

A nighttime photograph of a city skyline, likely New York City, featuring several illuminated skyscrapers and a body of water in the foreground. The lights from the buildings reflect on the water, and the overall scene is dark with the city lights providing the primary illumination.

If I don't drive round the park,
I'm pretty sure to make my mark.
If I'm in bed each night by ten,
I may get back my looks again,
If I abstain from fun and such,
I'll probably amount to much,
But I shall stay the way I am,
Because I do not give a damn.

S. Merwin Michael Wutz, Hal Crimmel, 2015-05-21 Conversations with W S Merwin is the first collection of interviews with former United States Poet Laureate W S Merwin b 1927 Spanning almost six decades of conversations the collection touches on such topics as Merwin s early influences Robert Graves and Ezra Pound his location within the twin poles of Walt Whitman and Henry David Thoreau and his extraordinary work as a translator as well as his decades long interest in environmental conservation Anticipating the current sustainability movement and the debates surrounding major and minor literatures Merwin was and still is a visionary He is among the most distinguished poets translators and thinkers in the United States A major link between the period of literary modernism and its contemporary extensions Merwin has been a force in American letters for many decades and his translations from the Spanish French Italian Japanese and other languages have earned him unanimous praise and admiration Merwin also wrote at the forefront of literature s environmental advocacy and early on articulated concerns about ecology and sustainability Conversations with W S Merwin offers insight into the various dimensions of Merwin s thought by treating his interviews as a self standing category in his oeuvre More than casual narratives that interpret the occasional poem or relay an occasional experience they afford literary and cultural historians a view into the larger throughlines of Merwin s thinking Obsessive Images Joseph Warren

Beach, 1960 Obsessive Images was first published in 1960 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions As Mark Schorer comments this is the last unfinished work of a distinguished well loved critic poet and professor After the death of Joseph Warren Beach his colleague and friend William Van O Connor professor of English at the University of Minnesota prepared the unfinished manuscript of this work for publication and wrote the foreword The work is primarily a study of certain words phrases and images that turn up with unusual frequency in modern American poetry especially that of the decades of the 1930 s and 1940 s and which are used in unusual senses to carry special symbolisms or to imply peculiar philosophical attitudes Since the study is concerned with such recurring images and themes many poets of distinction in whose work they are not to be found are left out but Professor Beach also discusses the significance of the absence of these poets Students and critics will gain insight through this work into the characteristic attitudes of a generation of poets The book is moreover a delight to read reflecting as it does Mr Beach s own love for the study of poetry As Professor O Connor points out the tone is much more personal than that of Mr Beach s other books
