Nathaniel Hawthorne,2015-07-12 Excerpt from Passages From the American Note Books of Nathaniel Hawthorne After the death of Hawthorne the desire for a biography was so strongly expressed both among his friends and by the public at large that his widow was prompted to supply in part the information of which there was obviously much need As she has explained in her Preface to the English Note Books Hawthorne s own wish was that no one should attempt to write his life Lapsing time and the perspective imparted by the world s settled estimate of his genius have shown that no final restriction ought to be imposed on the natural instinct and right of students and sincere admirers to seek a more personal knowledge of the author than his imaginative writings could yield His preference respecting the publication of a biography was not indeed an absolute injunction but it is not strange that Mrs Hawthorne should have chosen to conform to it In default then of the life which she was unwilling to countenance or undertake she resolved to offer these extracts from his memorandum books or diaries supplemented by portions of his letters They were designed to present some suggestion of his mode of life and mental habit and to counteract a false impression of his personality which the sombre tone of his fictions had spread abroad About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Passages from the American Note-Books of Nathaniel Hawthorne - Scholar's Choice Edition Hawthorne
