Pascal John Richard Cole,1995 A Companion to Early Modern Philosophy Steven Nadler,2008-04-15 This is a reference for early modern philosophy Representing the most contemporary research in the history of early modern philosophy it is organized by thinker rather than theme and covers every important philosopher and philosophical movement of 16th and 18th century Europe Jonathan Edwards's Philosophy of Nature Avihu Zakai,2010-07-22 The European Philosophers from Descartes to Nietzsche Monroe Beardsley,2002-11-12 Between the earliest and the latest of the works included here we have two hundred and fifty years of vigorous and adventurous philosophizing Monroe Beardsley writes in his Introduction to this collection If the modern period can be only vaguely or arbitrarily bounded it can at least be studied and we can ask whether any dominant themes overall patterns of movement or notable achievements can be found within it This question is one that is best asked by the reader after he has read or read around in these works This Modern Library Paperback Classic also includes a newly updated Bibliography Lev Shestov Matthew Beaumont,2020-09-17 The Jewish philosopher Lev Shestov 1866 1938 is perhaps the great forgotten thinker of the twentieth century but one whose revival seems timely and urgent in the twenty first century An important influence on Georges Bataille Albert Camus Gilles Deleuze and many others Shestov developed a fascinating anti Enlightenment philosophy that critiqued the limits of reason and triumphantly affirmed an ethics of hope in the face of hopelessness In a wide ranging reappraisal of his life and thought which explores his ideas in relation to the history of literature and painting as well as philosophy Matthew Beaumont restores Shestov to prominence as a thinker for turbulent times In reconstructing Shestov s thought and asserting its continued relevance the book s central theme is wakefulness It argues that for Shestov escape from the limits of rationalist Enlightenment thought comes from maintaining an insomniac vigilance in the face of the spiritual night to which his century appeared condemned Shestov's engagement with the image of Christ remaining awake in the Garden of Gethsemane then is at the core of his inspiring understanding of our ethical responsibilities after the horrors of the twentieth century

The Christ of the Apocalypse: Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation Msgr. A. Robert Nusca, 2018-06-30 That the Apocalypse of John is a Revelation of Jesus Christ Rev 1:1 is a fact too often overlooked by interpreters of this last book of the Bible As Msgr A Robert Nusca's The Christ of the Apocalypse: Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation proposes beyond predictions of earthquakes and falling stars St John articulates from start to finish a multifaceted and compelling portrait of Jesus Christ Nusca offers an exegetical reading of selected verses of the Book of Revelation incorporating rich spiritual and pastoral reflections The Christ of the Apocalypse above all affirms that St John's God and Christ centered symbolic universe offers our contemporary world a spiritual place to stand amid the shifting sands of postmodernity As Cardinal Thomas Collins Archbishop of Toronto writes in his Foreword Now as in the first century Christians face martyrdom and those who are not called to die for Christ are called to live for Christ in a world which in many ways rejects the Gospel More than ever we need the apocalyptic vision to have our own vision of reality clarified and to be strengthened in our evangelical witness

Genius in France Ann Jefferson, 2014-12-21 This engaging book spans three centuries to provide the first full account of the long and diverse history of genius in France Exploring a wide range of examples from literature philosophy and history as well as medicine psychology and journalism Ann Jefferson examines the ways in which the idea of genius has been ceaselessly reflected on and redefined through its uses in these different contexts She traces its varying fortunes through the madness and imposture with which genius is often associated and through the observations of those who determine its presence in others Jefferson considers the modern beginnings of genius in eighteenth century aesthetics and the works of philosophes such as Diderot She then investigates the nineteenth century notion of national and collective genius the self appointed role of Romantic poets as misunderstood geniuses the recurrent obsession with failed genius in the realist novels of writers like Balzac and Zola the contested category of female genius and the medical literature that viewed genius as a form of pathology She shows how twentieth century views of genius narrowed through its association with IQ and child prodigies and she discusses the different ways major theorists including Sartre Barthes Derrida and Kristeva have repudiated and subsequently revived the concept Rich in narrative detail Genius in France brings a fresh approach to French intellectual and cultural history and to the burgeoning field of genius studies

To Make the Hands Impure Adam Zachary Newton, 2016-01-01 How can cradling handling or rubbing a text be said ethically to have made something happen What as readers or interpreters may come off in our hands in as we maculate or mark the books we read For Adam Zachary Newton reading is an embodied practice wherein ethics becomes a matter of tact in the doubled sense of touch and regard With the image of the book lying in the hands of its readers as insistent refrain To Make the Hands Impure cuts a provocative cross disciplinary swath through classical Jewish texts modern Jewish philosophy film and performance literature translation and the material text Newton explores the ethics of reading through a range of texts from the Talmud and Midrash to Conrad's Nostromo and Pascal's Le Mémorial from works by Henry Darger and Martin Scorsese to the National September 11 Memorial and a synagogue in Havana Cuba In separate chapters he conducts masterly treatments of Emmanuel Levinas Mikhail Bakhtin and Stanley Cavell by emphasizing their performances as readers a trebled orientation to Talmud novel and theater film To Make the Hands Impure stages the encounter of literary experience and scriptural traditions the difficult and the holy through an ambitious singular and innovative approach marked in equal measure by erudition and imaginative daring Foundational Theology Neil Ormerod, Christiaan

Jacobs-Vandegeer, 2015-12-01 Fundamental theology is traditionally viewed as the starting point for the various disciplines within Catholic theology it is the place where solid foundations are established for the further research and engagement with the vast terrain of historical systematic philosophical and sacramental liturgical theology In Foundational Theology a landmark new study Neil Ormerod and Christiaan Jacobs Vandegeer seek to ground foundational theology in the normative drive toward meaning truth goodness and beauty appropriated by the theologian through religious moral intellectual and psychic conversions In doing so the work maps out the implications of those fundamental orientations to the specific questions and topics of the Catholic theological tradition God Trinity revelation and an array of doctrinal points of investigation The authors in this work provide a comprehensive approach to theological foundations for theologians while employing a new groundbreaking approach to the discipline through the application of the insights of Bernard Lonergan one of the foremost Catholic theologians of the modern era Theology after Lacan Clayton Crockett, Creston Davis, Marcus

Pound, 2015-02-26 This groundbreaking volume highlights the continuing relevance of Jacques Lacan 1901-1981 a French psychiatrist and psychoanalyst whose linguistic reworking of Freudian analysis radicalised both psychoanalysis and its approach to theology The book's first section Part I Lacan Religion and Others explores the application of Lacan's thought to the development and phenomena of religion Part II Theology and the Other Lacan moves through the physical world and into the metaphysical probing theological issues and ideas of today's world with curiosity and in the light of Lacan In both parts I and II a central place is given to Lacan's exposition of the real thereby reflecting the impact of his later work Topics traverse culture art philosophy and politics as well as providing critical exegesis of Lacan's most gnomic utterances on theology including The Triumph of Religion Contributors include some of the most renowned readers and influential academics in their respective fields Tina Beattie Lorenzo Chiesa Clayton Crockett Creston Davis Adrian Johnston Katerina Kolozova Thomas Lynch Marcus Pound Carl Raschke Kenneth Reinhard Mario D'Amato Noelle Vahanian and Slavoj Žižek

Sartre on Sin Kate Kirkpatrick,2017 Sartre on Sin Between Being and Nothingness argues that Jean Paul Sartre s early anti humanist philosophy is indebted to the Christian doctrine of original sin On the standard reading Sartre s most fundamental and attractive idea is freedom he wished to demonstrate the existence of human freedom and did so by connecting consciousness with nothingness Focusing on Being and Nothingness Kate Kirkpatrick demonstrates that Sartre s concept of nothingness le neant has a Christian genealogy which has been overlooked in philosophical and theological discussions of his work Previous scholars have noted the resemblance between Sartre s and Augustine s ontologies to name but one shared theme both thinkers describe the human as the being through which nothingness enters the world However there has been no previous in depth examination of this resemblance Using historical exegetical and conceptual methods Kirkpatrick demonstrates that Sartre s intellectual formation prior to his discovery of phenomenology included theological elements especially concerning the compatibility of freedom with sin and grace After outlining the French Augustinianisms by which Sartre s account of the human as between being and nothingness was informed Kirkpatrick offers a close reading of Being and Nothingness which shows that the psychological epistemological and ethical consequences of Sartre s le neant closely resemble the consequences of its theological predecessor and that his account of freedom can be read as an anti theodicy Sartre on Sin illustrates that Sartre s insights are valuable resources for contemporary hamartiology
