Biography and Turning Points in Europe and America Hackstaff, Karla B., Kupferberg, Feiwei, 2012-06-22 This sociological collection advances the argument that the concept of a turning point expands our understanding of life experiences from a descriptive to a deeper and more abstract level of analysis It addresses the conceptual issue of what distinguishes turning points from life transitions in general and raises crucial questions about the application of turning points as a biographical research method Biography and turning points in Europe and America is all the more distinctive and significant due to its broad empirical database The anthology includes authors from ten different countries providing a number of contexts for thinking about how turning points relate to constructions of meaning shaped by globalization and by cultural and structural meanings unique to each country The book will be useful across a wide range of social sciences and particularly valuable for researchers needing a stronger theoretical base for biographical work

Immigrant and Asylum Seekers Labour Market Integration upon Arrival: NowHereLand Irina Isaakyan, Anna Triandafyllidou, Simone Baglioni, 2022-11-18 Through an inter subjective lens this open access book investigates the initial labour market integration experiences of these migrants refugees or asylum seekers who are characterised by different biographies and migration asylum trajectories The book gives voice to the migrants and seeks to highlight their own experiences and understandings of the labour market integration process in the first years of immigration It adopts a critical qualitative perspective but does not remain ethnographic The book rather refers the migrants own voice and experience to their own expert knowledge of the policy and socio economic context that is navigated Each chapter brings into dialogue the migrant s intersubjective experiences with the relevant policies and practices as well as with the relevant stakeholders whether local government national services civil society or migrant organisations The book concludes with relevant critical insights as to how labour market integration is lived on the ground and on what migrants do with labour market policies rather than on what labour market policies do to or for migrants
