Passion Six New Short Plays By Australian Women:

Passion Ros Horin, 1994 Barefoot A wry anarchic farce about women with a passion for passion Australian National Bibliography, 1995 Belonging John McCallum, 2009 John McCallum's new history explores the relationship between 20th century Australian drama and a developing concept of nation The book focuses on the creative tension sparked by dueling impulses between nationalism and cosmopolitanism and between artistic seriousness and larrikin populism It explores issues such as the domineering influence of European high culture the ongoing popularity of representational realism the influence of popular theatrical forms the ambivalence between affection and aggression of much Australian humour and satire and the interaction between the personal and the political in drama The strength of Belonging is its comprehensiveness anyone studying an Australian play will find an account of it here in the context of the other works by its author or the time and place in which it was written As well as a rundown of the major writers and their works and an account of how the minor writers fitted in the book also investigates the more obscure plays and writers about whom little has been written This authoritative study of Australian drama gives an account of the relationship between our theatre and our sense of self while taking into account a broad range of influences that helped to shape both Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 Australian Books in Print 1998 Bowker, 1998-04 excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage AMERICAN REFERENCE BOOKS ANNUAL This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 75 000 in print books published in or about Australia or written by Australian authors organized by title author keyword You'll also find brief profiles of more than 7 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade associations local agents of overseas publishers literary awards more From D W Thorpe British and Irish Drama since 1960 James Acheson, 2015-12-24 The fifteen essays in this collection published here for the first time survey the work of some of the major British and Irish dramatists since 1960 Included are four dramatists Samuel Beckett Harold Pinter Peter Shaffer and Peter Nichols who began writing plays before 1960 and whose work since then has continued to develop interestingly Most of the dramatists considered here however are those who have begun writing more recently and who illustrate some of the distinctive characteristics of British and Irish drama of our time Contemporary Australian Drama Leonard Radic, 2006 In the late 1960s new theatre companies who had a passion for Australianess were created in opposition to stuffy mostly imported theatre of no relevance to themselves This work gives insights on how the new drama explored Australian themes and issues in a theatre where the playwright had pride of place History Of Australia (Volumes 5 & 6) Manning Clark, 1999-09-13 Manning Clark's six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1888 1945 covers Federation the Boer War and World War I's Gallipoli It finishes with the story of an emerging Australian identity at the point of its greatest trial the outbreak of World War II This is not a general

Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive Critical Perspectives on Contemporary Plays by Women Penny Farfan, Lesley Ferris, 2021-07-22 This book foregrounds some of the ways in which women playwrights from across a range of contexts and working in a variety of forms and styles are illuminating the contemporary world while also contributing to its reshaping as they reflect rethink and reimagine it through their work for the stage The book is framed by a substantial introduction that sets forth the critical vision and structure of the book as a whole and an afterword that points toward emerging currents in and expansions of the contemporary field of playwriting by women on the cusp of the third decade of the twenty first century Within this frame the twenty eight chapters that form the main body of the book each focusing on a single play of critical significance together constitute a multi faceted inevitably partial yet nonetheless integral picture of the work of women playwrights since 2000 as they engage with some of the most pressing issues of our time Some of these issues include the continuing oppression of and violence against women people of color LGBTQ people and ethnic minorities the ongoing processes of decolonization the consequences of neoliberal capitalism the devastation and enduring trauma of war global migration and the refugee crisis the turn to right wing populism and the impact of climate change including environmental disaster and species extinction The book is structured into seven sections Replaying the Canon Representing Histories Staging Lives Re imagining Family Navigating Communities Articulating Intersections and New World Order s These sections group clusters of plays according to the broad critical actions they perform or in the case of the final section the new world orders that they capture through their stagings of the seeming impasse of the politically and environmentally catastrophic global present moment There are many other points of resonance among and across the plays but this seven part structure foregrounds the broader actions that drive the plays both in the Aristotelian dramaturgical sense and in the larger sense of the critical interventions that the plays creatively enact In this way the seven part structure establishes correspondences across the great diversity of dramatic material represented in the book while at the same time identifying key methods of critical approach and areas of focus that align the book s contributors across this diversity The structure of the book thus parallels what the playwrights themselves are doing but also how the contributors are approaching their work Plays featured in the book are from Canada Australia South Africa the US the UK France Argentina New Zealand Syria Brazil Italy and Austria the playwrights include Margaret Atwood Leah Purcell Ya l Farber Paula Vogel Adrienne Kennedy Suzan Lori Parks debbie tucker green Lisa Loomer H l ne Cixous Anna Deavere Smith Lola Arias Lisa Kron and Jeanine Tesori Marie Clements Quiara Alegr a Hudes Alia Bano Holly Hughes Whiti Hereaka Julia Cho Liwaa Yazji Grace Pass Dominique Morisseau Emma Dante Frances Ya Chu Cowhig Lynn Nottage Elfriede Jelinek Caryl Churchill Colleen Murphy and Lucy Kirkwood Encompassing several generations of playwrights and scholars ranging from the most senior to mid career to emerging voices the book will be essential reading for established researchers a valuable
