Le Corbusier Louis I Kahn and Aldo van Eyck who sought to represent a utopian content in their work IAUS, the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies Suzanne Frank, Suzanne Shulof Frank, 2010 The book is a combined memoir and impressionistic history of the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies At first affiliated with New York's Museum of Modern Art and Cornell University the Institute housed architects artists and historians who worked on creative design and intellectual projects and would become world renown Its creation and direction was in the hands of its able leader Peter Eisenman Besides a documentary study of the work that went on there among an international clearing house the book is laced with impressions of the author's experience there It has been in the works for over 12 years and was originally financed by the Graham Foundation for the Study of the Fine Arts and has subsequently been aided by Dr Jenny Kaufmann The photographs of the Institute at the height of its activity are included and so does an original ground plan of its West 40th Street office done by Scott Brandi who also designed the book It ends with 27 interviews of prominent members of the Institute who comment on it and their experiences The book should appeal to architecture students and those interested in architecture and urbanism of the seventies when the government in the United States was more reasonable in economic and political equity The Poorhouse Devereux Bowly, Jr., 2012-07-05 Chicago seems an ideal environment for public housing because of the city's relatively young age among major cities and well deserved reputation for technology innovation and architecture Yet The Poorhouse Subsidized Housing in Chicago shows that the city's experience on the whole has been a negative one raising serious questions about the nature of subsidized housing and whether we should have it and if so in what form Bowly a native of the city provides a detailed examination of subsidized housing in the nation's third largest city Now in its second edition The Poorhouse looks at the history of public housing and subsidized housing in Chicago from 1895 to the present day Five new chapters that cover the decline and federal takeover of the Chicago Housing Authority and its more recent transformation which involved the demolition of the CHA family high rise buildings and in some cases their replacement with low rise mixed income housing on the same sites Fifty new photos supplement this edition Certificate of Excellence from the Illinois State Historical Society 2013 Dialectical Passions Gail Day, 2010-12-05 Exploring core debates in discourses on art from the New Left to theories of critical postmodernism and beyond Day counters the belief that recent tendencies in art fail to be adequately critical and challenges the political inertia that results from these conclusions Architectures of Sound Michael Fowler, 2017-10-23 Architects are used to designing visually In order to expand their basic design tools this book explores the interactions between sound space hearing and architecture To this end the author uses contemporary and historic buildings and projects but also fictional philosophical and theoretical approaches the idea is not only to define sound as a source but also as an instrument of architectural space By introducing a metatheory of critical hearing designers are able to acoustically test their projects and contribute to their design with auditive input already at the design stage Oswald Mathias Ungers and Rem Koolhaas Lara Schrijver, 2021-10-07 Lara Schrijver examines the work of Oswald Mathias Ungers and Rem Koolhaas as intellectual legacy of the 1970s for architecture today Particularly in the United States this period focused on the autonomy of architecture as a correction to the social orientation of the 1960s Yet these two architects pioneered a more situated autonomy initiating an intellectual discourse on architecture that was inherently design based Their work provides room for interpreting social conditions and disciplinary formal developments thus constructing a plausible relationship between the two that allows the life within to flourish and adapt In doing so they provide a foundation for recalibrating architecture today

Makers of 20th-Century Modern Architecture Donald Leslie Johnson, Donald Langmead, 2013-05-13 Makers of 20th Century Modern Architecture is an indispensable reference book for the scholar student architect or layman interested in the architects who initiated developed or advanced modern architecture The book is amply illustrated and features the most prominent and influential people in 20th century modernist architecture including Wright Eisenman Mies van der Rohe and Kahn It describes the milieu in which they practiced their art and directs readers to information on the life and creative activities of these founding architects and their disciples The profiles of individual architects include critical analysis of their major buildings and projects Each profile is completed by a comprehensive bibliography
