Passages Of Gold:

Passages of Gold Ginger Chambers,1990 Excerpts from The Crater of Gold J. Calvin Mitchell,1918 The Gold and the Dross David I. Backer,2019-02-11 In the last decade there has been an international resurgence of interest in the philosophy of Louis Althusser New essays journalism collections secondary literature and even manuscripts by Althusser himself are emerging speaking in fresh ways to audiences of theorists and activists Althusser is especially important in educational thought as he famously claimed that school is the most impactful ideological state apparatus in modern society This insight inspired a generation of educational researchers but Althusser s philosophy unique in a number of ways one of which was its emphasis on education largely lost popularity Despite this resurgence of interest and while Althusser s philosophy is important for educators and activists to know about it remains difficult to understand The Gold and the Dross Althusser for Educators with succinct prose and a creative organization introduces readers to Althusser s thinking Intended for those who have never encountered Althusser s theory before and even those who are new to philosophy and critical theory in general the book elaborates the basic tenets of Althusser s philosophy using examples and personal stories juxtaposed with selected passages of Althusser s writing Starting with a beginner s guide to interpellation and Althusser s concept of ideology the book continues by elaborating the epistemology and ontology Althusser produced and concludes with his concepts of society and science The Gold and the Dross makes Althusser s philosophy more available to contemporary audiences of educators and activists Teeline Gold Workbook Harry Butler,1991 This is the companion to the Teeline Gold Course Book Linked chapter by chapter it provides additional Teeline practice material and longhand transcription to reinforce classroom learning improve outline and develop speed The Emigrant in Australia, Or, Gleanings from the Gold-field Australian Journalist,1852 'Gold Tried in the Fire'. The Prophet TheaurauJohn Tany and the English Revolution Ariel Hessayon,2016-12-05 This is a study of the most fascinating and idiosyncratic of all seventeenth century figures Like its famous predecessor The Cheese and The Worms The Cosmos of a Sixteenth Century Miller it explores the everyday life and mental world of an extraordinary yet humble figure Born in Lincolnshire with a family of Cambridgeshire origins Thomas Totney 1608 1659 was a London puritan goldsmith and veteran of the Civil War In November 1649 after fourteen weeks of self abasement fasting and prayer he experienced a profound spiritual transformation Taking the prophetic name TheaurauJohn Tany and declaring himself a Jew of the Tribe of Reuben descended from Aaron the High Priest he set about enacting a millenarian mission to restore the Jews to their own land Inspired prophetic gestures followed as Tany took to living in a tent preaching in the parks and fields around London He gathered a handful of followers and in the week that Cromwell was offered the crown famously burned his bible and attacked Parliament with sword drawn In the summer of 1656 he set sail from the Kentish coast perhaps with some disciples in tow bound for Jerusalem He found his way to Holland perhaps there to gather the Jews of Amsterdam Some three years later now calling himself Ram Johoram Tany was reported lost drowned after taking passage in a ship from Brielle bound for London During his prophetic phase Tany wrote a number of remarkable but elusive works that are unlike anything else in the English language His sources were varied although they seem to have included almanacs popular prophecies and legal treatises as well as scriptural and extra canonical texts and the writings of the German mystic Jacob Boehme Indeed Tany s writings embrace currents of magic and mysticism alchemy and astrology numerology and angelology Neoplatonism and Gnosticism Hermeticism and Christian Kabbalah a ferment of ideas that fused in a millenarian yearning for the hoped for
