Ingardeniana III Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 In the footsteps of Ingardeniana II this volume marks the 20th anniversary of Roman Ingarden's death partly focusing upon his thought partly bringing his aesthetics into the present-day framework of research It might have appeared puzzling to the followers of our Analecta Husserliana why within the original horizon encircled by the research work of our International Society of Phenomenology and Literatur whose research work is devised in a diametrically opposed direction to that of Roman Ingarden there is steadfastly running through our discussions a line of Ingardenian reflection The reason as I have pointed out in the introduction to Ingardeniana II expertly edited by Hans Rudnik is clear Ingarden's analysis of the intentional structures of works of art offers in its distinct and clear-cut forms an objective correlate as well as a point of reference to the vast conundrum of issues concerning the creative endeavor of the writer-poet-artist in their struggle to endow life with its specifically human significance a conundrum that in our research we are trying to disentangle elucidating its mysterious ramifications their sources and dynamic virtualities As a matter of fact Ingarden's thought newly interpreted and originally expanded occupies a legitimate place in the present collection We find here in the first place an original expansion of Ingarden's aesthetic theory in the monograph of Iadwiga Smith followed by the essays of Wadaw Osadnik Yushiro Takei and Charles Rzepka
