From Split to Screened Selves Rachel Gabara, 2006 This book is a study of recent autobiographies by French and Francophone African writers and filmmakers all of whom reject simple first person narration and experiment with narrative voice and form to represent fragmented subjectivity Gabara investigates autobiography across media from print to photography and film as well as across the colonial encounter from France to Francophone North and West Africa Reading works by Roland Barthes Nathalie Sarraute Assia Djebar Cyril Collard David Achkar and Raoul Peck she argues that autobiographical film and African autobiography subgenres that have until now been overlooked or dismissed by critics offer new and important possibilities for self representation in the twenty first century Not only do these new forms of autobiography deserve our attention but any study of contemporary autobiography is incomplete without them

Photobiography Akane Kawakami, 2017-12-02 Why do photographs interest writers especially autobiographical writers Ever since their invention photographs have featured as metaphors as absent inspirations and latterly as actual objects in written texts In autobiographical texts their presence has raised particularly acute questions about the rivalry between these two media their relationship to the real and the nature of the constructed self In this timely study based on the most recent developments in the fields of photography theory self writing and photo biography Akane Kawakami offers an intriguing narrative which runs from texts containing metaphorical photographs through ekphrastic works to phototexts Her choice of Marcel Proust Herve Guibert Annie Ernaux and Gerard Mace provides unusual readings of works seldom considered in this context and teases out surprising similarities between unexpected conjunctions Akane Kawakami is a Senior Lecturer in French and francophone literature at Birkbeck University of London Europa! Europa? Sascha Bru, Jan Baetens, Benedikt Hjärtarson, Peter Nicholls, Tania Ørum, Hubert Berg, 2009-10-29 The first volume of the new series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies focuses on the relation between the avant garde modernism and Europe It combines interdisciplinary and intermedial research on experimental aesthetics and poetics The essays written by experts from more than fifteen countries seek to bring out the complexity of the European avant garde and modernism by relating it to Europe's intricate history multiculturalism and multilingualism They aim to inquire into the divergent cultural views on Europe taking shape in avant garde and modernist practices and to chart a composite image of the other Europe's that have emerged from the contemporary avant garde and experimental modernism How did the avant garde and modernism in and outside Europe give shape to local national and pan European forms of identity and community To what extent does the transnational exchange and cross fertilisation of aesthetic tendencies illustrate the well rehearsed claim that the avant gardes form a typically European phenomenon Dealing with canonised as well as lesser known exponents of modernism and the avant garde throughout Europe this book will appeal to all those interested in European cultural literary and art history Paris Médical, 1912 Each half year consists of two volumes Partie médicale and Partie paramédicale The Cromer Collection of

Critical Sociolinguistic Research Methods Monica Heller, Sari Pietikäinen, Joan Pujolar, 2024-05-27 Critical Sociolinguistic Research Methods is a guide to conducting concrete ethnographic and discourse analytic research projects written by top scholars for students and researchers in social science fields Adopting a critical perspective focusing on the role of language in the construction of social difference and social inequality the authors walk the reader through five key moments in the life of a research project composing research questions designing the project doing fieldwork performing data analysis and writing academic texts or otherwise engaging in conversation with different types of social actors about the project These moments are illustrated by colour coded examples from the authors experiences that help researchers and students follow the sequential stages of a project Now in its second edition this popular and original text has been revised and updated to reflect the latest developments in this field including expanded sections on the centrality of the ethnographic gaze for the understanding of social processes and on experiences of diversification in the communication of research results Through the adoption of multimodal genres authors share recent experiences of research presentations addressed to non academic audiences such as installations and photography and interactive maps Clear and highly applicable with a detailed workbook full of practical tips and examples this book is a great resource for graduate level qualitative methods courses in linguistics and anthropology as well as methods courses in the humanities and social sciences that focus on the role of language in research It is a timely text for investigating language issues that matter and have consequences for people s lives

Time, Narrative & the Fixed Image / Temps, narration & image fixe, 2021-10-18 This volume focuses on the relationship between time narrative and the fixed image As such it highlights renewed interest in the temporality of the fixed image probably one of the most important trends in the formal and semiotic analysis of visual media in the past decade The various essays discuss paintings the illustrated covers of books comics or graphic novels photo stories postcards television and video art as well as aesthetic practices that defy categorization such as Chris Marker s masterpiece La Jet e The range of works and practices examined is reflected in the different theoretical approaches and methods used with an emphasis on semiology and narratology and to a lesser extent aesthetics and psychoanalysis The interest of this book however does not stem exclusively from the range and scope of the artefacts examined or the methodological issues that are addressed its fundamental importance rests in the contributors readiness to question the differentiation between fixed and moving images which all too often provides a convenient if not altogether convincing starting point for image analysis The originality and value of the contribution that Time Narrative and the Fixed Image Temps Narration et image fixe makes to the body of theoretical writing on visual media lies in this challenging and comprehensive approach

Now Vincent Lavoie,2003-01-01 While the crisis that took place in photojournalism during the 1960 s brought about a significant shift in the practices discourses and institutional structures of press photography it also affected the practices of artists specifically with regard to work devoted to revitalizing the depiction of events The art world attempted to revitalize the historical genre by undertaking its critical rereading in the spirit of restoring a tradition diminished by the mass media The problem may be expressed in these terms How can history be depicted bearing in mind that the media mainly photojournalism and the electronic press have claimed a monopoly of the genre unto themselves At issue is the sizeable problem of mass media omnipotence as an obligatory referential universe for historiographical artistic practices Today it seems impossible to depict the event in any way other than by accentuating or eschewing the formal attributes rhetorical artifices and ideological precepts of the mass media These approaches to addressing historical moments have been examined in this article both because they epitomize contemporary historical writing and for the most part they constitute critical responses to stereotyped depictions of events Above all they represent a paradigm shift the mass media s prerogatives for depicting historical moments has shifted towards the field of art Contemporary depictions of catastrophe crimes sensationalist news items terrorist attacks humanitarian disasters genocides common themes in many of the artistic projects represented in the 8th edition of the Mois de la Photo a Montreal have been especially striking in this respect For of all contemporary events catastrophes are the most likely to be spontaneously propelled to the top of the news roster and the most susceptible to the various inflections of contemporary art photography Actes du IIIième Symposium

The Concept of Non-Photography Francois Laruelle, 2019-01-15 A rigorous new thinking of the photograph in its relation to science philosophy and art so as to discover an essence of photography that precedes its historical technological and aesthetic conditions If philosophy has always understood its relation to the world according to the model of the instantaneous flash of a photographic shot how can there be a philosophy of photography that is not viciously self reflexive Challenging the assumptions made by any theory of photography that leaves its own onto photo logical conditions uninterrogated Laruelle thinks the photograph non philosophically so as to discover an essence of photography that precedes its historical technological and aesthetic conditions The Concept of Non Photography develops a rigorous new thinking of the photograph in its relation to science philosophy and art and introduces the reader to all of the key concepts of Laruelle s non philosophy
