Parvanas Journey:

Parvana's Journey Deborah Ellis, 2004-03-04 An Afghan girl disguises herself as a boy as she tries to find the rest of her family after her father dies Parvana's Journey Deborah Ellis, 2011 After her father's death Parvana now thirteen years old continues to search for her mother in war torn Afghanistan joining with two younger children who are also struggling to My Name Is Parvana Deborah Ellis, 2012-08-08 The fourth book in the internationally bestselling series that includes The Breadwinner Parvana's Journey and Mud City In this stunning seguel Parvana now fifteen is found in a bombed out school and held as a suspected terrorist by American troops in Afghanistan On a military base in Afghanistan after the fall of the Taliban in 2001 American authorities have just imprisoned a teenaged girl found in a bombed out school The army major thinks she may be a terrorist working with the Taliban The girl does not respond to questions in any language and remains silent even when she is threatened harassed and mistreated over several days The only clue to her identity is a tattered shoulder bag containing papers that refer to people named Shauzia Nooria Leila Asif Hassan and Parvana In this long awaited sequel Parvana is now fifteen years old As she waits for foreign military forces to determine her fate she remembers the past four years of her life Reunited with her mother and sisters she has been living in a village where her mother has finally managed to open a school for girls But even though the Taliban has been driven from the government the country is still at war and many continue to view the education and freedom of girls and women with suspicion and fear As her family settles into the routine of running the school Parvana a bit to her surprise finds herself restless and bored She even thinks of running away But when local men threaten the school and her family she must draw on every ounce of bravery and resilience she possesses to survive the disaster that kills her mother destroys the school and puts her own life in jeopardy A riveting page turner Deborah Ellis s final novel in the series is at once harrowing inspiring and thought provoking And yes in the end Parvana is reunited with her childhood friend Shauzia The paperback edition includes a new cover and map and an author's note to provide background and context Royalties from the sale of this book will go to Right to Learn Afghanistan Correlates to the Common Core State Standards in English Language Arts CCSS ELA LITERACY RL 5 3 Compare and contrast two or more characters settings or events in a story or drama drawing on specific details in the text e g how characters interact CCSS ELA LITERACY RL 6 3 Describe how a particular story s or drama s plot unfolds in a series of episodes as well as how the characters respond or change as the plot moves toward a resolution CCSS ELA LITERACY RL 6 9 Compare and contrast texts in different forms or genres e g stories and poems historical novels and fantasy stories in terms Children's Fiction about 9/11 Jo Lampert, 2009-09-10 In this pioneering of their approaches to similar themes and topics and timely book Lampert examines the ways in which cultural identities are constructed within young adult and children s literature about the attacks of September 11 2001 Looking at examples including picture books young adult novels and a selection of DC Comics Lampert finds the comingling of xenophobia and tolerance the binaried competition between good and evil and global harmony and national insularity and the glorification of both the commonplace hero and the super human Specifically Lampert identifies three significant identity categories encoded in 9 11 books for children ethnic identities national identities and heroic identities arguing that their formation is contingent upon post 9 11 politics These shifting identities offer implicit and explicit accounts of what constitute good citizenship loyalty to nation and community and desirable attributes in a Western post 9 11 context Lampert makes an original contribution to the field of children's literature by providing a focused and sustained analysis of how texts for children about 9 11 contribute to formations of identity in these complex times of cultural unease and global unrest Thinking and Learning through Children's Literature Miriam G. Martinez, Junko Yokota, Charles Temple, 2017-04-18 Much of teachers attention these days is focused on having students read closely to ferret out the author's intended meaning and the devices used to convey that meaning But we cannot forget to guide students to have moving engagements with literature because they need to make strong personal connections to books of merit if they are to become the next generation of readers literate people with awareness of and concern for the diversity of human beings around them and in different times and places Fortunately guiding both students personal engagement with literature and their close reading to appreciate the author's message and craft are not incompatible goals This book enthusiastically and intelligently addresses both imperatives first surveying what is gained when students are immersed in literature then celebrating and explicating the main features of literature students need to understand to broaden their tastes and deepen their engagement at the same time they meet external standards then presenting a host of active methods for exploring all major genres of children's books and finally presenting suggestions for interdisciplinary teaching units grounded in literature Created by noted leaders in the fields of children's literature and literacy the book is enlivened by recurring features such as suggested reading lists issues for discussion links to technology and annotations of exemplary books The Breadwinner Series Bundle Deborah Ellis, 2022-10-25 The Breadwinner The first book in Deborah Ellis s riveting Breadwinner series is an award winning novel about loyalty survival families and friendship under extraordinary circumstances during the Taliban's rule in Afghanistan in the late 1990s Parvana's Journey In 2001 a war is raging in Afghanistan as a coalition of Western forces tries to oust the Taliban by bombing the country Parvana's father has died and her mother sister and brother have gone to a faraway wedding not knowing what has happened to the father Parvana doesn t know where they are She just knows she has to find them Mud City Parvana s best friend Shauzia has escaped the misery of her life in Kabul only to end up in a refugee camp in Pakistan But she still dreams of seeing the ocean and eventually making a new life in France This is the dream that has sustained her through the terrible years in Kabul It is the dream for which she has forsaken family and friends My Name Is Parvana Parvana now fifteen is found in a bombed out school and held as a suspected terrorist by American troops in Afghanistan after the fall of the Taliban in 2001 One More Mountain It's 2021 and the Taliban have retaken power in Afghanistan Parvana and Shauzia the brave protagonists of The
