Woodpecker Point & Other Stories Carmel Bird, 1988 With this collection of twenty four stories New Directions introduces to American readers a wonderful new writing voice from Australia Carmel Bird deftly walks the thin line between the ordinary world and the world of the imagination and the fantastic As she has remarked When I read fiction I want the words to take my spirits into the places beneath the surface of the everyday world I want the freshness of dreams to again be revealed to me By turns Carmel Bird's tales are funny sad frightening gentle mysterious matter of fact Her prose is deceptive lucid and seemingly artless yet surprising a left hook from a white kid glove Woodpecker Point the center piece of this collection perhaps best evinces Carmel Bird's many special qualities in concert above all her unique feeling for the materiality and color of things and for the mystery of the everyday The assembled stories have been chosen from her first book Birth Death and Marriages privately printed in Australia in 1983 on through her most recent work which shows in the concluding pieces Goczka and Every Home Should Have a Cedar Chest a poetic dimension intimated in her earlier writing and now brought to full bloom Something Childish and Other Stories Katherine Mansfield, 2021-11-09 In Something Childish and Other Stories Katherine Mansfield showcases her masterful command of modernist narrative and her keen insight into human emotions and relationships The collection features a series of poignant short stories that delve into the complexities of childhood experiences the subtleties of social interactions and the fragile nature of memory Mansfield's lyrical prose imbues each story with a vivid sense of place and moment reflecting her ability to capture fleeting emotions with precision and depth The stories are set against the backdrop of early 20th century society often illuminating the psychological underpinnings that drive her characters actions Katherine Mansfield a prominent figure in the modernist literary movement was deeply influenced by her own multifaceted background and experiences Born in New Zealand and later moving to Europe her literary journey was marked by a desire to explore the limits of individuality and the intricacies of social dynamics Mansfield s own childhood and her relationships both turbulent and tender greatly informed her narrative techniques and thematic preoccupations allowing her to create authentic resonant stories that push the boundaries of traditional storytelling Readers seeking a profound exploration of human experiences will find Something Childish and Other Stories both thought provoking and evocative Mansfield s intricate character studies and her ability to articulate the tension between innocence and experience make this collection an essential read for anyone interested in modernist literature The stories invite introspection and resonate with anyone who has grappled with the complexities of growing up and the bittersweet essence of nostalgia The City Record ,1893 The American Humanities Index Stephen H.
