Passage West A Novel:

Passage West Rishi Reddi, 2020-04-21 A sweeping vibrant first novel following a family of Indian sharecroppers at the onset of World War I revealing a little known part of California history 1913 Ram Singh arrives in California's Imperial Valley reluctantly accepting his friend Karak's offer to come work on a small cantaloupe farm Ram is unmoored fleeing a traumatic incident in Oregon he desperately longs to return to his wife and newborn son in India but is duty bound to make his fortune first In the Valley civilization is still new and the rules are ever shifting Alongside Karak his uncle Jivan and Jivan's nephew Amarjeet Ram joins in the struggle to make ends meet as a sharecropper in the unforgiving desert The Valley is full of immigrants from other continents and the stakes are unceasingly high just one bad harvest or unfair sale could destabilize the entire family As anti immigrant sentiment begins to rise among the white Valley residents and as new laws are passed to support their position all immigrants are threatened and there is murder in the air The livelihood for which the family sacrificed everything is suddenly at risk And when a simmering rivalry develops between Ram and Karak the tensions of life in the West threaten to finally boil over In this unforgettable debut novel Rishi Reddi unflinchingly asks the foundational question Who is welcome in America Atmospheric and richly told Passage West offers a profoundly moving portrait of a cobbled together family in search of belonging Passage West Dallas Miller, 1983-03-01 Passage West Dallas Miller, 1979 Passage West Book Five John Killdeer, 1993 Passage West Ruth Ryan Langan, 1988 At 17 Abby Market was as tough and resilient as she was beautiful She had to be setting out from Missouri on a wagon train for California But when she met Rourke the rugged gunman hired to guard the wagon train Abby felt the first yearnings of desire Strange View from a Skewed Orbit Ardath Mayhar, 2009-08-01 A delightful memoir of the fantasy science fiction mystery western and young adult writer Ardath Mayhar whose seventy books and hundreds of short stories have charmed readers throughout the world Imagination and the Contemporary Novel John J. Su, 2011-05-26 Imagination and the Contemporary Novel examines the global preoccupation with the imagination among literary authors with ties to former colonies of the British Empire since the 1960s John Su draws on a wide range of authors including Peter Ackroyd Monica Ali Julian Barnes Andr Brink J M Coetzee John Fowles Amitav Ghosh Nadine Gordimer Hanif Kureishi Salman Rushdie and Zadie Smith This study rehabilitates the category of imagination in order to understand a broad range of contemporary Anglophone literature The responses of such literature to shifts in global capitalism have often been misunderstood by the dominant categories of literary studies the postmodern and the postcolonial As both an insightful critique into the themes that drive a range of today's best novelists and a bold restatement of what the imagination is and what it means for contemporary culture this book breaks new ground in the study of twenty first century literature Without the Novel Scott Black, 2019-08-23 No genre manifests the pleasure of reading and its power to consume and enchant more than romance In suspending the category of the novel to rethink the way prose fiction works Without the Novel demonstrates what literary history looks like from the perspective of such readerly excesses and adventures Rejecting the assumption that novelistic realism is the most significant tendency in the history of prose fiction Black asks three intertwined questions What is fiction without the novel What is literary history without the novel What is reading without the novel In answer this study draws on the neglected genre of romance to reintegrate eighteenth century British fiction with its classical and Continental counterparts Black addresses works of prose fiction that self consciously experiment with the formal structures and readerly affordances of romance Heliodorus s Ethiopian Story Cervantes s Don Quixote Fielding s Tom Jones Sterne s Tristram Shandy and Burney s The Wanderer Each text presents itself as a secondary satiric adaptation of anachronistic and alien narratives but in revising foreign stories each text also relays them The recursive reading that these works portray and demand makes each a self reflexive parable of romance itself Ultimately Without the Novel writes a wider weirder history of fiction organized by the recurrences of romance and informed by the pleasures of reading that define the genre General Catalogue of Mariners' Charts and Books Published and Sold by the Hydrographic Office United States.
