The Story of Colchester Zoo S. C. Kershaw, 2013-05-15 Colchester Zoo is today one of the finest zoos in Britain Yet unlike almost every other major zoo in the country Colchester Zoo has never had its story told until now The forgotten figures of Frank and Helena Farrar are here brought to life once again in these pages which show how they founded firstly Southport Zoo in the 1950s and then Colchester Zoo in the 1960s Told here is the story of how Frank and Helena s domestic life with their lions and monkeys prompted them to embark on a series of adventures which took them all over the world Also told is the story of how Colchester Zoo declined in the 1970s and how the Tropeano family turned it into the internationally respected breeding centre for endangered animals that it is today This is a tale of struggle and heartbreak but also of transformation and redemption and is a fitting tribute to one of our great animal institutions as it reaches its fiftieth anniversary

The Social Behavior of Older Animals Anne Innis Dagg, 2009-02-02 A groundbreaking study on the lives of senior mammals and birds from the aging of alphas to the role of grandmothers by the author of Animal Friendships How do young and old social animals view each other Are aged animals perceived by others as weaker Or wiser What is the relationship between age and power among social animals Taking a cue from Frans de Waal s seminal work examining the lives of chimpanzees Anne Innis Dagg in this pioneering study probes the lives of older mammals and birds

Nature and Social Theory Adrian Franklin, 2002 This book asks the questions can Man be separated from Nature Is it valid to seek to control Nature It argues that the firm modern boundaries between nature and culture have been breached and pulls together new strands of thinking about nature which suggest that humanity and nature have never been separate The argument is developed through a critical discussion of the Romantic ideal of pure nature unsullied by humanity and largely confined to fragile margins in need of protection and more recent discourses which identify nature with environment and cast man in the role of a polluter and destroyer

Heroes and Contemporaries Jonathan Aitken, 2006-07-30 Heroes and Contemporaries is a book of profiles written with the author's personal insights anecdotes and judgments on fascinating public figures he encountered in life's journey

Jonathan Aiken was for many years at the heart of British journalism and politics. The early chapters here offer illuminating portraits of historical characters Aitken knew as a young man including Sir Winston Churchill, Randolph Churchill and Lord Beaverbrook, the author's great uncle who founded the Aitken dynasty of newspaper owners and politicians. In his own career which took him through 23 years in the House of Commons to the Cabinet, Aitken became close to some of the most intriguing figures in British politics including Harold Wilson, Margaret Thatcher and her family and Michael Portillo, all profiled in these pages. Jonathan Aitken also enjoyed a colourful personal and business life which ranged wider than politics. This is reflected in the chapters on Sir James Goldsmith, John Aspinall and Sir Frank Williams. During his prison sentence, Aitken was visited by several of his subjects including Lord Longford and Nicky Gumbel. The resulting mixture of these profiles makes a book attractively written, biographical studies full of fresh perceptions and revealing stories. Jew Made in England Anthony Blond, 2004. A rake's progress by one of publishing's great eccentrics: the memoirs of Anthony Blond. Richly entertaining, delightfully unstuffy, plenty of juicy gossip. Mail on Sunday.
