Fletcher* Frank Thomas Herbert Fletcher, 1954 The Immediacy of Mystical Experience in the European Tradition Miklós Vassányi, Enikő Sepsi, Anikó Daróczi, 2017-01-19 This volume examines mystical experiences as portrayed in various ways by authors such as philosophers mystics psychoanalysts writers and peasant women These mystical authors have throughout the ages attempted to convey the unsayable through writings paintings or oral stories The immediate experience of God is the primary source and ultimate goal of these mystical expressions This experience is essentially ineffable yet all mystical authors either consciously or unconsciously feel an urge to convey what they have undergone in the moments of rapture At the same time they are in the role of intermediaries the goal of their self expression either written painted or oral is to make others somehow understand or feel what they have experienced and to lead others toward the spiritual goal of human life This volume studies the mystical experiences and the way they have been described or portrayed in West European culture from Antiquity to the present from an interdisciplinary perspective and approaches the concept of immediate experience in various ways Sarva-Darsána-Sangraha Plott, Mays, 2024-09-09 Studies in Pascal's Ethics A.W. Baird, 2012-12-06 The aim of these studies is to show how Pascal's moral outlook reflects the influence on his thought of the basic doctrine of the three orders This does not mean that an attempt is made to classify all Pascal's moral judgements in order to relate them to that doctrine The intention is rather to distinguish the different moral stances Pascal takes and to ascertain how far the apparent inconsistencies between them can be explained if not reconciled in the light of the orders It is made clear at the outset how the three orders form the framework of Pascal's scale of values with the different orders representing at once categories of moral value and orders of being The peculiar nature of this scale in which moral and ontological values coalesce calls for a double criterion or variable to allow for differences both of degree and of kind Since the criterion of rank in the scale is reality the assigning of value becomes largely a question of perspective a quality from a given order taken by itself is real and has moral value but when compared with a quality from a higher order it loses both its reality and its worth

Boitano, 2002 The Unity of Mystical Traditions Randall Studstill, 2018-08-14 This book argues that mystical doctrines and practices initiate parallel transformative processes in the consciousness of mystics This thesis is supported through a comparative analysis of Tibetan Buddhist Dzogchen rdzogs chen and the medieval German mysticism of Eckhart Suso and Tauler These traditions are interpreted using a system cybernetic model of consciousness This model provides a theoretical framework for assessing the cognitive effects of mystical doctrines and practices and showing how different doctrines and practices may nevertheless initiate common transformative processes This systems approach contributes to current philosophical discourse on mysticism by 1 making possible a precise analysis of the cognitive effects of mystical doctrines and practices and 2 reconciling mystical heterogeneity with the essential unity of mystical traditions
