said A leader is best when people barely know he exists when his work is done his aim fulfilled they will all say we did it ourselves Lao Tzu s thought on leadership is a rather deep one extending beyond the physical For Lao Tzu a leader does his job best when he can make his men accomplish their mission without him actually taking part in the physical endeavors A leader is someone who brings out his men s best potential not someone who does most of the work One of the greatest military leaders in the world s history the French general and emperor Napoleon Bonaparte appears to share almost the same thoughts of leadership with Lao Tzu When I give a minister an order I leave it to him to find the means to carry it out For him leadership is not about directing people all the way through getting a job done Being a leader involves choosing the right men to do the right job and letting them do it their way The Passion Plan at Work Richard Y.
