Imagining the Past in France Elizabeth Morrison, Anne D. Hedeman, J. Paul Getty Museum, 2010-12-07 This exquisite volume beautifully reproduces and insightfully examines the most important illuminations found in French history Secular Choral Music in Print, 1996 Updates the Music in Print Master Indexes of 1995 and the Secular Choral Music in Print Master index of 1993 Page vi Imperial Tapestries Julia L. Farmer, 2016-07-26 Imperial Tapestries represents a transnational approach to questions of monarchical power and literary form in early modern Europe In line with Barbara Fuchs s recent call for considerations of center versus periphery in Old World contexts it explores the ways in which some of the most significant authors of the early modern era guestioned the structures of Spanish Habsburg authority through imperial texts texts that call attention to their organizational process in order to mirror authors perceptions of the structures of Habsburg power With a contextual basis in Fuchs notion of imperium studies ideas of self fashioning and theories of early modern reading the study explores the ways in which complex narrative forms in the early modern period reflected the concerns with the structures of Habsburg imperial power subtly portrayed within the narratives themselves A close reading of the various strands that form the tapestries of the texts at issue reveals a deep undercurrent of misgivings toward various manifestations of Spanish Habsburg power on the part of authors who had experienced its effects first hand Whether the complex narrative devices in question cast the Habsburg monarchs as monster misogynist sorceress aloof shepherdess or mad would be knight errant they all have one thing in common the spatialized forms that they create correspond directly with the ways in which the authors in question perceive the more disillusioning aspects of Habsburg hegemony Authors studied in the volume include Ludovico Ariosto Garcilaso de la Vega Jorge de Montemayor Miguel de Landscape with Moving Figures Laura Jacobs, 2006-08-22 In Landscape with Moving Cervantes and Mar a de Zavas Figures Ms Jacobs reflects on the art form during the ten year period from 1994 2004 when dancers choreographers and dance lovers were challenged by AIDS and the loss of the last of the founding giants of American dance Grounded by her vast knowledge of the form and guided by her own sensitive gifts of perception Ms Jacobs ponders the very purpose of the art as she encounters it in landmark performances of the decade She describes her multi layered experiences watching performances by Bill T Jones New York City Ballet Baryshnikov s White Oak Project the Royal Ballet Merce Cunningham Paul Taylor Twyla Tharp and others A Blessing of Unicorns Barbara Drake Boehm, 2020-08-01 This Bulletin examines the fascinating stories behind the only known sets of unicorn tapestries in the world one at The Met Cloisters and another at the Mus e de Cluny Paris The thirteen tapestries that compose the two sets six at the Cluny and seven at The Met remain shrouded in mystery with their origins and original owners still unknown Considering the iconography of these two collections together and drawing from primary sources this Bulletin aims to reach a better understanding of these masterworks and their mythical subject that has captured the public imagination for centuries The Fight Against

Doubt Inmaculada de Melo-Martín, Kristen Intemann, 2018-07-02 The lack of public support for climate change policies and refusals to vaccinate children are just two alarming illustrations of the impacts of dissent about scientific claims Dissent can lead to confusion false beliefs and widespread public doubt about highly justified scientific evidence Even more dangerously it has begun to corrode the very authority of scientific consensus and knowledge Deployed aggressively and to political ends some dissent can intimidate scientists stymic research and lead both the public and policymakers to oppose important public policies firmly rooted in science To criticize dissent is however a fraught exercise Skepticism and fearless debate are key to the scientific process making it both vital and incredibly difficult to characterize and identify dissent that is problematic in its approach and consequences Indeed as de Melo Mart n and Internan show the criteria commonly proposed as means of identifying inappropriate dissent are flawed and the strategies generally recommended to tackle such dissent are not only ineffective but could even make the situation worse The Fight Against Doubt proposes that progress on this front can best be achieved by enhancing the trustworthiness of the scientific community and by being more realistic about the limits of science when it comes to policymaking It shows that a richer understanding of the context in which science operates is needed to disarm problematic dissent and those who deploy it This the authors argue is the best way forward rather than diagnosing the many instances of wrong headed dissent The Penguin Guide to Compact Discs and Cassettes Yearbook, 1991/2 Edward Greenfield, Robert Layton, 1991 This indispensable yearbook fully updates The Penguin Guide to Compact Discs the most complete survey available of the recorded repertoire It reviews all the new noteworthy classical releases since July 1990
